The Conscription Act.

There is still much difference of opinion in reference to the proper construction of certain sections of the conscription act. The most important question involved is, whether the payment of three hundred dollars to the collector of revenue will exempt a drafted man as fully as if he furnished a substitute. The law says, "all persons enrolled, shall be subject for two years to be called into the military service of the United States." It also says, any person who shall furnish a substitute or pay $300, "shall be discharged from further liability under that draft." These clauses by themselves would seem to make a person liable to a subsequent draft any time within two years. But section 17 of the law says, "any person who shall furnish an acceptable substitute shall thereupon receive from the Board of Enrolment a certificate of discharge from such draft, which shall exempt him from military duty during the time for which he is drafted." This certainly exempts the person drafted for three years, which is the "time" for which he is drafted.

Under the first clause quoted of the law there is nothing restrictive or limiting the clear phraseology of the last clause. The first merely says he shall be discharged from liability under that draft, that is, not exposed to be drawn again under it. The second clause goes further, and says he shall receive a certificate of his discharge, which (certificate) shall exempt him from military duty during the time for which he is drafted. The service is fixed under the law for the time "during the present rebellion, but not to exceed three years," which is the time, therefore, to which the above exemption extends.

But if he is exempt for three years from any other draft which may be made within that time, then furnishing a substitute, it is argued, takes two individuals for that period of time, instead of one, out of the number of persons liable to perform military duty, and consequently will increase, in the same proportion, the liability of all others subject to duty. The substitute would be liable, if an acceptable person, to a second draft, and the question with many is, whether the law did not measurably clothe the two should exchange places, the substitute giving three years' service, and the person employing him putting himself into the position of the substitute of liability to draft.

[illegible] the law does not bear the construction [illegible] exemption, it gives the exemption of a substitute "for the time for which he is drafted." Besides he is [illegible] furnish [illegible] a person not liable to draft, if acceptable, as, for instance, a recent foreign emigrant, or an able-bodied lad of 18 years, or a man fit for military duty over 45 years. In either of these cases, if the employer of the substitute were liable under any time less than three years, the Government would call for the service of two individuals, when only one is liable to duty.

If a second enrolment were to take place at the end of two years, it is questionable again whether a person exempted and discharged from the first enrolment, for three years, would not be liable again to draft under the second enrolment, though one year of the exempted time is still unexpired. It is probable that, in this case, the unexpired term would go to his favor, if he should be drawn again. These are questions and doubts which will be legislatively under this law, and it will be seen that there is enough of uncertainty to warrant official interpretation of it from an authorized source to be given at once, to satisfy all minds, and to enable the public to know what is the best course to pursue.

Another point raised is, whether a person drafted, before notification of the fact by the Provost Marshal, has a right to enlist in the United States service. We think not. As soon as his name is drawn he is considered in the government employment, and cannot therefore alter his relation to the government. If he is not present when wanted he is to be treated as a deserter, liable to court-martial and to punishment.

Suicide of a Deserter.

Lieut. Lawson, whose exploits in West Virginia, as an officer in Rowand's Cavalry, had won for him considerable distinction, deserted the cause of the Union about six weeks ago, and went within the rebel lines. He had performed a great deal of arduous and dangerous service with his company, and his fame as a dashing and efficient officer preceded him into Dixie. He was reported to have killed several rebels who attempted to escape after having been taken prisoner by him. It is stated that after his company went to Winchester, Lawson got to drinking pretty freely and became very much attached to a rebel woman, who it is supposed induced him to desert. Upon entering the rebel lines and proclaiming himself a deserter, he was arrested by the rebels upon a charge of murder, and taken to Castle Thunder. He had not been in confinement long until he was despondent and distrusted by those to whom he had voluntarily surrendered himself, and he finally committed suicide by taking poison. Seven thousand dollars in money was found upon his person, four thousand in gold and the balance in greenbacks. He claimed to have served five years in the regular army before the breaking out of the rebellion.

The Sculling Match for the Championship.

The great sculling match for the championship, between James Hamill, of this city, and Joshua Ward, of New York, will take place at Fonghkeepsie, on Thursday, the 23d inst., should the weather prove favorable. Although a lively interest is felt here as to the result, the supreme interest in reaching the scene of contest is so great that only a limited number of Hamill's friends here will be able to witness the race. Some twelve or fifteen have already gone, and some are yet to follow, but the whole number will perhaps not exceed thirty or forty. The "champion" is reported to be in excellent condition, and able to cope successfully with his powerful competitor. None of his friends, however, are so sanguine as to believe that he will beat Ward as easily as he did on the Schuylkill, as Ward is unquestionably in much better condition now than he was on the occasion of his last contest. Still Hamill is decidedly the favorite here, and his admirers will doubtless be willing to back their good opinion of him, wherever an opportunity for betting is offered.

A Frightful Fall.

This morning, about eight o'clock, an accident of a serious character occurred at the residence of Dr. Greenawalt, on Wylie street. A servant girl named Sarah Ann Neop, while engaged in washing a window in the second story, accidentally fell out upon the pavement below, a distance of twelve or fifteen feet. The girl fell partially upon the brick steps leading to the hall door, her skin having been severely cut by coming in contact with the steps, but the jaw was not broken. Her left foot was considerably injured, and some of the smaller bones have been either dislocated or broken. In an hour or two after the accident the girl was seized with spasms, and it is feared that she has received very severe internal injuries. Her physicians, however, think that she will recover.

Committed for Perjury.

Wm. Jackson was charged on oath of Capt. J. Heron Foster, with falsely swearing that he was over 35 years of age, in order to escape the military service of the draft. The accused had a hearing on Saturday, before United States Commissioner Bailey, who remanded him to jail, until to-day, in default of $3,000 bail. The case came up this morning for final action before the commissioner, who committed Jackson to answer the charge, before the United States District Court—the bail demanded ($3,500) not being forthcoming.

The attempt to escape from the country's defence, through false swearing, will get its quietus by a few more examples of this sort.

RELEASED TO SAVE HIS LIFE.—Alexander McMurray, a well known "jailbird," belonging to Allegheny, took suddenly ill in the county jail last night, and came near dying in his cell. He was subsequently released, and by proper treatment may recover.

FIREWORKS.—A display of fireworks will take place this evening at the House of Refuge. It was to have taken place on the 4th of July, but was postponed on account of the weather.

COLORED SOLDIERS.—A squad of twenty-three colored soldiers, shortly substitutes, will be sent to camp William Penn, near Philadelphia, this afternoon.

RETURNED HOME WOUNDED.—Private John H. Salisbury, son of James Salisbury, Esq., Burgess of the Borough of Birmingham, arrived home in charge of his mother on Sunday forenoon, from the hospital in the neighborhood of Gettysburg. He received a bullet wound at the battle of Gettysburg in his left thigh, the ball entering just above the knee, and taking a slanting direction, coming out near the hip, shattering the bones in its passage through. The surgeons could not perform amputation, the wound being so high up, and it is much feared that it may yet prove fatal. He is a member of Co. B, 63d Pa.

IN THE CITY.—Brigadier General Thomas A. Rowley arrived in the city to-day, on a brief leave of absence.

LATE TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

[FROM OUR EVENING EDITION.]

SURRENDER OF MORGAN'S MEN!

ESCAPE OF MORGAN.

ABOUT 2000 PRISONERS TAKEN.

The Artillery and Prisoners Expected in Cincinnati To-day.

CINCINNATI, July 21—10 A. M.

The following has just been received at Gen. Burnside's headquarters:

HEADQUARTERS U. S. FORCES IN FIELD, } GREGOR'S CREEK, July 20—9 P. M. }

Lieut. Col. Richmond, Acting Adjutant General: We chased John Morgan and his command over fifty miles to-day; and after heavy skirmishing for six or seven miles between the 45th Ohio, of Walford's brigade, which was in the advance, and the enemy, we succeeded in bringing the enemy to a stand about three o'clock this afternoon, when a fight ensued, which lasted an hour, when the rebels fled, taking refuge upon a very high bluff.

I sent a flag of truce demanding the immediate and unconditional surrender of Morgan and his command. The flag was received by Col. Chenault and other officers, who came down and asked a personal interview. They asked time for consultation. I granted [illegible] minutes, in which time the command, excepting Morgan, who deserted his command, taking with him a very small squad, surrendered. It was my understanding that Morgan himself had surrendered, and learned it was also the understanding of Morgan's officers and men.

The number of killed and wounded is inconsiderable. The number of prisoners is between 1,000 and 1,500, including a large number of Colonels, Majors and line officers.

I captured between 600 and 700 prisoners yesterday.

I think I will capture Morgan shortly to-morrow. SHACKELFORD, Brig. Gen.

Morgan's artillery and about 2,500 prisoners, including Basil Duke, are expected to arrive to-day.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The Rumored Removal of Gen. Meade Untrue.

THE DEFENSES OF RICHMOND.

The Attack on Charleston.

FOSTER'S FIELD OF OPERATIONS.

Stragglers from Lee's Army Taken.

NEW YORK, July 21—The Post's Washington special says there is no truth in the report that Meade has been relieved of the command of the army of the Potomac.

Returned prisoners from Richmond don't think any of Bragg's forces has reached there.

D. H. Hill commands the troops in Richmond.

Gen. Gilmore will be left in supreme command in the attack on Charleston.

Gen. Foster's headquarters will be at Fortress Monroe, and his operations confined to North Carolina and Virginia.

A Richmond paper, of the 14th inst., reports the Federals landing in considerable force at Brandon, on the James river, doubtless, it says, to make a raid on the Weldon and Petersburg road. Brandon is thirty miles from Petersburg.

The Post's Washington dispatch says our cavalry captured large numbers of stragglers from Lee's retreating army in the last two days.

FROM FORTRESS MONROE.

The Capture of Fort Powhattan.

THE GARRISON GOBBLED UP BY REBELS.

Reported Attack on Fort Darling.

NEW YORK, July 21.—The Commercial's Fortress Monroe letter of the 18th, after referring to the capture of Fort Powhattan, on the James river, says that Admiral Lee detached an ensign and two boats' crews as a garrison, while the fleet moved further up the river. Shortly after he left the rebels returned and gobbled the insignificant garrison and decamped. When one of our dispatch boats returned, the battery field pieces opened on it. The fire was returned and the rebels withdrew.

The latest reports received here were to the effect that Lee had attacked Fort Darling, with what success is unknown.

Arrival of the Africa from Europe--Markets--The American War, etc.

HALIFAX, July 20.—The steamer Africa, from Liverpool on the 11th, via Queenstown on the 13th, has arrived.

The Daily News says: "We are under the impression that the American war will be soon closed through its growing unpopularity at the North, and the Confederate successes in the very neighborhood of Washington."

The Times says: "We may expect to hear of President Davis being in Washington, almost a decision of the war itself, compelling overtures of peace from its unsuccessful defenders."

The Army and Navy Gazette says that in view of the possibility of Davis overthrowing Lincoln, should another government address us from Washington, it may be difficult—indeed impossible—to refuse to acknowledge.

Liverpool—Breadstuffs are generally very dull, with slight decline in all qualities. Corn quiet and steady. Richardson, Spence, and other circulars report flour dull and downward, with a decline of 6d@1s. Wheat very dull and steady; Red Western 7s 6d and 8s. Corn steady; mixed 25s 9d; white 28s 6d@29s 6d. Provisions generally quiet and steady. Beef firm, and small sales at last quotations. Pork dull. Bacon steady. Lard quiet and steady. Sugar flat. Coffee inactive, but steady.

Liverpool, July 11.—Cotton is unchanged. Breadstuffs very dull. The Weather is favorable for crops. Provisions quiet and steady. Produce quiet. Consols closed at 93¼@92¾ for money. Illinois Central 29@28; Erie 81¼@81¾.

Paris, Saturday—The bourse is dull; rentes 68f. 50c.

Relief and Protection to Negroes.

NEW YORK, July 20.—Merchants subscribed $1,000 for the relief of negroes and as an expression of sympathy for the outrages committed on them during the late riot. They also passed resolutions requesting Gen. Dix to give assurances of their protection as laborers on the docks.

Rebel Dispatches from Jackson.

NEW YORK, July 21.—Noon.—The Montgomery Advertiser has several dispatches from Jackson. One, dated the 14th, states that Pemberton and staff arrived last night. An officer who accompanied them states they met Gen. Osterhaus' body going to Vicksburg. He was killed on the 12th.

A dispatch dated the 15th states that the enemy had been shelling the city all evening.

Another division of Gen. Burnside's command reached Gen. Grant to-day.

Jackson, June 16.—The enemy made a heavy demonstration on our right and centre, but were repulsed. Grant is receiving heavy reinforcements, which are pressed on our right to cross Pearl River and flank us.

An entire block in this city has been destroyed by the enemy's shells yesterday. It is thought the Federals are trying to flank us, as their cavalry tried to cross four miles above last night.

A dispatch of the 12th states that we captured the flags of the 28th, 41st and 53d Illinois regiments.

The Federals lost, in the charge of Sunday, fully 1,000 men.

Results of Gen. Grant's Campaign--Enormous Captures Within Sixty-four days--Expulsions from the Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce.

CINCINNATI, July 21.—The Gazette's Vicksburg correspondent says: During the campaign of sixty-four days, ending with the capture of Vicksburg, the rebels lost in killed, wounded, and prisoners, forty-three thousand seven hundred men, and seventy-one thousand stand of arms taken, including nearly fifty thousand Enfield rifles in their original packages, which were intended for the rebel army across the Mississippi, and two hundred and thirty pieces of artillery.

At a meeting of the Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce last night, thirty-three members were expelled for not taking the oath of allegiance.

COMMERCIAL RECORD.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH DAILY GAZETTE, } TUESDAY, July 21, 1863. }

Gold owing to some unknown cause, has again, taken another turn upward, being quoted today at 127¾ in New York which is an advance of about 3 cents over the rate of Monday. Here, there has been a corresponding advance, and our bankers are paying 122@123 for Gold and old Demand Notes, and 114@118 for Silver. Eastern Exchange is unchanged.

GRAIN—Wheat is dull and inactive, with a drooping tendency in prices; we note a sale of 1000 bush prime Red from store at $1.23. There is but little inquiry for Oats, and the market is dull at 60 to 62c from first hands, and 65 to 67c from store. Corn is not much inquired for, and in the absence of sales we quote at 73c for Shelled. Malt is firm at $1.60.

FLOUR—Is very much neglected and dull, and prices are gradually declining. Sale from store of 150 bbls choice at $6,60 for Extra, and $6,25@6,50 for Extra Family.

PROVISIONS—There is but little inquiry for bacon shoulders or sides, and the market is dull and unchanged. Hams, however, are a shade higher, with small sales at 9c for Plain, and 12c for prime Sugar Cured. We note small sales of Country Lard at 10c.

GROCERIES—There is only a moderate local demand for Groceries, and the market is quiet but unchanged. We note small sales at 11¾@13c for Sugar; 31@33c for Coffee, and 55 to 60c for Molasses.

BUTTER & EGGS—We note small sales of packed Butter at 13@14c, and Roll at 10@11c There is but little Roll Butter offering.

Pittsburgh Oil Market.

JULY 21—With light receipts and but a very limited stock, the market for Crude continues to rule firm, and prices have again advanced—ranging from 21 to 22c in bulk and 26@27c, packages included. We note a sale of 220 bbls in bulk at 21c. The market for Refined in bond is firm, though there has not been a single transaction to-day that we could hear of. Good standard brands for present delivery may be quoted firm at 45c, and August delivery 46@47c. It is but proper to remark, that these quotations are somewhat above the views of buyers, generally.

Private dispatches received from Oil City, report an advance of 50 cents per bbl on Crude at the wells, and it is also reported that the rates of freight between the wells and the river have been advanced considerably.

New York Petroleum Market.

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

NEW YORK, July 21—There is a fair demand for Crude, and the market is firm at 31c on the spot. Refined in bond is steady but unchanged, ranging from 45 to 49c on the spot; 52c for August delivery; 55c for September, and 57½c for October. Naptha is dull but unchanged.

Toledo Market.

JULY 18—The continued decline in the New York market has produced a wet blanket upon our own, and there is nothing doing worthy of note. Gold is quoted in New York at 120c, and it is bringing every description of produce downward so rapidly that it would be hardly safe to name quotations to any great extent. Flour—There is nothing doing, and round lots could not be sold. Wheat—The market is dull and drooping. We hear of two sales of White Michigan morning—600 bush each—at 110c, and a small lot of 250 bush to 111 cut, but the price could not be obtained for either grade, which buyers would have given this morning, and we forbear naming further quotations. Corn—Market dull; there is no inquiry for any grade. Holders of grain are disposed to wait a "turn in the tide of affairs," and we do not perceive any pressing upon the market. Other grains are not mentioned—Blade.

Boston Fish Market.

JULY 18—The market for Codfish is steady, with a moderate demand at last week's prices. Sales of Grand Bank at 5¾; Bay Fundy $4@5.50; Western Bank $4 for small and $5 for large; small $4@4.25 for pits. Hake are selling at $3,87½; Haddock $2.75; Pollock $3,25 ⅌ bbl. Mackerel are firm at late quiet; sales of No 3 at $8 for large, and $6 for medium. Old Mackerel are steady at $11,50@13 for No 1, and $10 for No 2. Large shore are in moderate demand at $4,50@5 ⅌ bbl. Pickled Herring are dull at $3,50 @3 ⅌ bbl. In Salmon sales of 70 tierces ordinary at $6@6.25 ⅌ tierce.—Com. Bulletin.

Baltimore Grain Market.

JULY 18—There was very little Grain on Change, the unfavorable weather during the past few days interfering with shipments. Sales were light, and prices irregular. Corn and Wheat closing lower. Nominal quotations were as follows: Inferior to fair white Wheat $1,50@1,65; good to prime do at $1,70@1,75; choice do $1,75@1,80; common to very choice Southern red $1,40@1,53, and Pennsylvania do $1,40@1,50 per bushel. White Corn 81@85c, as to quality; yellow do 81@86c per bushel. Maryland Oats 78@83c weight, and Rye $1,10@1,12 per bushel. —Sun.

Philadelphia Market.

JULY 20—The offerings of Wheat are very small, but there is very little inquiry for it. Sales of Red, in a small way at $1,40@1,42 ⅌ bushel and a choice lot of amber at $1,43@1,45. White ranges from $1,50 to to $1,55. Rye is worth $1,03@1,05. The supply of Corn, although small, is fully up to the demand. Sales of yellow at 86c. Oats are selling at 77@80c, weight. Prices of Barley and Malt are nominal.

Clovarseed is scarce and may be quoted at $5,50@5,75 ⅌ 64 lbs. Timothy ranges from $2,25 to $2,75 ⅌ bushel. There is little or no Flaxseed coming in.

Whisky is unchanged. Small sales of Penna and Ohio barrels at 47@47½c, and drudge at 46c.

Baltimore Coffee Market.

JULY 15—Rio was extremely dull during the early part of the week, but towards the close we notice some inquiry for western markets. Of either description the supply is limited to small lots in second hands. Transactions reported are confined to 200 bags good Rio at 29c, and 100 bags prime do at 30c ⅌ lb. To-day we have only to note a sale of 50 bags common Rio at 28c ⅌ lb. We quote Rio as to quality at 28@30c, Laguayra at 31@31½c, and Java at 37c ⅌ lb.

Cleveland Market.

JULY 20—Flour—Sales of 300 bbls XX red at $5,35 and 100 bbls do at $5,55. Wheat—Market quiet, inactive and fully 2c lower. Sales 2000 bush red f o b at 109c. The receipts are quite light. Corn—Nothing done in either car or shelled. Asking rates are unchanged. Oats—Quotable as before at 46c on track, with sale of 1 car. Rye—Nominal at 80c.

Imports by Railroad.

CASE OF DANIEL A. BOYD.

PITTSBURGH, December 31, 1862

DR. O. H. ENTERS:—I take pleasure in making this voluntary statement in favor of a medicine prepared by you called "LINDSEY'S BLOOD SEARCHER." I had suffered for five years with Scrofula, which broke out on my head and forehead so as to disfigure me very much, and took off the hair when the disease made its appearance; it also broke out on my arm above and below the elbow, and eat into the skin and flesh so as to expose a fearful sore. The disease on my head went so far that several small pieces of bone came out. I was very weak and low spirited, and had given up all hope of ever getting well, as I had tried several skillful physicians and they did me no good. In September last, 1861, I was induced to try "LINDSEY'S IMPROVED BLOOD SEARCHER." I must confess I had no faith in patent medicines, but after I had used three bottles of Blood Searcher, the ulcers on my head and arm began to heal. I have now taken eight or ten bottles, and my head and arm are entirely well except the scars remaining from the sores. I will also state that I had the rheumatism very bad in my arms and legs. The Blood Searcher also cured the rheumatism. I am now a well man; over forty years of age, and I feel as supple and young as I did when I was twenty, and have increased in weight twenty pounds. I would also state that the disease in my forehead was so bad that when he stooped and lifted anything heavy, the blood ran out of the sore. Dr. Keyser had a photograph taken of me by Mr. Cargo, the artist, after I began to get well. It does not show my appearance as bad as it was before I commenced taking the medicines. You can see the photograph, one of which is now in my possession, and also at Dr. Keyser's, 140 Wood street. I would also state that I took the Blood Searcher which was made before Dr. Keyser commenced making it. Although it helped me some, I did not get over first until I got the kind made by Dr. Keyser himself. One bottle of his did me more good than two of the old. I believe it is a great deal cheaper and better. I have recommended the Blood Searcher to a great many of my friends for various diseases, and I believe it has helped the whole of them. You may publish this if you wish, and I am anxious that all who are afflicted as I was may be cured. I live in this city, No. 4 Pine street, and am employed as Colville & Anderson's Union Marble Works, 54 Wayne street.

A BLIND MAN CURED.

I live in Sligo, at Clinton Mill, and have been nearly blind in both eyes for nearly four years. I called on Dr. Keyser about three months ago, and asked him if he could give me a prescription for the relief of Rheumatism. He told me that I need not go to Pittsburgh to get well; as he had medicine that would cure me, as he finally cured one I was in the block. I was treated for two or three times in the hospital in this city, and was relieved, but my Rheumatism returned after a month or two after I came out of the hospital. I found my eyes were returning and I called, by the advice of a friend of mine, on Dr. Keyser, who has restored my sight, and my eyes are nearly as well as ever. The Doctor gave me "LINDSEY'S BLOOD SEARCHER," and a package of

A BAD SORE LEG CURED.

PITTSBURGH, July 15, 1861.—I hereby certify that I have had a sore leg for over 11 years, covered with sores and scurvy on that I could not work for more than a day together. I was unable to get anything for a long time, but was finally induced to try Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher. I had suffered for five years with Scrofula, which broke out on my head and forehead so as to disfigure me very much, and took off the hair when the disease made its appearance; it also broke out on my arm above and below the elbow, and eat into the skin and flesh so as to expose a fearful sore.
