The following communication from Major The western shores of the Mississippi, from Milliken's Bend to Vicksburg, are ful of Con-federate troops. They hold Richmond, New Oatthage and Gourent. Beinforeements from Wachette to Pember-ton are received. Troops are supposed to cross over every night. The Chattanooge Rebel, of the Jath, edito-rially, says: Grant, on the J23, attacked along the whole line, He failed to carry a single breastwork; was repulsed with a loss of J6,000, and fir in full retreat. The Gipatches from which these inferences are drawn by the Rebel are by no means con-duates. General Couch to Governor Curtin, is published for general information : -
