The stainer was the towhoat Herories, inded with Pittaburgh coal. This is the third boat destroyed by guarrillas, in, the Immediate virialty of Memphis-the Herewiss, Grampai, No. 2, and Musiciman. The ministry of the horrified, issing the deed would bring the Federal guaboats, rengence on them. All hung ont white flags. The mechinary of the Hereules can probably be saved. The Hereules was owned by Nicholas Big-

The Heroules was owned by Nicholas Big-loy, of this city, and was a very valuable and powerful tag. The owner last summir had her hull and upper-works thoroughly repaired, at a cost of several thorsand dollars, and she was worth perhaps $30,000: Her owner had a contract for supplying the government with local; and is was while in that busines; that she was selsed and burned. She was com-manded by Capt: Thomas M'Glusky, of Man-ehester. John Bigler, of this city, was on-gineer; and Thomas Collins, of Fayetto contry, and Wm. Smith, of Louisville, were 1 pilots.
