A Union Club has just been formed in Boston, Edward Everett Presiding. They have bought the Abbott Lawrence Mansion, at a cost of $50,000, for their headquarters. The object of the organization is the unwavering support of the Government in putting down the rebellion.

A Rebel Journal on the Peace Democrats of the North.

The Richmond Examiner, of the 21st ult., is bitter against arecontruction of the Union. As this sheet is as open in its censures of Jeff. Davis' administration as it dare be, its agreement with his official organ, the Enquirer, in spurning the overtures of the Northern peace men, is the more important. It says the "Abolition majority" of the North, and the majority in the South, are alike opposed to the copperhead plan. Why then should the Peace Democrats "respect or desire to form into communion parties actuated by such unconstitutional antipathies. It required forty years to accomplish this dissolution of the Union, and it can be effected by radical measures. The old roots of affection which bound the two people together had to be thoroughly uptorn before the work could be accomplished. The task had to be so effectually done as to be incapable of being undone.

"The Northern Democrats ask now, that, with the frivolity of children, the two communities should ignore the past, should treat the tremendous events of the last forty years as trifles; and with a debt of two or three billions of dollars incurred in mutual slaughter, should shake the bloody hands of each other, and be brothers once more. The thing is not possible. It would be barbarous, corrupt and wicked. We but bruise could shake hands and be friends with the slayers of brothers and companions."

An African Conservative on the Yankees.

A friend relates to us an amusing incident connected with the great celebration of Monday, in this place. An old house-servant of one of our very aristocratic rebel families, who hates "Lincolnites" and "poor white trash" as heartily as Jeff. Davis does, was walking slowly along the square as the grand procession was forming. Soldiers were moving to and fro, regiments were forming to the sound of lively music, citizens and visitors, thronged the sidewalks, children ran about with banners, and thousands of flags fluttered like fragments of rainbows, from the various buildings. The conservative contraband paced slowly along, rolling his distended eyes in all directions, apparently overwhelmed by the exhibition and bustle around him. Approaching our friend, he exclaimed:

"My God! What are we Southern folks coming to? Master said, a year ago, dat de Yankees done gone away forever. Now dey is swarmin about thicker dan locussus. Dey runs dere boats on our river. Dey presside all our niggers. Dey livin in our houses. Dey drivin our wagons. Dey ringin our bells. Dey confiscatin our property. Dey eatin up our meat and corn. Dey done killed up most all of our men; and 'fore God, I spec dey are gwine to marry all our widders!"

And hearing a deep groan from the bottom of his continental waistcoat, he shook his head in sadness, and passed slowly onward, to the joyful chimes of the church-bells, and the heart-stirring strains of "Yankee Doodle."
—Nashville Union.

Pennsylvania Legislature.

HARRISBURG, March 2, 1863.

SENATE.—The Senate assembled at seven o'clock p.m.

Mr. Stein presented a petition of the citizens of Lehigh county, praying for the passage of an act to prevent negroes and mulattoes from entering the State with a view to acquire residence therein.

Mr. Bucher presented a petition of sixty-six citizens of Juniata county, asking that a law may be passed to prevent colored persons from coming into this State, and that those who have come may be required to leave within three years.

Mr. McMurtry presented a petition of citizens of Adams county, praying for the calling of a National Convention.

The Speaker presented the memorial of the Religious Society of Friends, an military service.

The Speaker also presented a memorial of the Board of Trade in reference to the bill submitted by the Board of Revenue Commissioners. The memorial says that it is proposed to levy taxes on the Banking, Insurance and Transportation companies so onerous, in the opinion of your memorialists, that if enacted, the levying of said taxes would powerfully to deter capital from our State to others where more liberal and wiser systems of taxation exist, or the trading classes of our State must indirectly bear the burden. The fact does not appear to have been present, to the minds of the Commissioners, when framing the above recited sections, that to levy taxes sufficient to seek employment in and the hazards of banking, insurance or transportation corporations, it is necessary to offer a higher rate of interest than such, and of the various corporations to said Act, the Banking and Exchange business will be continued as heretofore, without any change in the style of the firm
Mr. John F. Stark, acting Cashier, is authorized to make the signature of the firm in all its branches.

NOTICE TO COAL DEALERS.
CHIEF QUARTERMASTER'S Office,
Louisville, Ky., February 20th, 1863.
Proposals will be received at this office until 12 m. on the 5TH OF MARCH, 1863, for furnishing Coal to Steamers under Charter by the Quartermaster's Department of the Ohio. The Coal to be furnished in barges, the Government to have the use of one barge for thirty days free of charge, and for each day thereafter Steamboat and Barge Owners will be allowed at the following rates: For the first thirty days, then the Government shall pay for the hire of the barges at the rate of Five (5) Dollars each per day, commencing after the expiration of the thirty days, until the barges are delivered again to the contractor or his authorized agent at Smithland. All Coal delivered at Smithland under this contract will be inspected and measured by a sworn city Inspector, duly authorized for that purpose, at Louisville, Ky., and said certificate of measurement shall be presented to the Quartermaster at Smithland on delivery of the Coal. All Coal will be required to be of unadulterated quality, and in case the hire of any or all of the barges should at any time equal the agreed value of the barges, then the barges shall become U. S. property, and proper release papers shall be given by the contractor. The name, number of tons and other agreed upon marks of each barge are to be plainly marked on the outside of the barge, so that the Coal may be delivered before the 31st of March, 1863. Contractors will please give full name and post office address.
