SEWING MACHINES.

CARD TO THE PUBLIC.

A FALSEHOOD EXPOSED.

For some time past an advertisement has appeared in the papers here, stating that Five Gold Medals had been awarded "the Howe Sewing Machines" at the late World's Fair in London, when the Howe was not on exhibition for all purposes, and the others for another specimen of sewing." Though aware at the time that the statement was wholly devoid of truth and a gross imposition on the public, we forbore noticing it until such time as we could get an official copy of the Report of the Judges in the matter; so that we could give it a positive and authoritive contradiction. That Report, published by authority of the Commissioners of the Exhibition, is now in our possession, and shows how utterly untrue are the statements in the advertisement alluded to.

At the World's Fair the WHEELER & WILSON COMPANY had but a single Machine on exhibition, while of the Howe Machine there were several, on hand. In the official copy of the award, which may be seen at our house, 37 FIFTH STREET, it is stated that a Gold Medal was awarded the Howe Sewing Machine Company, not, however, because their Machine was better, or as good as others for all purposes, but because, in the language of the award, they exhibited "the best collection."

The Silver Medals" alleged to have been awarded for superior specimens of sewing, were never awarded at all, nor did the aforesaid "superior sewing" receive even the barren compliment of an "honorable mention" in the Judge's Report. Compare this with the high compliment bestowed on the WHEELER & WILSON MACHINE. Though the Company, avoiding all pretentious display, had but a single machine on exhibition, it was awarded

A GOLD MEDAL ON ITS MERITS AS A FAMILY MACHINE, AND ON ITS MERITS ALONE.

These are the facts of the case, as exhibited by the official report of the Commissioners, and in justice to ourselves, as well as to expose a palpable and flagrant attempt at imposition, we have felt constrained to lay them before the public. We repeat, therefore, that the WHEELER & WILSON MACHINE is the only machine which received a GOLD MEDAL at the late World's Fair, and pronounce all statements to the contrary, as matter from whatsoever they emanate, as wholly unworthy of belief.

MISCELLANEOUS.

GENERAL ORDERS No. 105.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, April 28, 1863.

The organization of an Invalid Corps is hereby authorized.

The Corps shall consist of Companies, and if it shall hereafter be thought best, of Battalions.

The Companies shall be made up from the following sources, viz:

First. By taking those Officers and enlisted men of command now in the field (whether actually present or temporarily absent) who, from wounds received in action or disease contracted in the line of duty, are unfit for field service, but are still capable of effective garrison duty, of such other light duty as may be required of an Invalid Corps. Regimental Commanders shall at once make out from information received from their Medical Officers and Surgeons, and from their own knowledge, rolls (according to the Form furnished,) of the names of all the officers and enlisted men under their commands who fulfill the following conditions, viz:

1. That they are unfit for active field service on account of wounds or disease contracted in the line of duty; the fact being certified by a Medical Officer in the service, after personal examination.

2. That they are fit for garrison duty; this fact being likewise certified by the Medical Officer, as above, after personal examination.

3. That they are, in the opinion of their Commanding Officers, meritorious and deserving.

These rolls shall be certified by the Examining Surgeon and Regimental Commander, and transmitted, through the regular channels of military correspondence, to the Provost Marshal General of the United States.

The Regimental Commander shall affix to the column of remarks, opposite each officer's name on the roll, a statement as to the general character of the officer for intelligence, industry, sobriety and attention to duty; and all intermediate Commanders shall endorse thereon such facts as they may possess in the case, or if they have none, they shall state how far they are willing to endorse the opinion of the officer or officers making the recommendation. Similar rolls shall be forwarded from time to time, whenever the number of men fulfilling the conditions enumerated or the exigencies of the service may render it expedient.

Second. By taking those officers and enlisted men still in service and borne at the rolls, but who are absent from duty, in Hospitals or Convalescent Camps, or are otherwise under the control of Medical Officers. In these cases the Medical Officer in attendance shall prepare the rolls according to Form, entering the names of officers and men from the same Regiment on a roll by themselves, and shall then, with the certificate of the Surgeon, duly classified, to the proper Regimental Commander, who will transmit them, as heretofore specified, subject to the same conditions and requirements. If in any case the Regimental Commander shall think an officer unfit, in point of character, to continue in the service of the Invalid Corps, though classed and certified by the Surgeon, he will state his objection in the column of remarks, and note the exception before signing the certificate. If any officer or enlisted man now in the service, but absent and beyond the reach of a Medical Officer in charge of a Hospital or Convalescent Camp, desires to enter this Corps, he will take the course indicated below for those who have been honorably discharged the service.

Third. By accepting those officers and enlisted men who have been honorably discharged on account of wounds or disease contracted in the line of duty, and who desire to re-enter the service. In the case of an officer, application for appointment must be made to the Provost Marshal General of the United States through the officer detailed as Acting Assistant Provost Marshal General of the State. No application of this kind will be considered unless the following conditions are completely fulfilled:

1. That the applicant produces the certificate of the Surgeon of the Board of Enrolment for the district in which he resides, that he is unfit for active field duty on account of wounds or disease, and is not liable to draft, and is fit for garrison duty.

2. That he furnish evidence of honorable discharge on account of wounds or disability contracted in the line of duty.

3. That he produce recommendations from the Regimental, Brigade and Division Commanders under whom he formerly served, that he is worthy of being then provided for and capable of returning to the field service to the Government. In case it shall be impracticable to get this last evidence, he may, after having established the first two points above, present the Board of Enrollment that he is deserving of, and present the certificate of the fact. This evidence must all be obtained by the Applicant, and must be submitted with his application for appointment.

If there be no "Acting" Assistant Provost Marshal General for the State, the application may be forwarded through the Adjutant General of the State, who will furnish the necessary blanks for such purpose. The military history of the applicant as far as the records are afforded by his records, and forward to the office of the Provost Marshal General of the United States. Enlisted men, honorably discharged on account of disability, desiring to re-enlist in the Corps, will present themselves to the Board of Enrolment for the district in which they reside, and upon the report of the Surgeon thereof, who shall examine them and report the result to the Board of Enrolment.

The Board shall then consider each case, and if the applicant is found to fulfill the conditions specified above, the Board shall give him a certificate to that effect, viz:

1. That he is unfit for service in the field.
2. That he is fit for garrison duty.
3. That he is meritorious and deserving.
4. That he was honorably discharged from the service.

The Provost Marshal for the District shall then send the application, with this certificate of the Board, to the Acting Assistant Provost Marshal General of the State, who shall procure such evidence of service and character as the records of the Department to which he belongs, or the Adjutant General of the State, may show, and if satisfied that it is a meritorious case, and that the man is deserving, he will enlist him in accordance with such special rules as the Provost Marshal General may establish.

Medical Inspectors, Surgeons in charge of Hospitals, Military Commanders, and all others having authority to discharge, under existing laws and regulations, are forbidden to grant discharges to any men under their control who may be fit for service in the Invalid Corps.

The Provost Marshal General is charged with the execution of this order, and the troops organized under it will be under the control of his Bureau.

By order of the Secretary of War.

E. D. TOWNSEND,
Assistant Adjutant General.

WM. B. BRADBURY'S PIANO-FORTE ESTABLISHMENT,

No. 427 BROOME STREET, N. Y.

The subscriber respectfully invites the attention of his friends and the public generally to his Piano-Forte Establishment, at No. 427 Broome street, corner of Crosby street

Having withdrawn his interest, stock and materials from the late firm of "Light & Bradbury," which firm was dissolved on the 31st January, ult., and having purchased the entire stock of Piano-Fortes and Piano-Forte material owned by his brother, Edward G. Bradbury, in the said firm, he is now prepared to supply the increased demand for his celebrated Piano-Fortes. Employing the most skilful and experienced workmen, with a large stock of the best and most thoroughly seasoned material, and an abundance of capital, he has taken in hand the personal supervision of the whole business of manufacturing his instruments, and is enabled to turn out Piano-Fortes of unequalled tone and excellence.

BRADBURY'S NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTE.

In the arrangement of our new scale, drawn and prepared with the utmost care, expressly for our new instruments, we have added every improvement which can in any way tend to the perfection of the Piano-Forte, and we can confidently assert that, for delicacy of touch, volume, purity, brilliancy and sweetness of tone, combined with that strength and solidity of frame necessary to durability, these instruments are unequalled.

"SUNSHINE AND BEAUTY" is our motto, and we invite the closest criticism of the best unbiased judges in the land.

Every instrument warranted for five years.

Gen. Grant's Progress.

The admirable generalship and glorious success of Gen. GRANT, at Vicksburg, surpass anything we have had during the war, whether regarded in the light of the skill and bravery of the commander and his gallant troops, or the importance of the results. We give a brief resume:

April 29th, Admiral Porter attacked Grand Gulf, which is sixty miles below Vicksburg. He silenced the batteries, but not without a loss to ourselves of twenty-four killed and fifty-six wounded. The following day Grant landed his army at a point ten miles below Grand Gulf, called Bruinsburg, losing in the landing one transport, with the best battery of artillery he had. May 1st, General Osterhaus, leading the advance, met the enemy at Anderson's Hills, six miles from Port Gibson, and followed him up till he came to a stand, and was severely beaten near the Bayou Pierre. The next morning at daylight—May 2—our troops entered Port Gibson, the rebels having left it during the night. On the 3d, Grand Gulf was taken by our forces.

Port Gibson is connected with Grand Gulf by a railroad eight miles long.

Grant heard of Grierson's success on the 6th, and on the same day his army moved forward, along the line of the Big Black river. Five days afterwards, on the 11th, it had reached Fourteen Mile creek, and the next day General McPherson captured Raymond, half-way between Grant's headquarters on the 11th and Jackson. The army now held an east and west line, facing the Vicksburg and Jackson Railroad; and on the 13th and 14th Grant defeated Gregg and Walker at Mississippi Springs, and drove them eastward towards Jackson.

The details of the operations of the army since the taking of Raymond on the 12th are meagre, and in the main made up from rebel accounts, yet there is such a consistency in them that full reliance may be placed in them.

After the capture of Port Gibson on the first of May, and the occupation of Grand Gulf on the 3d, the army was pushed forward, and while the enemy was confused, as to his intentions, he hurled a force against Raymond, which he captured. In the meantime, a division was moving on the direct road to Jackson. That place was taken on the 14th, after a severe fight, according to rebel accounts. At this time Johnston was at Livingston, northeast of Jackson, about twenty miles, and Pemberton was between Jackson and Vicksburg. The rebels evidently concluded that Grant would attempt to hold Jackson, concentrating his forces at that place. Their plan then seemed to be to concentrate their forces and get between Jackson and Vicksburg. Pemberton moved east, Johnston being between Livingston and Brownsville, the latter point lying ten miles north of the railroad. At Baker's Creek, twenty miles west of Jackson, Pemberton ran against a portion of Grant's army, and a severe battle was fought, lasting, it is said, nine hours. Grant, instead of holding Jackson, as the rebels evidently expected, evacuated the place, after destroying public property, valued, according to rebel authority, at eight to ten million dollars, and hurled his forces against Pemberton, compelling him to retreat to the Vicksburg side of the Big Black. Johnston's official dispatch, announcing this result, is dated between Livingston and Brownsville, May 18th, (Monday.) Loring's division of Pemberton's army had been separated, during the battle of Saturday, and he is said to have cut his way through, reaching Crystal Springs, on the New Orleans and Jackson Railroad, twenty-five miles south of the latter place. It is not settled whether the bridge over Big Black river was destroyed or not; the reports on this point being contradictory.

This brings us to the date of the dispatches given in our paper this afternoon. A dispatch from Mobile (rebel) acknowledges the loss of thirty pieces of cannon at Black river on Saturday, and states that the bridge was burned by the rebels, but that GRANT crossed higher up and took them in the rear, compelling them to destroy their work on the Vicksburg side of the river, and closes with the remark that Vicksburg was closely besieged.

The next movement appears to have been to Haines' Bluff, which was captured, thus securing the thorough investiture of Vicksburg and the rebel army. On the 18th inst. there was sharp fighting with great and unvarying success to the national arms, and the capture of great numbers of prisoners—some accounts placing them as high as between nine and ten thousand. As things look we think we may confidently await the news of the fall of Vicksburg and the capture or destruction of Pemberton's army. It is by far the heaviest blow the rebellion has yet received. Verily the work goes bravely on in the Southwest.

Secretary Stanton and the Protection of Colored Soldiers.

A Washington letter to the New York Evening Post says:

Mr. Stanton has given assurance within a day or two of his purpose to protect the negro soldiers in the service of the United States at all hazards. He will hold white rebels as hostages for the safe delivery of loyal negro soldiers who may fall into the hands of the enemy. If a negro soldier is hung by Jeff. Davis, a white rebel soldier will instantly be executed. An announcement to that effect will soon be made. It is said that Mr. Stanton is san
