Latest News from the Border--The Whereabouts of the Enemy--Exciting Rumors, etc.

The scarcity of reliable news from the border, and the extravagant character of many of the reports which obtain circulation, have a tendancy to keep the people constantly excited. It is only certain that the enemy are still hovering about Morgantown and vicinity, but in what numbers it is impossible to determine. Neither is it possible to ascertain, with any degree of certainty, where they may next appear. Waynesburg, Uniontown, Brownsville, Washington and Wheeling are all spoken of as within striking distance, and some even go so far as to express fears that an attempt may yet be made on Pittsburgh.

The Wheeling Intelligencer, of Friday morning, is full of reports concerning the whereabouts and movements of the enemy, but we must confess that many of the statements are vague and unsatisfactory. We quote the following:

A set of scouts who came in from Waynesburg on Thursday evening, report the rebels at Blacksville and this side; and further, that their movements are still in the direction of Wheeling, and their numbers increasing. The same news, in effect, was brought by a messenger from Washington, Pa., on Thursday; also by the Hempfield cars. On the other hand, the news from Colonel Mulligan would seem to point to the belief that the enemy are still in force about Fairmont. It would seem from the fact that he reported himself moving on that place from Grafton as if he entertained the belief that the enemy were endeavoring to get away. There are those who mistrust that no genuine dispatch was received from Mulligan; that the enemy sent it; that he is not in a position to move on Fairmont, and that the rebels are, as reported, on this side of Morgantown.

The Intelligencer then gives a direct and reliable dispatch from Clarksburg, stating that the Morgantown raiders were met on Thursday midway between Fairmont and Clarksburg, near Shinston, and defeated and driven back with the loss of several killed and taken prisoners. [This information is not credited here in Pittsburgh.]

Under the head of the "very latest," the same paper says: A dispatch was received by Gen. Lightburn, at ten p. m., stating that a cavalry company, commanded by Captain Hagans, (Union troops,) and a constructing train, were gobbled up at Bridgeport, five miles east of Clarksburg. The same dispatch said the ball was about opening at Clarksburg. It is understood the attack is made by Imboden and Bill Jackson from the direction of Buchannon and Weston.

AFFAIRS AT WAYNESBURG.

Maj. Trimble, Theodore Kraft, John Trimble and Lieut. Ackley, returned to Wheeling on Thursday evening about seven o'clock, from Waynesburg, Greene county, Pa., which, after they went on a scout Tuesday last. They reached that place—distant about forty miles—at midnight, Tuesday. These gentlemen brought back news to the effect that the enemy in considerable force are at Blacksville and this side; that videttes were sent out from Waynesburg on Wednesday who exchanged shots with the rebel pickets; that it was implicitly believed in Waynesburg the rebels were approaching that town and would occupy it in all probability sometime yesterday. The Waynesburg Bank had destroyed some sixty thousand dollars of its paper and shipped its specie to Pittsburgh. The people were in a state of constant expectation of the enemy and felt themselves entirely helpless.

[The statement that the Waynesburg Bank had shipped their specie to this city is perhaps premature, as we have no knowledge of its arrival here up to Friday night.]

THE BALTIMORE AND OHIO RAILROAD.

The news received by Gen. Lightburn and Mr. Ford, at Wheeling, on Thurday night, leaves no room to doubt that travel on the Baltimore road clear through from Baltimore to Grafton is completely re-established. More troops are now moving westward, and large numbers of them have probably reached Grafton. The bridges between the east end and the latter place are all restored.

The main damage to the road, therefore, is confined to the space between Grafton and Fairmont. Two bridges were destroyed over Fish creek, on Monday night, by a party of five men, who were seen by the inhabitants, and are supposed to be rebel sympathizers. These bridges were small, and were only three hundred yards apart. Fish creek is four miles east of Littleton, and about sixteen miles east of Mannington. An expedition, consisting of the 6th Virginia Regiment, and a number of workmen, were sent out on a special train from Wheeling, on Wednesday morning, and proceeded as far as Mannington, when they ascertained the condition of the road to be as stated. At Mannington they met a great many Union refugees, who reported that our forces had been driven off from Fairmont, by the rebels, who had possession of the place. The expedition, under orders from headquarters, then fell back to Cameron.

THE VERY LATEST FROM MORGANTOWN.

We have information direct from Morgantown up till twelve o'clock Thursday night. At that hour a scout left Morgantown, for Uniontown, at which place he arrived on Friday forenoon. He reported that, when he left, the rebels were again in sight of the town, apparently in considerable force, but what their intentions were of course could only be surmised. It is generally believed here that our forces had driven the rebels from Fairmont, and that after they had partially destroyed the iron bridge over the Monongahela at that place, they returned to Morgantown, where they are engaged in capturing horses and running them off.

The number of horses already taken are not less than five hundred. The secesh sympathizers generally suffered alike with the loyal men, and if any objections were offered on the score of "friendship," the graybacks replied: "If you are our friends you can afford to sacrifice a horse for the cause."

A lady, writing from Morgantown to her husband in this city, states that nearly every man and boy had left, leaving nothing but the women and children. She makes no mention of any outrages having been attempted, and states that the rebels confined themselves to stealing horses and pillaging stores.

THE NUMBERS OF THE ENEMY

Are variously estimated at from 500 to 4,000. A gentleman reported that he had seen the troops enter Morgantown, and that there could not have been less than 4,000. He saw some of them feeding their horses in one lot, on the main street was full of them marching through. The forces occupied several hours in passing a given point.

PIERPONT AND SENATOR WILLEY

Arrived in the city yesterday. The Governor had been to Baltimore, and stopped here on his way home. The statement that he had left Wheeling, and established his headquarters here, was entirely erroneous. He left for Wheeling in the afternoon, and is now at his post.

Senator Willey had been attending court at Morgantown, and hearing of the approach of the rebels he deemed it prudent to leave. A lawyer there endeavored to persuade him to remain, assuring him that there was no danger, but he had reason to suspect this individual's loyalty, and did not take his advice. He has since learned that this lawyer was the first to welcome the invaders, and welcome the invaders, and piloted them through the town. Senator Willey left here last night for Washington.

Our Book Table.

FAMILY SERMONS. By Horatius Bonar, D. D., of Kelso, Scotland. New York: Robert Carter & Brothers, 1863. Pittsburgh: R. S. Davis, 93 Wood street. 464pp. 12mo.

The author himself writes the following brief, modest notice of his book, as a preface:

"These Sermons are short; and will on that account, be found the more suitable for family reading. They are fifty-two in number, in order to furnish one for every Sabbath in the year. They are not upon family duties, but are rather meant as statements of the glorious gospel in some of its manifold aspects, as the "power of God and the wisdom of God." Several works of this author have already been published in this country, and have made his name familiar to us as one who has greatly distinguished himself both as a prose-writer and as a poet. His excellent little books, "The Night of Weeping," "The Morning of Joy," "The Desert of Sinai," "The Land of Promise," and, above all, his "Hymns of Faith and Hope," in two volumes, will prepare a large audience for the poet-preacher, who, from the pleasant banks of the Tweed and the Tweed, sends us these memorials of his pastoral labors.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE, FOR APRIL.—Mr. W. A. Gilcanfenney, 45 Fifth street, agent for Messrs. L. Scott & Co., New York, has just received the April number of Blackwood. The contents are: Sensation Diplomacy in Japan; Mrs. Clifford's Marriage—Part 2; Sir James Graham; The Inexhaustible Capital; Pantomimes—Part 15; Speddling's Life of Bacon; The Yang-tsi Mountains, and Spirit-Writing in China; Marriage Bells. Among which, doubtless, the reader will be at no loss to find much interesting and even some profitable reading. Fortunately there is nothing about American affairs—on which Blackwood is a bore.

Last Tuesday night, the first squad of colored men left the city for Massachusetts, to join the colored regiment now forming in that State. The agent is now in the city, and is amply provided with authority and means to send on all colored men who are desirous of going. We would say that, never was so good an opportunity offered the colored men of the country, as is now offered by the State of Massachusetts. The pay, rations, clothing, term of enlistment, and land bounty will be the same as all other regiments of volunteers. Each recruit receives fifty dollars bounty as soon as he is mustered in, and one hundred dollars on his discharge from the service. The camp is at Readville, near Boston, Massachusetts, where all brave freedom-loving colored men are invited to repair without delay, and enroll themselves with the host that shall do or die for freedom. The headquarters in this city are corner of Webster and Robert streets, where the colored men of this city and vicinity, are invited to call, and those desirous of going, to enroll their names, when they will be sent on immediately to Massachusetts.

Serious Illness of Mr. Lambert.

We regret to learn that Henry Lambert, Esq., County Controller, is now lying seriously ill at his residence on Fulton street. He was attacked with bilious cholic, two or three days ago, and up to last night his condition was still regarded as somewhat critical. The loss of his services, at any time is in a measure detrimental to the public interests, as all the place cannot be filled by a deputy; but at the present time, when the compromise lately agreed upon between the bondholders and the county is being carried into practical effect, his illness is particularly unfortunate. It is earnestly hoped that he will soon be restored to his accustomed health.

Hankins, Mount Jackson, Pa., all of whom passed an honorable examination, and who will no doubt, hereafter distinguish themselves by their superior attainments in business. METAL-TIPPED SHOES.—Shoes are an important item in the expense of clothing children, as every parent will understand. They invariably wear out their shoes at the toe first, and not unfrequently before the other parts are a quarter worn. Children's shoes with metal tips never wear out at the toe, and it is safe to say that on an average one pair with them will more than outwear three pairs without them. We believe all the shoe dealers keep them.

A TENDER MISSIVE.—In one of the boxes of cartridges sent from the Allegheny Arsenal, distributed to the soldiers at Wheeling, on Wednesday morning, was a note informing the recipient of the box that "the arsenals girls is wall at present, and send their love to you and all the rest of the soigers." The missive was signed by two of the aforesaid "arsenal girls."

CAPTURE OF A PRISONER.—On Wednesday morning, a cavalry scout from Wheeling, sent out in the direction of Waynesburg, returned with a son of Jeff. Martin (former U. S. Marshal, but now in the rebel army) whom they captured on the way to Waynesburg. He professed to be going to the house of a relative, but he was held in custody.

WE would call the attention of our readers, to an advertisement in to-day's paper, of Dr. Rogers' Citrate of Magnesia. It is pronounced by those who have used it, as an unfailing remedy for all diseases of the stomach incidental to the summer months.

THE AMERICAN PHRENOLOGICAL JOURNAL.—The May number of this well-known periodical is just out, and may be obtained at J. P. Hunt's, Masonic Hall, Fifth street. One of the most interesting articles in the number discusses and expounds the "science of physiognomy."

PROLIFIC.—Mr. Alex. McComb, of Kiskominetas township, Armstrong county, has three ewes which recently added ten lambs to his flock—one ewe bearing four and the other two three each.

THE CHOICE BOOKS from a valuable private Library, to be sold by catalogue this evening, at the Auction House, 54 Fifth street, are now arranged for examination, and catalogues ready.

MESSAGER FRANCO-AMERICAN.—The Young Men's Library Association have added this able French newspaper to the large collection in their reading room, and it will hereafter be regularly received.

EDITORS GAZETTE:—As the July Convention approaches, Governor Curtin having declined a renomination, the people are casting about for a suitable Union candidate for Governor. We want at this time a standard bearer whose loyalty and patriotism are undoubted; a man of clear head, sound judgment, pure character, and a heart devoted to the preservation of the best government on earth. I suggest as that man the Hon. SAMUEL A. PURVIANCE, now of Pittsburgh, and late Attorney General of the Commonwealth. I have known him intimately for many years, and all who know him will concur with me in the fact that his loyalty and fidelity to his country have never wavered; that he is a man of fine ability, sincere and honest in his purposes, and of the purest character. In short, he is in every way a fit and desirable man for Governor.

I, therefore, with your permission, and through your columns, beg to suggest him to the public as a good and available man for nomination and election to that office.

UNION MAN.

SPECIAL LOCAL NOTICES.

GROVER AND BAKER'S SEWING MACHINE, for family and manufacturing purposes, are the best in use.

[illegible], General Agent, 18 Fifth street.

ATTENTION, Co. B, 15TH.—A meeting of all the members of the company will be held at headquarters, Federal street, Allegheny, on Saturday morning, 2d inst., at 8½ o'clock, to hear from the State authorities in regard to a probable order for service. Let all attend.

By order of the CAPTAIN.

THOMAS PARRY, Plain and Ornamental Slate Roofer, and dealer in Pennsylvania and Vermont slate of the best quality at low rates. Office at Alex. Laughlin's, near the Water Works, Pittsburgh, Pa. ap8:6m

How are Our Dresses to be Made?

A cotemporary answers the foregoing question in the following lively manner: By a sewing machine of course. We trust that the day is ever in which needle druggers get upa feeble opposition to the musical click of the Grover & Baker machine. A lady who says she does not know how to use a sewing machine is looked upon with as much distrust as a lady who says she don't like babies. Side by side, in every home, we see the piano and the sewing machine. Of course, people have a right to their preferences, but give us the merry magician whose silver tongue not only fills the ear with melody, but sets the pulse of life and health throbbing anew in the merry hearts of a million of women. Is it not better than all the pianos ever tuned? Some of the newest improvements on the Grover & Baker machine are the braider, corder and tucker, all of which ladies find indispensible. The braider is particularly appropriate to the present mania for decorating everything with braid. "I do not know what we should do without the Grover & Baker braider," said the director of one of our fashionable mantilla establishments, when we enquire how those tasteful labyrinths of braid were laid on, and his words are echoed in every home in the land. Really, we scarcely know which blessing to wish our young lady friends—a Grover & Baker machine, or a husband. We rather incline to the former, for they can exist minus the matrimonial alliance, but can't do without a sewing machine. What do you say, girls?

CHIROPODISM.—Dr. Rendall, late of London and New York, continues to exercise his surgical skill in the removal of Corns and Bunions without pain or inconvenience. Persons who have suffered for years with these troublesome and annoying companions, go into his office limping and making way less the cause by the acute pain they suffer, and in the course of a few seconds can skip with joy at the unexpected removal of the cause, being fully satisfied that they have made one of the cheapest investments in their lives. Ease and comfort, as far as the understandings are concerned, are desiderata devoutly wished for by all. Read the following certificates, and remember that the address of Dr. Rendall is Diamond street, opposite the Court House, fourth door from Grant street:

Certificate of Wm. Phillips, Esq., of Select Council, and F. Boyle, Esq.

PITTSBURG, April 18.—We certify that Dr. Rendall has operated on our feet, removing corns therefrom, doing so without pain and entirely to our satisfaction.

Dr. Rendall has this day removed eight corns from my feet. The operation was a painless one, and the relief is such that I advise those afflicted with Corns and Bunions to give the Doctor a call. ELI YOUNG,

FROM WASHINGTON.

OUR SPECIAL DISPATCHES.

Special Dispatches to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

WASHINGTON, May 1, 1863.

IMPORTANT QUESTIONS AWAITING DECISION.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has several important questions under consideration, namely: whether articles brought into the country under the reciprocity treaty are liable to duty under the Excise law. Canadians claim entire exemption. He has also before him a question raised by a foreign Consul, resident in New York, as to whether he has, in regard to exemption from taxes, the privileges of a Minister. The Commissioner is of opinion that he has not, but has not finally decided, there being some little authority the other way.

GEN. STARL'S RECONNOISSANCE.

A recent reconnoissance by General Stahl, up to yesterday, demonstrates the presence of no considerable body of rebels between the Rappahannock and the Blue Ridge. Thirty-eight of the prisoners captured belonged to Mosby's Cavalry, which is now completely destroyed as an effective.

SALE OF FIVE TWENTIES.

Jay, Cooke & Co. report their sales since the adjournment of Congress of five twenty bonds at forty-five millions, more than three-quarters of which were made in April.

NEW ARMY CORPS TO BE ORGANIZED.

The troops in Kentucky other than those belonging to the Ninth Army Corps, are to be organized into the Twenty-third Army Corps, commanded by General Hartsuff.

EXTRA ISSUE OF CANDLES.

By general order an extra issue of adamantine candles in the Adjutant General's Department has been authorized.

SENTENCE REMITTED.

The sentence of Lieut. Herman Groskardt, 9th Ohio, to be cashiered, has been remitted.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—The National Republican of this afternoon, has semi-official dispatches from Gen Banks dated near St. Martinsville, 17th April. He did this following brilliant things: Marched over three hundred miles, beating the enemy in three battles, dispersing his army, utterly destroying his army—capturing the fortifications at Franklin and New Iberia, and demolishing the salt works ten miles southwest of the latter place, capturing camp equipage, several guns, and between one and two thousand prisoners. He cannot for some months organise an army or navy in that part of Louisiana.

Our loss was between six and seven hundred. Nothing could exceed the conduct of our officers and men. We have also in our possession his ablest officers of sea and land.

FROM MURFREESBORO.

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

MURFREESBORO, May 1, 1863.

Scouts came in to-day and report the rebel position as unchanged. Country people affirm that Bragg will attack Murfreesboro, giving their opinions in letters from friends in the rebel army.

The police authorities have information strongly confirmatory of the idea that Johnson is preparing to attack. The best informed officers, however, discredit the idea.

Refugees are coming into our lines by the hundred. Over two hundred have been furnished passes, a majority of whom go to Illinois.

The 110th and 22d Illinois regiments will be consolidated on a petition of the majority of the officers' agreement to-day—terms to-morrow.

Brigadier General Stanley, commanding cavalry, returned to duty to-day.

Lieut. Col. Hall, returning from rebel imprisonment, was warmly welcomed to-day by the 89th Illinois regiment.

FROM NASHVILLE.

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

NASHVILLE, May 1, 1863.

A rebel Colonel and thirty or forty cavalry were brought in here to-day, captured at Thompson's station, beyond Franklin, this morning. Gilbert's brigade left camp before daylight and surprised them. Seven horses were killed and captured. Union loss nothing. The rebels recently captured were sent north to-day. W. W. B.

The Potomac Army at Fort Royal on Wednesday.

PHILADELPHIA, April 30.—A gentleman who has just returned from the Army of the Potomac, brings the following report of the proceedings in that direction:

The pontoons are said to have been laid on Tuesday night and Wednesday morning, across the river at Port Royal. Yesterday morning at daylight the troops began to cross, and by 10 o'clock our four corps d'armee are said to have crossed in safety. Cannonading and severe firing have been heard on this side of the river.

The sutlers have been ordered away from Aquia Creek.

[Port Royal is a small town in Caroline county, forty-five miles from Richmond. It is nearly thirty miles below Fredericksburg, by the course of the Rappahannock, on the right, or south, bank of which it is situated; but in a direct line it is not more than twenty miles distant.]

Position of the Rebels.

MURFREESBORO, May 1.—A deserter from the rebel 2d Kentucky, who left his regiment this morning, reports that Breckinridge has advanced to Beech Grove and Hoover's Gap, twelve miles from here, on the Manchester pike. He states that the entire rebel force is now in position from Beech Grove through Martinsburg and Guy's Gap on to Shelbyville. The supposed intention of Johnston, who is in immediate command, is to hold the Gaps and force General Rosecrans to concentrate his lines. Little hope is entertained that Johnston will attack.

While dispatches detailing this activity on the part of the rebels must be necessarily extent regarding ourselves, it must not be supposed that Rosecrans is idle or unprepared.

From Newbern.

NEW YORK, May 1.—The steamer Escort arrived from Newbern on the 29th ult.

Skirmishing had taken place in the vicinity of Newbern, and a considerable number of prisoners were captured.

By the falling of a bank, caused by a heavy gale on Thursday, nearly all of the horses of Co. D, of the 3d New York Cavalry, were killed or disabled.

Report Contradicted.

NEW YORK, May 1.—The Tribune prints an extract from a letter dated "near Vicksburg," which says that only one of the transports was sunk in passing the rebel batteries on the 23d, consequently the other reports of four being sunk, &c., is a canard.

Our Colored Men Moving.

Some weeks ago Secretary STANTON authorised the raising of a regiment of colored men in this community, with the right to choose their own officers. The following is a copy of his dispatch:

WASHINGTON, March 21, 1863.

Wm. A. Adair: If a regiment of colored men can be raised in Pittsburgh, I will authorise them to have their own officers.

EDWIN M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.

In pursuance of this patriotic object we are requested to publish the following circular signed by four well known and highly respected colored citizens:

CIRCULAR.

To the able bodied Colored Men in Western Pennsylvania:

The colored men of Pittsburgh have authority from the War Department to raise a regiment, with authority to have their own company officers. This privilege is not granted in Massachusetts. Join us then at once. Your country needs your services now. If you have not the means of transportation, notify us forthwith and we will supply you.

The Headquarters will be announced in a day or two. All letters of inquiry may be addressed to R. E. Jones, care of Rev. John Peck.

All persons in Western Pennsylvania who sympathise with this object, are invited to forward their contributions immediately. They need money to pay rent, transportation, &c., &c. Every cent will be strictly accounted for. There is a fund raised in Boston of a similar kind, on which recruiting officers are scouring the country to fill up Massachusetts regiments.

It is hoped the friends of the Union and of the colored man in Western Pennsylvania will be as prompt in responding to the call as they were at the fall of Sumpter.

The Committee particularly commend this matter, to the favorable attention of the gentlemen of the Press.

The following named persons have been duly authorised to receive subscriptions to aid the cause:

Rev. JOHN PECK, 95 4th st., Pittsb'g, Chm'n; Rev. J. DAVIS, Duquesne Way, Pittsburgh; N. ALLEN, 2d street, Pittsburgh; Dr. H. B. WILLIAMSON, 40 Fed. st., Allegheny. Committee.

PITTSBURGH, May 1, 1863.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ A COUGH, COLD, OR AN IRRITATED THROAT, if allowed to progress, results in serious Pulmonary and Bronchial affections, oftentimes incurable.

BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES reach directly the affected parts, and give almost instant relief. In BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA, and CATARRH they are beneficial. The good effects resulting from the use of the Troches, and their extensive use, has caused them to be counterfeited. Be sure to guard against worthless imitations. Obtain only the genuine Brown's Bronchial Troches, which have proved their efficacy by a test of many years. Public Speakers and Singers should use the Troches. Military Officers and Soldiers who over-tax the voice and are exposed to sudden changes, should have them. Sold everywhere, at 25 cents per box.
