the hospitals of all patients who could be saved.

The railroad strategy seems to have been equal to the crisis. All the freight trains were sent through safely to the North on Saturday.

proceeded on the road to Fairfax Station, where they probably arrived on Monday night.

By Monday morning our army had the line of the Rappahannock from Bank's Ford to Kelly's Ford, the rear being protected by artillery to hold the enemy at bay.

It is ascertained that the main portion of the Army of the Potomac has been removed from the line of the Rappahannock, and is now on the line of the Potomac.

THE FAVORABLE REPORT.—By the latest report we learn that the French election had given to the Opposition, twenty-five members in the next Legislative body. In this district an absolute majority was obtained for any candidate, and it was hoped that at the subsequent election, all of them would return Opposition members. In Paris, the Government candidates were defeated in each of the nine districts. Among the Opposition candidates who were elected were Havas, Thiers, Ollivier, Fiala, Pons, Roussin, Barthelemy, Sisac, Pelissier, Heron, Espartero, Marchand &c.
