NORTH WESTERN CHINESE SUGAR MANUFACTURING COMPANY.—This Company, chartered by the last General Assembly of the State of Illinois, with ample and liberal powers, has opened books for the subscription of stock in their office in the city of Cairo, Illinois.

The manufacture of sugar from sorghum, or the Chinese sugar Cane, and the yield of immense, if not fabulous profits from the article even at ordinary market rates, are facts which now admit of the fullest demonstration. As Southern Illinois, in point of climate and soil, is admirably adapted for the growth of the cane, and as the cultivation of the cane already forms a great feature in the agricultural pursuits of the people, the fitness of the location for the factory will be readily conceded.

It is the purpose of the Company to erect and have in operation a large factory before the close of the present season; and with a view to aid in that particular, subscriptions of stock are solicited on the following terms: Shares One Hundred Dollars each; twenty-five dollars at the time of subscription, and the balance in quarterly payments. A receipt will be given for each installment, and when the full sum is paid a certificate of stock, bearing the signature of the President and Secretary of the Company, will be issued.

The success of this enterprise, when once started, is beyond question. The President of the Company has had much experience in European countries, alike in the erection of factories and the manufacture of sugar, and is abundantly satisfied that no field of operation he has ever seen promises better than this. So fully satisfied is he of success, that for one he will oppose the sale of a single share of stock at any price, however high, after enough has been taken to erect and put in operation the first factory.

Office at the company, Commercial Avenue, near the Post Office; Cairo, Illinois.

CAPT. D. W. HIBBON.

The Condition of the South--Lights and Shadows.

The new rebel tax law is like RENOMDAM's finger, which was heavier than his father's (or Uncle Samuel's) loins. We give five specimen bricks out of many of the same sort:

	Per cent. on Licenses.	Receipts.
Amusements	$500	5
Auctioneers	500	2½
Bankers	500	2½
Merchants	100	5
Liquor dealers	100	5

The Mobile Advertiser contains a large number of advertisements announcing the sequestration of debts owed by the merchants of that city, to those of New York.

The Eutaw (Ala.) Whig claims that the wheat crop of that county promises to be better than that of any former year within the recollection of the oldest farmers. Similar reports are published from East Tennessee, Charlotte county, N. C., and Southern Virginia.

It was stated in the Georgia Legislature that there was no scarcity of provisions in that State; but that the lack of transportation caused scarcity to be felt in sections. The same is asserted respecting Louisiana and parts of Mississippi. An unsuccessful attempt was recently made at Columbus, Ga., by a party of women, to rob the stores of that place of calicoes. The rioters were put in jail. At Milledgeville, in the same State, the women robbed a dry goods store of its finest articles of apparel. "After a frightful flurry, the fair creatures were dispersed by an appeal of Judge Harris." The account does not state whether they returned the goods.

A cotton speculating mania has sprung up in the South. Parties were roaming about the country, buying all they could get, and as a consequence cotton had risen to 30 cents a pound. Two-thirds the entire crop of Alabama is in the hands of these speculators.

The True Rebel Estimate of Gen. McClellan.

While General McClellan was at the head of the army of the Potomac the rebel newspapers always spoke of him in terms of great respect as a soldier, and pretended to fear him. A certain class of journals on our side of the line—(geographically on our side, although in heart on the rebel side)—were very fond of picking up these rebel compliments to their idol, and spreading them before the world. Now, will they have the fairness to give the following testimony, uttered when there is no longer any motive to lie? Those Southern fellows will lie egregiously when they can promote their own bad cause by doing so; but they have a kind of honor which impels them to tell the truth when they can do so without damage to slavery and the rebellion. In this article we may take it for granted that the Richmond editor says what he believes to be true. Indeed he states some facts which we all know to be true. Now, if the papers which have been lauding him through thick and thin, and abusing everybody who would not fall down and worship their idol, have a spark of honesty or fair dealing in their composition, they will publish this revised and corrected rebel testimony, especially after having drawn upon the same source for testimony in his favor.

[From the Richmond Whig, April 21.]

THE LATE GEORGE B. M'CLELLAN.

Young Napoleon is dead—dead beyond resurrection. In the flesh he may still walk the earth, but in spirit, in power, in the hope of glory he is defunct. It is a noteworthy fact that the ukases and bulletins over this person have ceased in Yankeeland. For two or three months after his dismissal he was the pet object of democratic sympathy and conservative sympathy; but now even Beast Butler has grander ovations to bestow. His name is seldom heard among men. He is no more.

A review of his career, from the time he claimed Rodeman's laurels in the little affair at Rich Mountain down to the time of the battle of Antietam would be instructive to the nation, of itself, who accepted him as his own idol. But
