Our Book Table.

ABOVE HER STATION. The Story of a Young Woman's Life. By Mrs. Herman Phillip, from the original of Maria Nathusius. New York: Follett, Foster & Co. Pittsburgh: Henry Miner, Fifth street. 231 pp. Small 12mo. Cloth.

A story translated, or reproduced, from the German,—and though by no means retaining in the cast of its style, or expression, anything of that germanesque quality, so often met with under the circumstances, yet, otherwise, strongly marked with some of the characteristics of life and manners in Germany. The moral of the book is intimated in its title—a moral which is worthy of all, even the most diligent, enforcement by those who write for the people, especially by those well-meaning writers, who, knowing that regular sermons are not popular reading, and that novels are, adroitly set themselves to the work of embodying the former in the latter, so that the circulating library may have something better than mere fiction in it, and a more serious mission to fulfil in society, than that unworthy one commonly assigned to it—supplying unlimited quantities of foolish and frivolous amusement to readers who are already, themselves, sufficiently foolish and frivolous. In inculcating its moral, however, the story before us does not lose its interest as a story—which is more than can be said of many of this class of story-books.

STORIES OF FRONTIER ADVENTURE IN THE SOUTH AND WEST. By William J. Coggeshall, author of "Home Hits and Hints," "Poets and Poetry of the West," etc., etc. New York: Follett, Foster & Co. Pittsburgh: for sale by Henry Miner, Fifth street. 313 pp. 12mo. Cloth.

A volume like this, which contains some half-dozen stories of various interest, but none of them uninteresting, may find a welcome, where the same volume, if all one long story, would appear too formidable a task of reading to enter upon. The stories which make up the volume before us are: "The Everglade Heroes—a Tale of Florida;" "Fleet Foot—a Legend of Kentucky;" "Hunter Birty; or the Half-Breed Colony of Illinois;" "Golden Bird of Manominee;" "The Counterfeiters of the Cuyahoga—a Buckeye Romance;" "The Bright Eye of the Settlement." We have no doubt that these stories would enliven many a dull hour in camp.

A Church Organized.

At a meeting of the Presbytery of Allegheny city, on the 14th of this month, a new Presbyterian Church was organized in that city, consisting of between fifty and sixty members. At the same time, three ruling elders were installed over the congregation. This new organization has grown out of the former troubles in the Central Church of Allegheny, and is composed, in chief part, of those who seperated from the Central on account of what they regarded as the disloyal sentiments of the late pastor.

By the generous donation of one of our large hearted citizens, this new Church has been presented of a very fine lot on the North Common, west of the United Presbyterian Seminary, and expect, during the coming Summer, to erect a suitable edifice for public worship—for which they have already subscribed not far from $60000. For the present, the congregation worship in the chapel of the Western Theological Seminary. Services at 10½ o'clock a. m., and at 3 o'clock p. m.

After a very pleasant and harmonious meeting, the Presbytery adjourned to meet again in this city, in the Lecture Room of Dr. Swift's church, on next Thursday, the 23d of April, at 9 o'clock a. m., when a variety of important business is expected to come before that body.

Testimonials for the Afflicted.

Dr. J. A. Jones, the eminent physician and surgeon, is daily adding to the already large list of remarkable cures which he has effected since his arrival here, and as his time draws to a close the number of his patients are fast increasing. Among those who were under treatment yesterday, was Mr. D. Stark, a resident of Aurora, Indiana. His right eye had been extremely crooked (turned in) for a period of thirty-six years, and the sight was consequently useless. In a few minutes the eye was made perfectly straight and natural, and the vision was much improved—Mr. S. having tested it on a newspaper immediately after the operation. We conversed with this gentleman before he left the office, and can testify to the fact that he was exceedingly gratified at the result.

Henry Austerhaus, of Allegheny, had been afflicted with sore eyes (ophthalmia) and partial deafness for six years, but under the doctor's treatment he reports himself entirely cured, and wishes his name to be used as a reference for the benefit of others.

Mrs. Mary Ashley, of Snowden township, was treated for pterygium—a red skin having grown over the eye, and partially destroyed the sight. The operation was of an exceedingly delicate nature, but was skillfully performed. The deformity was removed and the sight restored.

In addition to these recent cures, we may mention a few well-known parties who were successfully treated months ago, and who still take pleasure in bearing testimony to the doctor's skill and ability: James Means, Snowden township, cured of deafness of twenty-five years' standing. John King, No. 12 Wood street; quite deaf for thirty years; entirely cured. Captain Wm. Evans, Gibbon street, Eighth Ward, cured of deafness and noise in the head. Son of B. W. Buffum, No. 26 Market street; serious deformity removed from the eye. Reynold Traverstright, No. 28 Carroll street, Allegheny; eye made straight. B. Williams and Mrs. M. Williams, Monongahela city, cured of deafness. Joseph Meyer, 424 Penn street; one ear entirely closed by four polypi, which were skillfully removed from the drum, and the hearing restored. Miss Amelia Clark, No. 62 Anderson street, Allegheny; cured of deafness and noise in the head.

We might fill a column with similar cases, but the above will suffice as a reference for those who may wish to strengthen their faith in that way. A personal interview with the doctor, however, will be found not only agreeable, but exceedingly satisfactory, as he treats all in the most courteous manner, tells them the character of their ailments, and charges nothing for consultation. His time is limited, and persons residing at a distance should make it a point to see him within the next fortnight. Office, No. 47 Smithfield street, between Third and Fourth.

THE PICTORIAL WEEKLIES.—The attractive and instructive supplements, (as we may describe them,) to the daily journals, whose work of journalism they crown with their pictorial illustrations, are always to be found at Pittock's News and Periodical Depot, opposite the Postoffice. Frank Leslie, Harper's Weekly, and the Illustrated News are especially worthy of mention, this week.

We direct the attention of our friends who purchase plumbing materials to the advertisement in another column, of Mr. Charles Mullikin, Importer and Wholesale Dealer in Plumbers' Material, at No. 520 Commerce street, Philadelphia.

From Philadelphia.

Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.

PHILADELPHIA, April 16, 1863.

Copperheadism is associated with so much that is mean and debasing, that a glance at it is enough to disgust all decent men. There is not an odious feature in human nature which it does not embody, nor an ennobling principle which it does not repel. Southern treason in its thousand iniquities has some redeeming qualities; but cowardly, stupid, and malignant Northern copperheadism has none. It meets in barns and out-houses to form plans in secret, which it has not the courage to carry out in public. It draws its sustenance from the brothel and the grog-shop, and flourishes most among the depraved and the ignorant. I have been led to make these remarks by an incident which occurred in one of the dark counties of this State. It seems that the convalescent soldiers, at a hospital which is located in that region, fired with indignation at the course of Northern traitors, passed a series of resolutions condemnatory of their disloyal conduct. This so excited the ire of a leading copperhead politician in the neighborhood, that he threatened to raise a force to tear down the hospital! Now there was not the least danger of his carrying his threat into execution, for the simple reason that he was too cowardly to ever make the attempt, but it exhibits the malignity of his heart, and his deep-seated hatred to the brave defenders of our country. These creatures are formidable in their threats, but there it ends. The three hundred "Knights of the Golden Circle"—violent men in buckram—who invaded Reading last week, full of vengeance, were put to flight by a number of juveniles drawing a fire engine; and when the Union men of the city, in a few instances, inflicted personal chastisement on some of their number, these doughty "Knights" begged, with tearful eyes, other timid men to protect them, promising, to use their own language, "not to do so again!" And yet these poor wretches—Heaven help them—were sworn to resist the laws—to abduct President Lincoln and establish a Northwestern Confederacy! Cowardly dupes of wicked demagogues they are, we do not wonder that their Southern allies talk about holding their noses when they come into their presence.

The withdrawal of your excellent fellow-citizen, Mr. Howe, and Governor Curtin, seems to leave an open field for Honest John Covode in the gubernatorial contest, on the Union side. Covode will make a strong candidate and a good Governor. He is the favorite in this section of the State.

The failure to take Charleston has greatly revived the drooping spirits of the copperheads. The whipping they received in the New England elections had a rather sedative effect on them. But Charleston and the prospect of capturing Gen. Foster, in North Carolina, has put them in the best spirits. So we go.

X.

Lieut. Pittinger.

This gentleman, who was one of the gallant twenty-four of Gen. Mitchell's command, sent on an important expedition on the Chattanooga Railroad, will address the citizens of this city, on Monday night, at eight o'clock, at Lafayette Hall, and will give a history and narrative of his eleven months' imprisonment. Many of our readers will remember that the expedition failed, and that the seven party were captured, seven of whom were hung. Mr. Pittinger, on visiting Washington and making his statement to the authorities, was rewarded with a commission as Lieutenant, and presented with a gold medal for gallant conduct. He is said to be an excellent speaker, and this fact, taken in connection with the deep interest of his subject, will secure him a large audience. Admission free.

HOW BULL RUN BATTLE WAS LOST.—This, and the Ball's Bluff Massacre, and the affairs of the Department of the West (Fremont's,) will be found in No. 3 of the "Rebellion War Tracts, being the Report of the War Committee on these interesting subjects, just published. It is for sale at J. W. Pittock's, opposite the Postoffice.

BOTTLES WANTED.—The Pittsburgh Sanitary Committee are in need of empty bottles —pints and quarts—and respectfully solicit the public to contribute such as they can conveniently send. Pint bottles are most needed. Rooms, 59 Fourth street.

THE NUISANCE CASE.—The jury in the case of the Commonwealth vs. Smith & Naylor, indicted for nuisance, had not agreed upon a verdict at the hour of adjournment yesterday evening.

FROM WASHINGTON.

OUR SPECIAL DISPATCHES.

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

WASHINGTON, April 17, 1863.

THE BATTLE IN CHARLESTON HARBOR.

The battle in Charleston harbor will be at once turned to account by the Navy Department in the further construction of iron-clads. Preparations of new specifications for the monitors now building, and has already begun, based upon the results developed by the trial in the recent engagement, and intended to remedy defects there disclosed. Engineers favorable to the monitors insist that none but trifling mistakes in their constructions were evinced, and follow the lead of Ericsson in renewing their confidence in their general plan.

THE CASE OF THE PETERHOFF.

The Peterhoff case has been brought before the Attorney General. Secretary Welles still insists that the mail should be opened, but the President is understood to incline to a contrary view.

Secretary Welles' position in the Peterhoff case, in favor of leaving the question of the opening of the mail to the Court, is understood to be taken by Secretaries Chase and Stanton, and also to be insisted upon by Secretary Seward.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR SURGEONS.

Instructions have been prepared for examining surgeons as to releases from conscription. They follow up the humane spirit which animates every provision of that law, by making most liberal allowances of exemption to persons in any way physically disabled. They will be promulgated in a few days.

NEW HOSPITAL TO BE ESTABLISHED.

A large hospital is to be established immediately at Evansville, Indiana, on the plan of the Armory Square Hospital in this city—a series of frame buildings connected by a covered passage way. Orders for its erection are now issued to the proper officers.

REVENUE FROM THE INCOME TAX.

It is stated that the revenue from the income tax, which goes into operation in May, will, as believed, bring the receipts under the Internal Revenue bill fully up to the estimate submitted to Congress by the Secretary and Commissioner in their late reports.

EXCISE DUTIES.

All claims for drawbacks of the Excise duties paid on exported merchandise are to be paid at the office of the Comptroller of the Treasury until the new regulations on the subject are prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

EXPECTED EXCHANGE OF GENS. WILLICH AND STOUGHTON.

Arrangements are now making for the speedy exchange of Gens. Willich and Stoughton. These are the only general officers now in rebel hands.

LAND OFFICE TRANSFERRED.

The Topeka Land Office in Kansas is to be discontinued, and its archives and business transferred to Atchesen as soon as practicable. The public sale order for August 5th is to take place at Atcheson.

GEN. ROSECRANS.

Telegraphs a highly satisfactory sanitary condition of his army, that he has abundant medical supplies, and everything ready in that regard for any contingency.

THE WEATHER.

The storm continued up to late last night. There is clear weather to-day, though apparently not yet settled, and the mud is very deep.

COL. D'UTASSY.

Col. D'Utassy is trying to get liberated from close confinement, probably with a view to running away. His request will go up to the Secretary of War.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Lieut. Commanding Cushing sends to the Navy Department the following:

UNITED STATES STEAMER COM. BARNEY,
RAPPAHANNOCK RIVER, VA.,
7:30 P. M., April 14th.

This morning, the vessels from above came down, the Mount Washington being disabled. About thirty of the enemy opened on us with some pieces of artillery, giving us a cross-fire. We at once went into action, silencing the enemy in an hour. At about 1 o'clock p. m., the rebels took up a position within 100 yards of the Mount Washington, which was grounded, and open on us with both artillery and sharpshooters. I kept close to the disabled steamer, and fought the enemy until high water, when I ordered the Stepping Stones to take the Mount Washington in tow. This was done under a heavy fire.

At five p. m. I had the satisfaction of silencing the enemy's battery. My loss foots up three killed and seven wounded. I do not know as yet what the casualties are in the other vessels. I have had eight rating shots, but fortunately my engine is not disabled. I can assure you that the Barney and her crew are still in good fighting trim and we will be at the enemy or sink at our post. The most of the wounded and dead I sent down to the Minnesota. It is only requisite to look at the Mount Washington to see with what desperate gallantry Lieut. Dawson fought his vessel. I am now taking in coal and shall anchor for the night, where we have fought all day.

Acting Rear Admiral Lee has telegraphed the following to the Secretary of the Navy:

OFF NEWPORT NEWS, AT 6 A. M.,
April 16, 1863.

Reports from Lieuts. Cushing and Dawson have just been received. The enemy have not crossed the river and there is every indication that they are retreating, though they still have some artillery and sharpshooters on the Nansemond. Our boats shot down a number of their men to-day. We have had three wounded, making in all five killed and eighteen wounded in our little flotilla, to which from what I can learn the fight has been pretty much confined.

From New York.

NEW YORK, April 17.—The Washington correspondent of the Commercial, of this city, intimates that the President is not pleased with the culmination of the six months of preparation for the reduction of Charleston into two hours fighting. It is no secret, says the letter, that the reconnoissance, which accomplished so little, is followed by a bonafide attack, which is to be continued so long as an iron-clad can fire a gun. Another letter, to the same paper, says the diplomats have received unofficial instructions that President Lincoln intends to have Charleston re-occupied by the United States authorities.

There is much comment in Washington on the fact of General Hunter having remained an idle spectator of the reconnoissance.

The steamer Plantagant, from Jamaica, on the 5th and Port Au Prince on the 8th, arrived at this port this afternoon.

There is considerable excitement prevailing in Jamaica in consequence of a change in the Ministry.

Coffee was selling at 54s for ordinary, and at Port Au Prince 58c was asked.

The United States gunboats St. Jagods, Cuba and R. Island sailed for Port Royal on the 2d inst. on a cruise.

The additional duty act expired on the 2d, and has not been re-enacted.

The Plantagant connected, at Port Au Prince, with the Utemor steamer Talesman, from Jamacia.

NEW YORK, April 17.—The agent of a Mississippi firm, sent north to purchase cotton gins, was arrested yesterday and ordered to give bonds in the sum of three thousand dollars, or go to Fort Lafayette. It is stated that the property was not intended to be sent South till the end of the war, which, according to the expectations of the firm, will soon occur. The party arrested cannot now give the required bonds, and there is some hesitation about sending him to the Fort.

The steamer Dido has arrived from Liverpool.

Canada Sailed---Military Disturbance at Halifax, N. S.

HALIFAX, April 17.—The Canada sailed at five o'clock this morning for Liverpool.

Quite a serious collision between the troops and the citizens took place in this city last evening. About three hundred soldiers broke from their barracks and rushed through the streets, assaling citizens, breaking windows and committing other acts of violence. Several persons were hurt on both sides, some seriously. A detachment of the Royal Artillery soon drove the soldiers back to their barracks.

From the Indian Territory.

ST. LOUIS, April 17.—A telegram from Col. Phillips, dated Park Hill, Cherokee Nation, on the 11th, says he has swept the north side of the Arkansas river clear of the rebels. Part of his command holds Fort Gibson. He has had overtures from Colonel Drew, Capt. Vaughn, and the Creek Indians. The rebels are gathering on the south side of the Arkansas river, and hold all the fords, which are now deep.

From Fortress Monroe.

FORTRESS MONROE, April 17.—The remains of Lieut. Col. Kimball, of Hawkins' Zouaves, arrived here this evening, and was escorted to the fortress. The body will be taken to New York to-morrow evening.

BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES reach directly the affected parts, and give almost instant relief. In BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA, and CATARRH they are beneficial. The good effects resulting from the use of the Troches, and their extended use, has caused them to be counterfeited. Be sure to guard against worthless imitations. Obtain only the genuine Brown's Bronchial Troches, which have proved their efficacy by a test of many years. Public Speakers and Singers should use the Troches. Military Officers and Soldiers who over-tax the voice and are exposed to sudden changes, should have them. Sold everywhere, at 25 cents per box.

ALLEN, McCORMICK & CO., VALLEY FOUNDRY, Pittsburgh, Pa.

I have had eight rating shots, but fortunately my engine is not disabled. I can assure you that the Barney and her crew are still in good fighting trim and we will be at the enemy or sink at our post. The most of the wounded and dead I sent down to the Minnesota. It is only requisite to look at the Mount Washington to see with what desperate gallantry Lieut. Dawson fought his vessel. I am now taking in coal and shall anchor for the night, where we have fought all day.

Acting Rear Admiral Lee has telegraphed the following to the Secretary of the Navy:

OFF NEWPORT NEWS, AT 6 A. M.,
April 16, 1863.

Reports from Lieuts. Cushing and Dawson have just been received. The enemy have not crossed the river and there is every indication that they are retreating, though they still have some artillery and sharpshooters on the Nansemond. Our boats shot down a number of their men to-day. We have had three wounded, making in all five killed and eighteen wounded in our little flotilla, to which from what I can learn the fight has been pretty much confined.

From New York.

NEW YORK, April 17.—The Washington correspondent of the Commercial, of this city, intimates that the President is not pleased with the culmination of the six months of preparation for the reduction of Charleston into two hours fighting. It is no secret, says the letter, that the reconnoissance, which accomplished so little, is followed by a bonafide attack, which is to be continued so long as an iron-clad can fire a gun. Another letter, to the same paper, says the diplomats have received unofficial instructions that President Lincoln intends to have Charleston re-occupied by the United States authorities.

There is much comment in Washington on the fact of General Hunter having remained an idle spectator of the reconnoissance.

The steamer Plantagant, from Jamaica, on the 5th and Port Au Prince on the 8th, arrived at this port this afternoon.

There is considerable excitement prevailing in Jamaica in consequence of a change in the Ministry.

Coffee was selling at 54s for ordinary, and at Port Au Prince 58c was asked.

The United States gunboats St. Jagods, Cuba and R. Island sailed for Port Royal on the 2d inst. on a cruise.

The additional duty act expired on the 2d, and has not been re-enacted.

The Plantagant connected, at Port Au Prince, with the Utemor steamer Talesman, from Jamacia.

NEW YORK, April 17.—The agent of a Mississippi firm, sent north to purchase cotton gins, was arrested yesterday and ordered to give bonds in the sum of three thousand dollars, or go to Fort Lafayette. It is stated that the property was not intended to be sent South till the end of the war, which, according to the expectations of the firm, will soon occur. The party arrested cannot now give the required bonds, and there is some hesitation about sending him to the Fort.

The steamer Dido has arrived from Liverpool.
