Impending Battles. We have private and perfectly trustworthy dvices from Washington up to Saturday. The movement of our army across the Rappahannock was a great success. Gen. HOOKER, in a brief and stirring order to his brave army, dated April 30th, announces that the operations of the three previous days had resulted tions of the three previous days had resulted in placing our army in such a portition as would compel the enemy to come out of his intrenchments and fight us on ground of our own choice, or else ingloriously retrest. Two great batties are expected this week: one on the plains between the Rappahannock and Mattaponey rivers, and one on the south iters and seized the bank. The rebel and Mattaponey river, and one on the south side of the James. We confidently await the result.
