Pittsburgh Gazette. A correspondent of the New York Tri-THURSDAY MORNING, MABCH

une, over the signature "Miles," gives the following interesting account of the pres-Death of Neville B. Craig, Esq. This aged and henored citisen, whose long And usefal life of mearly four score year has the Potomac gives an old soldier of that bem spent in this city, died on Tuesday morning at the residence of his son-in-law, Jonn S. DAVISON, Erg., at Oakland. An old per-5. Davisor, Eq., at Oakland. An old per-sonal friend of the deceased, who is fully competent to the task, has promised us a bio-graphical sketch, which will appear in a day or two, for truly Mr. CEAIG was among the best and most interesting relies of what he himself so "axpressively called "the Olden Time." The Thurize Mayment Compared

The Thirty-Bereath Congress. The Congress, the term of which has just expired, had reposibilities and diffi-culties to meet and grapple with far, far beyond what fell to the lot of any of its predecessors, and most faithfully have they been met. When it first assembled on the fourth of July, 1861, it found the Govern-ment well nigh wrecked, its coffers empty, everything deranged, and the boom of rebel cannon shaking the very capital. The hands of traitors by a traitorous Beeretary of War; the navy scattered and rendered inoperative by another; and nothing but the indomitable spirit of the people was In operative by another; and nothing but the indomitable spirit of the people was left upon which to fall back. But calmly and resolutely were all these appalling di thema visit, and then it was interest-foulties met and overcome by the President and Congress, and the country rose from and resolutely were all these appailing dif-faulties met and overcome by the President and Congress, and the country rose from weakness and disorder to both military and financial strength beyond a parallel in his-tory. Whatever dissaters befell us in the faild, and full as the divil and military ser-vice were of traitors, the country rested in full trust upon the majority in Congress, and measure after measure was enacted, as the terrible erigencies of the war required, and great questions of permanent policy, both foreign and domestic were established; and when its term closed yesterday, it could say of its work what can rarely be said by human agents, "IT IS FISISHED." Nothing easential was left undone to rea-der the Goverament as strong, and secure and unembarraseid as it. was in human power to make'it. Faction may plot and rage, domestic treason may put forth its most malignant efforts, but Congress has firm, and given it powers so great, that its can defy all its ensmics. The state of the country requires extra-ordinary excentive powers, and happily for the country. It has a President who is the country requires extra-ordinary excentive powers, and happily for the country it has a President who is the country requires extra-ordinary excentive powers, and happily for the country requires extra-ordinary excentive powers and happily for the country requires extra-ordinary excentive powers and happily for the country requires extra-ordinary excentive powers and happily for the country requires extra-ordinary excentive powers and happily for the country requires extra-ordinary excentive powers and happily for the country requires extra-ordinary excentive powers and happily for the country requires extra-ordinary excentive powers and happily
