

DIMORDELLE CONDUCT.—John M'Etherron, charged with disorderly conduct on eath of Lynd McGoffin, was yeaterday fined five dollars and souts, by Mayor Alexander. "It is alleged that John visited the Lavara of Mr. M'Geffa; on Rabecca street; on Friday night last, and raised a disturbance—breaking windows, etc.

by the police, who had not yet left the Girard House. Capt. Wright, Provost Marshal, or-dered the fuglitive to be handouffed, and will see that he is cafely returned to his regiment.

Is Town—Our esteemed friend and quon-don neighbor, Stephen Little, Eq., Auditor of the Horthern Central Rallway, is in town on a short visit of business and friendship. His proximity to the "bivalve" region seems to agree with him very well. By the way, we had occasion to pass over the Northern Central a short time since, and found it much improved. A goodly number of new passen-

Central a short time since, and found it much improved. A goodly number of new passenger cars have been placed upon it, which are as easy and comfortable as any we ever rode in. Under its present Presidency and management it bids fair to be one of the best and most expeditious roads in the country. BAD Boys.-Mayor Alexander had five BAD BOYS.—Mayor Alexander had five boys before him—some of them very small patterss—charged with entering the house of Mr. James Charles, on James street, and car-rying off a quantity of canned fruits, pre-serves, jellies, etc. The house was entered on Saturday evening, while the family was abent. The names of the beys were Jolly, Myers, Green, Mason and Leavett. Mr. Chargies declined to prosecute them, and they were discharged on their parents making good the loss systained.
