Works, Pittsburgh, Pa. ap5:6m Extraortor or Coass AND BUHIONS.--Va-rious circumstances have delayed the depart-ure of Dr. Randall, the smootsful operator on corns and bunkens, but the principal of these is the great demand for his services, which his peculiar system of treatment has caused, but he must assure those persons who intend to honor him with a call that he has been so-licited to visit other towns and citles, to which he must astern. The numerous testi-monials, which have appeared from well known dilisses from day to day, Dr. B. desens, are of themselves sufficient to speak of the of-ficacy with which he operates. His office is on Diamond street, fourth door from Grant, where he can be consulted during the present weak at the instance of the lady members, who dasired to make some suitable soknowledgment to their pastor, Bev.
