Gapt. G. W. Batchelor, United States De-positary at this city, has just received a large supply of Postage Currency, of the danomi-nation of five, ton, and trenty-fave cents, which will be exchanged at the counter for Government funds. The postage currency, sthough tolerably shundard, is not yet sufficient to the support eisent to meet all the requirements of trade, and as the printing of this species of currency, the be presented to obtain it. Those who meet these fractional notes would do well to stat to one and get a supply.
