

Officers Prosecuted for Seizing Impure Beef

On Friday last, a batch of beef, Hamilton was arrested in Allegheny market on a charge of offering impure meat for sale, and fined by the Mayor, under the ordinance...

Outrageous Assault upon a Negro

On Monday forenoon, a number of men were engaged in clearing the snow away from the tracks of the Allegheny Railway, opposite the Allegheny station...

Our Book Table

Henry Cooper's latest containing lithographic designs for costumes, also, Country Clubhouse City Building, Railway Station, etc.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company

Direct attention to the very gratifying exhibit of the financial condition of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, as published in our advertising columns...

Special Election in Allegheny

The vote of the First Ward, Allegheny, will also be held in mind the special election to be held to-day, to choose a member of Select Council to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. George Lewis.

Meeting of Council

A regular monthly meeting of City Council was held on Monday evening, Feb. 23. In Select present, Messrs. Allen, Brown, Berger, Herdman, Miller, McMillan, McCarty, Morris, McClellan, Phillips, Quinn, J. Reed, D. Reed, Williams, Young, McKinley, President.

The minutes of January 26th and Feb. 2d were read and approved. Mr. Phillips presented a communication from the City Controller, John McCarroll, regarding the annual reports of the other City officers...

From this statement we find that the total amount appropriated for the year 1905, including the balance of 1904, was $1,047,747.74. The total amount of warrants drawn was $1,047,747.74...

Mr. Quinn presented the petition of John Reed, asking permission to remove a frame building, injured by grading of Granite street, to another portion of his lot. Petition granted.

Mr. Quinn presented a resolution permitting the removal of the building, which was read three times and passed. Mr. Allen presented the report of the Water Commission, with the annual report of the Superintendent of the Water Works. Read and approved.

Mr. Quinn presented the petition of John Reed, asking permission to remove a frame building, injured by grading of Granite street, to another portion of his lot. Petition granted.

Mr. Quinn presented a resolution permitting the removal of the building, which was read three times and passed. Mr. Allen presented the report of the Water Commission, with the annual report of the Superintendent of the Water Works. Read and approved.

Mr. Quinn presented the petition of John Reed, asking permission to remove a frame building, injured by grading of Granite street, to another portion of his lot. Petition granted.

THE LATEST NEWS

FROM TELEGRAPH

FROM WASHINGTON

OUR SPECIAL DISPATCHES

Special Dispatches to the Pittsburgh Gazette

The financial measure remains unchanged, Mr. Wilson gains ground, but the Senate will carry most of the points on which it and the House have differed. The Senate's Committee of Conference very decidedly represents the Senate's views, while the House Committee does not fully represent the House's views.

The House took up the bill for the relief of the insolvent debtors, which was read three times and passed. Mr. Wilson gains ground, but the Senate will carry most of the points on which it and the House have differed.

Mr. Wilson gains ground, but the Senate will carry most of the points on which it and the House have differed. The House took up the bill for the relief of the insolvent debtors, which was read three times and passed.

Mr. Wilson gains ground, but the Senate will carry most of the points on which it and the House have differed. The House took up the bill for the relief of the insolvent debtors, which was read three times and passed.

Mr. Wilson gains ground, but the Senate will carry most of the points on which it and the House have differed. The House took up the bill for the relief of the insolvent debtors, which was read three times and passed.

Mr. Wilson gains ground, but the Senate will carry most of the points on which it and the House have differed. The House took up the bill for the relief of the insolvent debtors, which was read three times and passed.

Mr. Wilson gains ground, but the Senate will carry most of the points on which it and the House have differed. The House took up the bill for the relief of the insolvent debtors, which was read three times and passed.

Mr. Wilson gains ground, but the Senate will carry most of the points on which it and the House have differed. The House took up the bill for the relief of the insolvent debtors, which was read three times and passed.

FROM HARRISBURG

Special Dispatches to the Pittsburgh Gazette

Special Dispatches to the Pittsburgh Gazette

Special Dispatches to the Pittsburgh Gazette

Special Dispatches to the Pittsburgh Gazette

Mr. Wilson gains ground, but the Senate will carry most of the points on which it and the House have differed. The House took up the bill for the relief of the insolvent debtors, which was read three times and passed.

Mr. Wilson gains ground, but the Senate will carry most of the points on which it and the House have differed. The House took up the bill for the relief of the insolvent debtors, which was read three times and passed.

Mr. Wilson gains ground, but the Senate will carry most of the points on which it and the House have differed. The House took up the bill for the relief of the insolvent debtors, which was read three times and passed.

Mr. Wilson gains ground, but the Senate will carry most of the points on which it and the House have differed. The House took up the bill for the relief of the insolvent debtors, which was read three times and passed.

Mr. Wilson gains ground, but the Senate will carry most of the points on which it and the House have differed. The House took up the bill for the relief of the insolvent debtors, which was read three times and passed.

Mr. Wilson gains ground, but the Senate will carry most of the points on which it and the House have differed. The House took up the bill for the relief of the insolvent debtors, which was read three times and passed.

Mr. Wilson gains ground, but the Senate will carry most of the points on which it and the House have differed. The House took up the bill for the relief of the insolvent debtors, which was read three times and passed.

Mr. Wilson gains ground, but the Senate will carry most of the points on which it and the House have differed. The House took up the bill for the relief of the insolvent debtors, which was read three times and passed.

SPECIAL LOCAL NOTICES

Special Local Notices

Special Local Notices

Special Local Notices

Special Local Notices

Mr. Wilson gains ground, but the Senate will carry most of the points on which it and the House have differed. The House took up the bill for the relief of the insolvent debtors, which was read three times and passed.

Mr. Wilson gains ground, but the Senate will carry most of the points on which it and the House have differed. The House took up the bill for the relief of the insolvent debtors, which was read three times and passed.

Mr. Wilson gains ground, but the Senate will carry most of the points on which it and the House have differed. The House took up the bill for the relief of the insolvent debtors, which was read three times and passed.

Mr. Wilson gains ground, but the Senate will carry most of the points on which it and the House have differed. The House took up the bill for the relief of the insolvent debtors, which was read three times and passed.

Mr. Wilson gains ground, but the Senate will carry most of the points on which it and the House have differed. The House took up the bill for the relief of the insolvent debtors, which was read three times and passed.

Mr. Wilson gains ground, but the Senate will carry most of the points on which it and the House have differed. The House took up the bill for the relief of the insolvent debtors, which was read three times and passed.

Mr. Wilson gains ground, but the Senate will carry most of the points on which it and the House have differed. The House took up the bill for the relief of the insolvent debtors, which was read three times and passed.

Mr. Wilson gains ground, but the Senate will carry most of the points on which it and the House have differed. The House took up the bill for the relief of the insolvent debtors, which was read three times and passed.

SPECIAL LOCAL NOTICES

Special Local Notices

Special Local Notices

Special Local Notices

Special Local Notices

Mr. Wilson gains ground, but the Senate will carry most of the points on which it and the House have differed. The House took up the bill for the relief of the insolvent debtors, which was read three times and passed.

Mr. Wilson gains ground, but the Senate will carry most of the points on which it and the House have differed. The House took up the bill for the relief of the insolvent debtors, which was read three times and passed.

Mr. Wilson gains ground, but the Senate will carry most of the points on which it and the House have differed. The House took up the bill for the relief of the insolvent debtors, which was read three times and passed.

Mr. Wilson gains ground, but the Senate will carry most of the points on which it and the House have differed. The House took up the bill for the relief of the insolvent debtors, which was read three times and passed.

Mr. Wilson gains ground, but the Senate will carry most of the points on which it and the House have differed. The House took up the bill for the relief of the insolvent debtors, which was read three times and passed.

Mr. Wilson gains ground, but the Senate will carry most of the points on which it and the House have differed. The House took up the bill for the relief of the insolvent debtors, which was read three times and passed.

Mr. Wilson gains ground, but the Senate will carry most of the points on which it and the House have differed. The House took up the bill for the relief of the insolvent debtors, which was read three times and passed.

Mr. Wilson gains ground, but the Senate will carry most of the points on which it and the House have differed. The House took up the bill for the relief of the insolvent debtors, which was read three times and passed.

SPECIAL LOCAL NOTICES

Special Local Notices

Special Local Notices

Special Local Notices

Special Local Notices

Mr. Wilson gains ground, but the Senate will carry most of the points on which it and the House have differed. The House took up the bill for the relief of the insolvent debtors, which was read three times and passed.

Mr. Wilson gains ground, but the Senate will carry most of the points on which it and the House have differed. The House took up the bill for the relief of the insolvent debtors, which was read three times and passed.

Mr. Wilson gains ground, but the Senate will carry most of the points on which it and the House have differed. The House took up the bill for the relief of the insolvent debtors, which was read three times and passed.

Mr. Wilson gains ground, but the Senate will carry most of the points on which it and the House have differed. The House took up the bill for the relief of the insolvent debtors, which was read three times and passed.

Mr. Wilson gains ground, but the Senate will carry most of the points on which it and the House have differed. The House took up the bill for the relief of the insolvent debtors, which was read three times and passed.

Mr. Wilson gains ground, but the Senate will carry most of the points on which it and the House have differed. The House took up the bill for the relief of the insolvent debtors, which was read three times and passed.

Mr. Wilson gains ground, but the Senate will carry most of the points on which it and the House have differed. The House took up the bill for the relief of the insolvent debtors, which was read three times and passed.

Mr. Wilson gains ground, but the Senate will carry most of the points on which it and the House have differed. The House took up the bill for the relief of the insolvent debtors, which was read three times and passed.