The Criminal Court.

In the case of the Commonwealth vs. Robt. Hague, charged with assault and battery on oath of Wm. Robb, the jury found a verdict of not guilty—but that each party pay one half the costs. It is understood that this verdict indirectly settles the right of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to manage and direct, absolutely and exclusively, the bedding of their stock cars, and that their agents or employees may use sufficient force to prevent any outside interference in this business.

Jas. Flanegin was arraigned upon a charge of stealing a pocket book, containing over $50, from M. Swartzwelder, Esq., at the tavern of Gottlelb Faas, in the Diamond. The pocket book also contained a promisory note, for $1,500, drawn by Messrs. Barnes & Co., upon Messrs. Lindsay & Co. Faas testified to having seen the defendant take the pocket book, and when the witness pursued him he ran away. The jury found a verdict of guilty, but recommended the defendant to the mercy of the Cort.

William Stright, quite a small boy, was indicted for larceny, or rather for compelling Jawes S. Cook, aged eleven years, by means of threats, to purloin money from his uncle, Mr. John Sanderson, of Allegheny, and also from Mr. Sanderson's son. Young Sanderson testified that Stright compelled him to take money from his uncle, under threats of violence, and that Stright had beaten him for getting money. He commenced taking the money in September, and continued it, at intervals, until after New Year's, when he was found out. He could not tell the amount which he took, but there was a $10 and a $5 note among them. He never told any body about the beating until after the larceny was found out. At the conclusion of the testimony the Court adjourned.

Ladies' Tract Society of Allegheny.

The anniversary of the Ladies' Tract Society of Allegheny was held in Rev. Dr. Swift's church, March 7th, at 3 o'clock.

Mr. Bennett presided; Mr. Ewing, Secretary. Exercises commenced with prayer by Mr. Beldren.

Reports of the Secretary and Treasury were read and accepted.

Rev. Wm. McLaren made a beautiful and interesting address. Mr. Bennet and Mr. Hough also made appropriate remarks.

A vote of thanks was tendered to Rev. Dr. Pressly for his excellent sermon on behalf of the Society.

After singing the doxology the meeting was dismissed with the benediction.

Debt of Society, $90 84.

The annual report is quite lengthy, and we can only find room for a few extracts:

The design of the Society is to promote the cause of evangelical religion by the circulation of tracts, by conversation and by prayer. Every family is to be visited once a month, and thus the Word of Life is carried to hundreds and thousands who never enter the house of God.

During the past year the society has disseminated 20,700 English, and 4,900 German tracts. About 5,700 families have been visited each month, and many children have been gathered into the Sabbath Schools. The field embraces the whole of Allegheny and Manchester, and part of Duquesne borough and Reserve township. Within the last year many have been sent to camps of soldiers near the city, and to different hospitals.

The labors of the past years have been of more than usual interest. The distributors have never been more freely welcomed. The tracts and papers are asked for with increasing interest.

In reference to the wants of the society, we gather the following from the report: There are more distributors needed, as the number is only seventy-two; quite too few for the extent of territory. The prayers and sympathy of the public are also solicited to that all may have more of the spirit of Christ. But the great need of the Society is funds to carry on its operations. There is a debt hanging over the Society which very much impedes its progress. An urgent appeal is made to the Christian public in behalf of the Society, and it is hoped that no labored argument is needed to incite prompt and generous action.

City Mortality.

The number of deaths in this city, from March 29th to April 5th, as reported by Dr. A. G. McCandless, physician to the Board of Health, is as follows:

Males	9	Adults 8
Females	9	Children 10
		Total 18

The diseases were: Consumption, 4; dropsy, 2; paralysis, 1; unknown, 3; congestion, 1; inflammation of lungs, 1; scarlatina, 2; scrofula, 1; diptheria, 1; inflammation of brain, 1; croup, 1.

PROFITABLE INVESTMENT.—We call the attention of those who are seeking safe and profitable investments of money to the notice in to-day's paper of the day appointed for opening books of subscription to the "Cooper Fire Arms Manufacturing Company," The merits of the patented fire-arms of this Company, as compared with Colt's or any other, are so superior as to require no comment; and taking Colt's success as a criterion, we may safely predict for this concern a career of profit and usefulness unsurpassed even by that eminently successful establishment.

PERFUMED.—David K. Bennett, convicted about one year ago of having attempted to produce abortion, on information of Miss McKee, and sentenced to three years in the Penitentiary, has been pardoned by the Governor, and was released from confinement yesterday, having served but eleven months.

In referring to an advertisement of Dr. Bordman elsewhere, we would say that he has consinded to stay in Pittsburgh another week, and any person afflicted with corns or bunions will do well by calling at his office.

A Grand Review—Old Joe Hooker.

HEADQUARTERS 2D DIVISION, 6TH CORPS,
April 4th, 1863.

Eds. Gazette: Yesterday we had one of those grand reviews which add so much interest to camp life, and I must say it was a grand affair. It was announced that General Hooker would review the troops of this Division (Gen. H. P. Howe's) and of course every man was out in his best style, and every officer was on his best behavior. The day was fair, the roads were in fair order, and the "great Tycoon," fighting Joe Hooker, was escorted to our division parade ground by the 20th New York Regiment. The commanding presence of the commander of the Army of the Potomac, the dashing aids and staff officers, and the soldierly bearing of the regimental escort, was a right which would have made a civilian stand in amazement.

The salutations between Gen. Hooker and Gen. Howe were most cordial and expressive, and without halting the respective chieftains, followed by their aids and staff officers, rode rapidly to the right of the Division, and down the line in review. The General, with his vast cavalcade of attendants, then took a central position, where the entire Division might fall under his critical eye. He expressed himself highly gratified with the condition of the troops, remarking—"This is ahead of anything I have yet seen in the army of the Potomac." The movements of the Division were of such a character as to fully justify this flattering remark. Gen. Howe is one of the most able, accomplished and efficient officer in the service, and his whole heart is in the cause.

After the review, Gen. Hooker and a large number of officers of high rank held a short session in pleasant conversation at General Howe's quarters, after which he retired, fully impressed with the conviction that the Second Division of the Sixth Corps will do its whole duty when the day of battle rolls round. Gen. Hooker is full of hope and confidence—believes that he can march his troops to victory—and if he fails you may place me on the list of false prophets.

Mason Jones, the New Orator.

Four months ago there landed in New York a young Irishman, who forthwith proceeded to announce himself as a lecturer. He engaged Irving Hall and advertised an oration on Garibaldi. Some credentials which he had brought with him from London, to the effect that he had lectured before audiences composed of all the fashion and intelligence of the English metropolis, were instrumental in attracting the literary men of New York to hear his opening address. So well did the lecturer acquit himself, that in the newspapers of the next morning, Mason Jones figured prominently as a highly talented and most successful orator, who possessed the power of holding an audience to listen to him for two hours at a time; who was neither a bore, nor a braggart, nor a buffoon, but an educated gentleman, gifted with very extraordinary eloquence. Irving Hall proved too small to contain the thousands who desired to hear Mason Jones. He removed to the Academy of Music. His popularity increased so much, that on one occasion the seats were all sold before the doors were opened. On the evening of the lecture, no tickets were obtainable at the doors.

From New York Mason Jones went to Boston and to others of the chief cities of New England. As far as we can learn, success attended his footsteps wherever he went, and characterizes his orations up to the present time. Discarding the use of written notes to aid him, the orations of Mr. Jones are fitly named. He orates, not lectures. Those who have heard him, say that his voice is music and his eloquence overpowering.

The Lecture Committee of the Library Association, by dint of repeated applications, have induced Mr. Jones to give a lecture in this city. He will give his celebrated oration, "Garibaldi," next Friday evening, at Lafayette Hall.

THEATER.—Yankee Robinson had another good house last evening. He is undoubtedly the finest Yankee comedian on the stage, and is most enormously humorous in his broad yet unobtrusive downeast peculiarities. The pecuniarily successful drama, "exciting" drama, "the Days of '76," is again on the bill for to-night. Judging from the great hit it made on Monday evening, we may expect a full attendance at least on this occasion. The roaring comedy of "A Wife for a Day" will commence the evening's amusement. Yankee Robinson in both pieces.

THE CHILDREN.—The little folks seemingly enjoyed themselves wonderfully at the Polemoramic Panorama yesterday afternoon, and as on Saturday matinee we predict hundreds will be unable to obtain admission for want of room. The evenings are a perfect jam, at which we are not surprised, so make it convenient to go early.

SPECIAL LOCAL NOTICES.

CHEAP CLOTHING AND WHERE TO BUY THEM.—The enterprising firm of Wm. H. McGee & Co., merchant tailors, corner of Federal and Diamond streets, Allegheny, being fully aware of the extraordinary advance in Spring goods, have purchased last fall a most splendid assortment of cloth, cassimeres, vestings, &c., and they are now ready to open their Spring trade with superior articles, at greatly reduced prices. They will sell their goods by the yard if desired, and as they keep constantly on hand a large supply of ready made clothing, customers can be accommodated on demand, or have a neatly fitted suit to order. The work is all done under their supervision, and always warranted to purchasers.

FASHIONABLE CLOTHING.—Our affable young friends composing the firm of John Weier & Co., Merchant Tailors, No. 126 Federal street, Allegheny, have just opened the most extensive and reckerche stock of spring and summer goods ever exhibited west of the mountains, comprising some of the most beautiful French and American Cassimeres, Cloths, Cashmeres, Marseilles, &c., &c., to be found in the eastern markets. This enterprising firm has also on hand a very large assortment of the latest styles of furnishing goods, and a considerable quantity of ready-made clothing of superior quality. We advise our Allegheny patrons to call at this establishment, and see for themselves.

JUST RETURNED FROM THE EAST.—Samuel Graham, Merchant Tailor, would respectfully inform his friends and the public in general that he has just returned from the East with his new stock of Spring and Summer Goods, consisting of all the latest styles of cloths, cassimeres and vestings. Gentlemen desiring a stock to select from that cannot be surpassed by any other in the city, and their garments made in the most fashionable manner, would do well to give him a call before purchasing elsewhere.

SAMUEL GRAHAM, Merchant Tailor,
No. 54 Market street, one door from Third.

A TREMENDOUS BUSINESS.—The Scientific American, in an article on the Wheeler and Wilson Sewing Machine, states that upwards of 119,000 of them are now in use, and the demand for them to-day is greater than ever before. Messrs. Sumner & Co., agents for these machines here, have sold large numbers since the 1st of January—the reputation of the "Wheeler & Wilson" being now so well established the public will buy no other. They have a large stock of machines on hand just now, and any of our readers wanting anything of the kind should by all means examine them before purchasing elsewhere.

FROM WASHINGTON.
OUR SPECIAL DISPATCHES.

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.
WASHINGTON, April 8, 1863.

DISPATCHES FROM GENERAL HUNTER.

General Halleck has received dispatches from General Hunter, to-day, dated April 3d. The combined forces were then at Stone Inlet waiting for good weather. It was then blowing a gale not likely to subside for two days. The reported landing in force on St. John's or Seabrook Islands therefore is incorrect.

DISPATCHES FROM ADMIRAL PORTER.

Dispatches from Admiral Porter have been received to-day giving a full account of Steel's Bayou or Deer Creek expeditions, which got within 800 yards of Rolling Fork, a branch of the Big Sunflower, whence there is plain sailing to the Yazoo, but there they were obliged to turn back, the channel being very difficult to navigate on account of the rifled cannon that is commanding the ditch, and the heavy bodies of infantry as well as the sharpshooters that are harrassing our men.

Gen. Sherman has not yet arrived.

Admiral Porter praises the soldiers, sailors and iron-clads, and recounts the terrible labors and dangers and the necessity of a retreat of seventy miles in twenty-four hours. The inhabitants are amazed at the appearance of the iron-clads, where never flat boat was before seen. The negroes are flocking to see them. A rebel government agent has burned more than twenty thousand bales of cotton, and Porter took all he saw marked "C. S. A.," besides bringing away enough to buy a gunboat. Numerous able bodied negroes came away with the soldiers, and the rest are utterly demoralized. It is a beautiful and rich country, and full of live stock and corn. Only one officer, Henry Sullivan, and Third Assistant Engineer Dalis were killed, and one severely wounded.

NOTHING FURTHER FROM CHARLESTON.

There is nothing further from Charleston. The impression is still prevalent that something was to have been done this week. The rebels at Fredericksburg take especial pains to keep us from getting their papers, a fact which is regarded as favorable for us, since, if we had been repulsed, they would have made haste to spread the news.

The tumble of gold in New York, to-day, was produced by the belief that the attack on Charleston is making or has been made, and that no news about it, is good news.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Payments to the army of the Potomac begin to-morrow.

Twelve light draught Monitors at $380,000 apiece have been contracted for, to be built in six months—two by A. Swift & Co., of Cincinnati, to be named the Klamath and Zuma.

The following are California appointments: Robert B. Swain, Superintendent of the Mint, vice R. J. Stevens, removed; S. J. Bridge, Appraiser, vice J. P. Rowe, resigned; H. M. Miller, Appraiser, vice B. W. Mudge, removed.

A citizen of King Georges county recently came into our lines to escape mounted press gangs. He reports that a band of his neighbors are in the rebel service, and that they cross the river frequently, on vicious pretenses, and play the part of spies. Some recently arrested were released.

Although the President recently said that the order is explicit requiring deserters to repert at certain rendezvous before April 2d, yet they are constantly received back to their regiments on the Rappahannock without questions being asked.

AFFAIRS AT CHARLESTON.

Rebel papers are still difficult to be got at Norfolk or on the Rappahannock. The Government has, however, information that Richmond papers, of yesterday, contain telegrams from Charleston announcing the Monitors off the bars. The papers add: "The storm is about to burst! God help us!"

THE BRAZILIAN WEDDING.

At the marriage of the Brasilian Minister's daughter, to-day, the only Americans present were Mr. and Mrs. Fred. Seward.

FROM THE POTOMAC ARMY.

The roads in Virginia are still quite bad. Visitors who have been down report the army in splendid condition.

GENERAL STAFF.

Has been authorised by Gen. Heintzelman to take stringent measures to stop giving aid and comfort to rebels within our lines.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—Senor Prado, first Secretary of the Spanish Legation, has been appointed by that Government Charge d'Affaires to Quito. He was married to-day to a daughter of the Brasilian Minister.

Letters have been received from officers attached to the Charleston expedition written on the eve of the departure of the fleet, expressing themselves confident of success, and saying that such is the general feeling among both officers and men attached to the fleet. The Government has not yet resolved any information regarding events in that quarter.

An officer who arrived here to-day from the North Carolina coast, says that it was believed among our forces there that the Information coming from Fort Hatteras was believed a reliable source, that Gen. Longstreet sometime ago made application to Jeff. Davis for 50,000 troops for the purpose of clearing Albemarle Sound of the Union forces, and was informed that he could have 70,000 men from the army of the Rappahannock, but must obtain the remainder of that number from Gov. Vance of North Carolina. It is further reported that one of Hills is in command. When this information reached Fortress Monroe, several days ago, assistance was sent to that point to our forces.

Another report on the Conduct of the War has been printed, and will soon be given to the public. It is on the subject of the battles of Bull Run and Ball's Bluff, and the conduct of the Western or Missouri Department.

The Committee also took testimony in relation to the Hatteras Inlet, Port Royal, Burnside and Accomac expeditions; the capture of New Orleans, the invasion of New Mexico, etc., etc.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has decided that oil manufactured without distillation from paraffine and benzole will be subject to a duty of three per centum advalorem. Coal illuminating oil manufactured by distillation or redistillation of benzole or paraffine is subject to a duty of ten cents per gallon.

Gens. Barry and Hartsuff have been relieved from duty on the D'Ussary court martial, and Gens. Morrell and Cadwallader appointed in their places.

Cincinnati Boiler Makers on a Strike.

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

CINCINNATI, April 8.—The boiler makers here are on a strike, not for higher wages, but against oppressive rules.

Latest from Havana.

NEW YORK, April 8.—The advices from Havana, which dates to the 4th inst., contain no later news from Mexico.

The United States steamer Vanderbilt was at Havana. The Somona sailed on the 3d. The English steamer Delphin, arrived on the 25th, off Porto Rico, by the United States steamer Wachusetts, arrived at Havana in a leaking condition, in charge of a prize crew. She was repaired and had sailed for Key West. The Delphin is the vessel that was leaving Liverpool as the George Griswold arrived at that port with food for the English poor.

Several rebel vessels loaded with cotton had arrived at Havana.

The Havana sugar market was tame, with offers at 5¾@6 reals for No. 12 Clayed. A few lots sold as high as 6¼. There were no sales of Mascavado molasses; 2¾ reals for shipped. The stock of sugars in port amounted to 321,000 boxes.

From the Army of the Potomac—Southern News.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC,
April 8, 1863.

A review of a portion of the army of the Potomac took place to-day on the plain in the rear of Falmouth. Gen. Hooker, with his corps commanders, with their respective staffs, were present. The scene presented was undoubtedly one of the finest military pageants ever witnessed on this continent.

The Richmond papers of yesterday, the 7th inst., have been received. The main sentiment which is expressed by them is an exhortation to the people of the South to raise articles of food instead of cotton.
