Pittsburgh Gazette. SATURDAY MORNING, AUG. 1.

The Union State Convention As originally appointed, the Union State Convention was to meet in this city on the lat of July; but owing to the fact that most of the delegates were at that time absent in the service of their country, aiding to drive the rebel invaders from the State, the Central Committee held a meeting in Philadelphia, on Wednesday, June 24th, and calling P. FRAZES SMITH, Esq., to the Chair. (General MARKLE being unavoidably absent,) passed the following resolution: setup.d. That is the present smarghary, whi's many dategrate to the Union State Convention are ensynding appointed to be high same to be present at the ist of lut part, it is demaking pullent to par-pone the 'covenion until Wadeway, the 5th day of angut mart, at 11 octock a. m., and it is hereby protponed until that time.
