Meeting of the Allegheny Steam Fire Engine Company

Committee of three was appointed to prepare resolutions touching the matter for which this meeting had been called. The Committee relired, and after a short absence returned and submitted the following sport: WEREAS, An ordinance was passed by the WHEREAS, An ordinance was passed by the tate Councils making it obligatory upon the fallegaesy Steam Fire Engine Company to change its position; and, whereas, said change would destroy the usefulness of, if not entirely disband, this company, which has now been in active service; for over half a century; in active service; for over half a century; therefore, Reselect, That we respectfully but firmly decline to charge our position; we sincerely trust that Councils will not destroy our efficiency by refusing to contribute the annual appropriation said to the other steamers. Reselects, That if the appropriation is refused us, we will, by contributions from the members and others, endeavor to run this steamers, and by doing our duty as firmmen seek to repay by services those gentleman by whose liberality this steamer has been built. Resolved, That is copy of these resolutions given to the numbers of Councils from the Fourth ward, with the request that they shall use their influence to procure the annual appropriation for each of their steamers in the present location.

The report was accepted, and after a few remarks by Mr. M'Leughlin, it was adopted without a dissenting voice.

There were about forty members present, and hence there can be no difficulty in interpreting their view, since they have been expressed with such unanimity.

Dr. Guthrie's Lecture. The lecture of this gentleman at Lufayette negre character; of the effects of the slave-holder's rebellion upon the slave system; of the character of the negroes—their readiness the work for wages, and not without; their full persuasion that "the year of jubilee is some;" their strong and simple religious field, and of the fearful danger that will attend any attempt to re-ensize the hundred thousand also of the river countries which this war has Hiberated.

He spoke of the greatly increased prosperity which will result from a system of compensated negro isbor; and characterised as the veriest demagogueism the absured ory that the freed slaves will come north to compete with white labor. He closed with a cheering and eloquent expression of hope of the future of this sountry, when the cause of the present treable shall be abolished. His remarks the number were arrests by an and free free the summary was arrests by an and free free the summary was carried to the present treable shall be abolished.

Death of Capt. A. J. Mason. The remains of Capt. A. J. Mason, of the 145th Pennsylvania Regiment, who died in Washington, of wounds received in the battle of Fradericksburg, were recently interred with appropriate honors at Conneauville, Crawford county. Capt. Mason was for several years editor and publisher of the Conneauville General, and was an earnest Republican and friend of reform. He was struck by a piece of shell, which injured his leg so that amputation between the county of the survived four weeks. He leaves a wife and children.

MILITARY AND HAVAL DEFOT. It is said to have been determined to estab lisw a large military and naval depot as Brunswick Bay, Georgia, where it is state that Thurlow Weed owns a valuable rea estate in the vicinity. CONGRESSIONAL

The House spent the greater part of it session to-day in the discussion of the case of Colonel Vandever. It had been left yester day hanging on the appeal from the Chairs lectrion, that the simple majority vote we sufficient to declare Vandever's seat vacant. This morning that appeal was promptly laid on the table, and a vote deciseat vacant was then reconsidered by a hand some majority.

A motion was then made to postpone t urther consideration of the case until the 3d of March, on which a protracted debate on the movement to oust Vandayer to Vallan digham, was a telling one, full of strong points, and went largely to secure the succ of the motion.

The question possessed negative interes because the principle laid down by the Committee on Elections—that any member hav ing, at any time during his membership, held a position in the military service of the Uniad States was thereby disqualified for membership in the House would have unseate not less than ten Bepublicans and four Democrats now in the House, namely . CARE OF VARIAL A. BORD. Dn. G. H. Kurker.—I take pleasure in makin his voluntary statement in favor of a modicine pre this voluntary statement in layor of a medicate property by you called "Lemman" Bloom Skannows.

I had suffered for five years with Scrofule, which broke out on my head and forekeed so as to distin arm above and below the ell two of the old. I believe it is a great deal stronger and better. I have recommended the Blood Search or to a great many of my friends for various diseases. and I believe it has helped the whole of them. You may publish this if you wish, and I we anxious that all who are afflicted as I was may so cured. I live in this city, Ho. & Pine strps, and an employed a veh-
