Letter from Col. Clark.
Managers of the Pittsburgh Gazette.

Dear Gentlemen:—While I write a fearful gloom is brooding over the city. It has been very much so for the last three or four days, and now the elements are combined in a grand storm, threatening ruin to our feeble houses. The high winds have driven up the roof of the city, and the rain has poured down like a deluge. It is a fearful sight to see the city so desolated. I hope that the storm will soon pass, and that we will be able to resume our ordinary pursuits.
