MONDAY MORNING, MARCH 80. Behavior of the Negro Troops.

Alon who never had any hearty wish that this rebellion should be put down, provided the institution of slavery should roceive any detriment in the operation, have insisted, from the beginning, that the employment of emancipated slaves as soldiers would be to institute a reign of terror, an era of indiscriminate arson, pillage, and server warse, he insugared by these and even warse, he insugared by these of unlicemed barbarism; and some truly than three millions of deeply-injured people to avenge the wrongs of many genera-

Men have locked with amaxement at the quiet, patient, gentle behavior of the servile population of the South in the midst of the confusion and horrors of war, and Florida. We are only referring in general.

We are glad of it, because it will execute, with irresistible power, the Proclamation of Emancipation; for it is out of the question to make soldiers and slaves of the same race at the same time, under such a government as this.

Toomas boasted a few years ago that the time would come when he should call the roll of his slaves under the shadow of Bunker Hill monument. He little thought, when he uttered that foolish prediction, that the time was so near when a Yankee Orderly Sergeant might call the roll of his slaves (but slaves no longer) on his own

Virginia--West and East.

The people of the forty-eight counties forming the new State of West Virginia, having on Thursday last voted upon the provisions of the bill forming the new State. and having, as we judged by the returns already before us, almost unanimously declared in favor of the new constitution, it will now be incumbent upon the President within sixty days to issue his proclamation that West Virginia is a State, after which she will be entitled to all the privileges of & State in the Union. Governor Pierpoint will continue in the exercise of the functions of his office until January next. On the 4th day of May elections will be held in all that part of Virginia outside of West Virginia, which may then be under the control of the Federal Government, for State Senators, members of the House of Delegates, Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Attorney General, who shall proceed to organize the remainder of Virginia as fast as our armies advance, thus gradually bringing the entire State to its natural position and true allegiance.

The Post and the Union League. We copy the following from the Pitts burgh Post, of Saturday. It requires no comment, other than to say that, if it is not the bite of a copperhead, it is at least the hiss of a viper. The Union League is an institution that needs no defence; and this attack—as false as it is ferocious will only strengthen it, by convincing really rendered some good service to the still more good loyal citizens of its necesaily: THE UNION LEAGUE. This combination of pretenders, politicians and aspirants have already, we understand, This combination of pretenders, politicians and aspirants have already, we understand, commenced operations by which they expect to silence this paper. The real object of this secret society is, in the language of a member, "to spot people," which means to prescribe every, one who will not abasdon his convictions in order to build a new organisation, intended, under a new name, to keep a party in power which has already infinited such misery upon the country. No Democrat need be told that he need join another organization to save the Union another organization to save the Union Ours is the Union party of the country, and when the leading Abolitionists, who are figuring in these Union Leagues, inform us that they are for the restoration of the Union, they do not mean that it shall be restored to what it was, but to what they intend it to be. In other words No Democrat need be told that he need join another organisation to save the Union another organisation to save the Union. Ours is the Union party of the country, and when the leading Abolitionists, who are figuring in these Union Leagues, inform us that they are for the restoration of the Union, they do not mean that it shall be restored to what it was, but to what they intend it to be. In other words these Union Leagues are merely political, partisan, secret organisations of Abolitionist, the leaders of which are not for the the leaders of which are not for the ion and never were, unless it is changed

But, in order to make themselvs felt, they intend, it seems, to compire against the personal liberty and safety of obnaxious opponents. How far they intend, in their fancied seclusion and secresy, to prosecute this system of personation, we know not nor do we very much care, save in a general way. Already we have received a few re-onests to "discontinue my paper." which, quests to discontinue my paper," which, we believe from the character of the men, is the result of combination. We shall retain the names of these "within the book and volume of our brain, unmixed with beaser matten," in order that when they perfect the machinery of their star chamber in the suppression of the rebellion. feet the machinery of their star chamber in the suppression of the recention proceedings, we will be enabled to give them to an admiring people. Let the leading man of these leagues be excell new sold in Atlanta, Ga, a few days ago for they proceed in their secret concluses. $6,000, being more than $700 a barrel.

They may inaugurate a feeling which they cannot control. Their presumed sincerity may induce the roughs of their organizamay induce the rongus or their organiza-tien to commit serious excesses upon the persons and property of their neighbors, as was common, for years, in Baltimore and New Orleans. The leading gentlemen of these Leagues had better reflect very ventors." Should contention and strife, and even worse, be inaugurated by these scheming partizans, the Democrate will have no more to lose than their opponents. If we wait seme one else will mourn, and tet those who have the most to lose in such a contest be chary how they encourage proceedings which may result in their own, as well as their intended victims ruin. We hope and trust that the Government may brave the terrible ordeal through which she brave the terrible ordeal through which at loyal but timid people trembled at the thought of patting it in power of more than three millions of deeply-injured people to avenge the wrongs of many genera-SPECIAL NOTICE -Un and after
