Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

It is stated that Gen. Averill, who com manded the cavalry column sent in the direction of Cuipepper and Gordonsville, has been elleved from command by Hooker, for no carrying out the orders to push on to Gor read and finally adopted.

Mr. A. D. Smith presented a petition from citizens of the First Ward, asking an appropriation of $1000 for the new steam fire enthat would be useful to the rebels, then t turn and join our right wing; but, instead f doing this, it is said that after driving Fits Hugh Lee across the Rapid-Ann, he halted or the night, and, instead of resuming the chase next merning to Gordonsville, he returned to our army, which he joined on Sun day. His cavalry division, it is said, ha sen turned over to Gen. Pleasanton. Gen. Averill has shown himself a gallan and daring officer, and his friends believe that he will fully exonerate himself to the fulles in the matter. Killad-Lient. Col. E. J. Sherlock, 5th Michigan.
