Pittsburgh Gazette. THURSDAY MORNING, APRIL 16. The Conduct of England. The immense havor perpetrated upon American commerce by the pirates Alabama and berons, counts, dukes, princes, lings and emperors, to autocratz!"

Frorids, built and fitted out in British ports, to autocratz!"

In conceinding, Mr. Blair said:

"The rebellion here, this reactionary measure against free government, recta serors the vater, stops all progress, all beneficers and reform for the people of Europe. That is the mighty pressure of civil war has kept from breaking out interopes and ferce hestility. In fact, under any other circumstances, such an outrage would not be borne for a single month. But it is equally true, that, under any ether circumstances, such an outrage would not have been perpetrated. Ignoble as this has been, it might be passed over if it would early stop here. But it is a fast known to the whole world, that at this moment size or eight other vessels of the same class, for the same parties, are fitting out on the Mersey and the Clyde; and no appeal that can be made by the American Government through our representative, nor even by the better class of the people of England, can draw from that Government a promise, or even the slightest intimation, that they shall not be suffered to go out on their devilish mission. The efficers of the crown shield themselves behind some legal quibble and teachisalities.

At stand No. 4 there was a very large content of the Conte sease a conversament a preculse, or even the singhests infinization, that they shall not be referred to go out on their derillah ministen. "The most distinguished leaders of the de-mostacy in this great Commonwealth attended the vast meeting of the 6th of March. They are here again to-night. They units in counil with the members of the Republican party, with the chiefs of the old Whig party, with while the enterior the country with the control of the original anti-slavery party, with the American party, poculiarly jealous of ferigg influence, and with those of other streng classes which embrsos, with a sort of kindred sympathy, the naturalized ditions of all Kurrops, as brothers enfranchised from feudal fatrope, as brothers enfranchised from feudal fet ters, and rising here to usefulness and influ-ence as the equals of the native bern freeman ence as the equal of the matter seri resman. Every party and every class by whom free in-stitutions are held dear in this country, merg-ing all minor differences of opinion, are gath-ering in every quarter to device measures to restore the nationality, seems the liberties of ering in every quarter to devise measures to restore the nationality, secure the liberties of the country, and to give effect to these, the shouts of battle from a million of brave man are heard by land and see. They see the fractal lards who hold the slaves in the South in range of his large circle of friends.

long will it be before such armed Essurpation here will, by its reactionary force, recover the arbitrary power that belonged to the age of the Bourbons, the Tudors, and of that horde of feudal proprietors who monopolised the soil, holding the people as seris appurtenant to the domain of masters, rising as a superstructure of oppression, through grades from barons, counts, dukes, princes, kings and emperors, to autocrate!"

which has just closed; but if the State is to be rescued from shame and contempt, corruption and venality, and enormous damage, the number of such must be increased.

A New Scheme of the Rebels.

The London Times has a correspondent at Vicksburg, who has managed to get a lang letter, describing the rebel defences there, through the blocksde, as we find by the late European mail. In the course of the letter, the following hint of a new scheme of the rebels occurs:

"At this moment it is known that the commands of Generals Johnston, Sinart, Morgan, Wheeler and Forrest have been lumped together, and added to the cavalry force which lately gained distinction under who letter, in the long and force which lately gained distinction under who is loyal holds himself; at this mo

At Stand Ro. 6 George Wm. Curtis closed a specific read to be seen for force and power as follows:

"Stand fast, fellow-citizens, then, I abjure you; stand fast by the flag which is the symbol of all that is precious to you—of all the liberties you ever had—of principles that at the moment maintain quiet throughable throughable throughable through the hold was specific that it was a light which is the sym.

At Stand Ro. 6 George Wm. Curtis closed a specific was follows:

"Stand fast, fellow-citizens, then, I abjure perfect peace; that at this moment that is prefered peace; that at the moment maintain quiet through—other than the was a light which is the sym.

Our Relations with England. The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Evening Post, in a dispatch of the 10th, says: Bressing Fost, in a dispatch of the 10th, says:

The government is, beyond doubt, intensely dissatisfied with the conduct of the British government towards the rebet sypmpathleses
in English ports, who are building war ressels for the South. There can be no doubt whatever that strong remonstrances have been made to the English government by Mr. Adann, at the instance of Mr. Seward, and that hints will soon be thrown out of reprisals and non-intercourse.

nate will soon be thrown out of reprisals an non-intercourse.

Sheuld the agents of the Government not in Europe succeed in purchasing the numerous vessels constructed "for the Emperor o'China," it is probable that all danger of a collision with England will make it but if the same vessels are permitted to leave Baginan with about 5 save by the purpose of preying upon our commerce, then trouble will come.

There are redical differences of epinion even in the Gabinet upon this subject, Mr. Seward being cautious and Mr. Stanton warlike.
