

Union State Convention

The LOCAL OFFICERS OF PENNSYLVANIA, without distinction of party, who desire actively to maintain the NATIONAL and STATE ADMINISTRATIONS, in their patriotic efforts to suppress a national and unlovely rebellion against the Union of the Republic...

Home P. C. Sharron

An account of the late P. C. Sharron, one of the representatives in the Legislature from this county, voted with the majority in the passage of the bill...

Madge Stowe's Charge to the Grand Jury

This excellent document is too long for insertion in its entirety in our columns, but most content ourselves with the following extract, in which the Grand Juror calls the attention of the jury to several public evils and infractions of law:

Annecote of the Late Mr. Pettigrew

A correspondent of the New York Evening Post writes the following anecdote of a person meeting Mr. Pettigrew, of Charleston, S. C.:

A Good Proposition

A regiment of Missouri soldiers in camp at Warrenton, in that State, on the 18th inst., adopted the following resolutions:

Negro Soldiers Again Under Fire

The Hilton Head correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune gives further particulars of the expedition to Florida under a Colonel Higginson and Montgomery, in a letter dated the 16th inst.
