Prussis, which shared in the plunder when Poland was despoiled of her nationality, is profoundly agitated. The King, who wishes to assist his relative of Russia to crush the Poles—as indeed he is tound by treaty to do—is held in check, parily by England and Frace, but more by his ows subjects, who are almost unanimously favor the struggling patricts of Poland.

When the Poles first rose in arms the friends of liberty, throughout the world, looked on with much interest but with little hope, expecting, as has ever been the case in similar efforts on their part, that the

He appears to diers the dates when they are likely to be ess, as well as to deserve, the confidence of his countrymen.

The Sufferings in the South. The Nashville Union, of the 28th ultimo. says, on what it pronounces undoubted aurity, that a few days ago twenty women in Atlanta Ga, maddened with the sight of their starving children at home, collected in a body, and broke into and plundered several groceries of mest and flour, in broad daylight. Deaths by starvation are by no means uncommon in that region. ter to Mr. Tilton, of New York, John Bright The whole country has been picked bare says: speculators, who operate in connection with officers of the army. The Union adds:

"These puntishments seem severe, but are they too severe for people who allowed themselves to be precipitated into rebellion against the best dovernment on earth by a set of political blacklegs? We believe that before long the Southern people will rise on seams against their tyrants and swing them up to the first tree. The Negro Soldiers.

A recent letter from Port Hoyal contains the following information about the negro soldier question in that part of the South:

General Hunter's general order, ordering a general conscription of the ablebodied colored men of this department, may be said to sottle the "contraband" puestion here. It satisfies every body—to the received the selection which certain among the white objections which certain among the white objections which certain among the white objections which certain among the white troops have had to the enlistment of color-ed troops. It is avident to the least sensi.
