LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

From Yesterday's Evening Gazette.

Pittsburgh Sanitary Committee.

We invite the special attention of all contributors and contributing societies to the following rules for continued systematic effort in behalf of the sick and wounded of our armies. An experience of more than two years, and extending to every army in the field, has shown the necessity of having large reserve stocks either at or within reach of all threatened points.

All individual contributions should, when practicable, be made to local societies. It is unnecessary to ask what is especially needed—common sense will find what is useful in the care of the sick and wounded men; an excess of any ordinary class of articles cannot occur.

Societies should endeavor, as much as possible, to make regular shipments to the depots, at which alone goods can be assorted, arranged and shipped in exact accordance with the demand of the army at different points.

The number of these depots cannot be increased, and goods cannot be received otherwise than through them, without causing unnecessary expense and trouble to the Commission, not without a diminution of their value. For instance, those who have lately sent their goods to Washington, without orders in many cases, may now forces the Commission to hold them idle or to reassort and repack and retransport them northward, when, quite possibly, they consist of goods super ably called for at this moment in Boston, or New York, or Louisville, for transmission to Port Royal, Port Hudson, or Vicksburg.

Letters and contributions may be sent to either of the offices of the Commission, which are fixed at the following points, with simple reference to the greatest convenience and economy of doing the common work: Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Buffalo, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Columbus, Chicago, Louisville.

The following donations have been received at the rooms, 59 Fourth street, during the week ending Saturday, August 1st, 1863:

Rowdyism Last Night.

There was unusual rowdyism in the city last night. At Savage's drinking saloon, near the Pennsylvania Railroad Station, a gang of fellows, some of them drunk, fell upon and beat a man named McFetridge, at the same time stealing his pocket book, and four five dollar bills. McFetridge had, during the day, received his pay from his employer, and the "roughs" knowing it, endeavored to get him drunk, but in this they failed.

At Seventh and Smithfield streets, four fellows, one of whom was drunk, fell upon a soldier who had just arrived on the night train, and clubbed him. The rowdies tried to search the soldier's pockets, but did not succeed. The soldier managed to get off, but was chased to the Eagle Hotel, on Liberty street, where he stopped. The roughs also assaulted another soldier whom they found stopping at the Eagle Hotel.

A gang of rowdies (about half a dozen) about two o'clock this morning, also broke six large panes of glass in the bulk window of a bakery, kept by Paul Stoelzing, 145 Smithfield street.

At T. & J. McQuiston's paint shop, 155 Smithfield street, the rowdies also smashed in several panes of glass with a stick of wood. While one set were breaking in the windows, other parties were across the street and on Sixth street, singing, dancing and making a great noise. The people in this neighborhood were mostly afraid to come out of their houses.

A number of drunken fellows, who seemed to have a rendezvous in the cellar of No. 85 Diamond alley, (at a restaurant kept by Nathan Bernhardt,) last night, kept up a constant noise and disturbance from eleven o'clock to nearly four o'clock this morning. It is said that Bernhardt keeps his drinking saloon without a license, and that at least two constables overlook affairs at his establishment on account of free drinks furnished them.

About midnight, nearly a dozen roughs came upon two travellers from Cresson, who were returning down St. Clair street to the St. Clair Hotel. One of the villians got hold of one of the travellers and tried to steal money from his pocket, but did not succeed. The travellers managed to escape to the hotel, where they were followed by five of the fellows. Here another fight took place, in which one of the travellers had his hat torn. The combatants were at last separated, and the roughs went across the street, where they called for the traveller to come out and fight them. But not succeeding in having another fight, the rascals went to work and threw stones at the hotel windows, breaking four panes of glass on St. Clair street, and four on Penn street. They then went up Penn street.

No satisfactory explanation can be given for this seemingly concerted plan to disturb the peace of the city.

The Hog Ordinance in Allegheny.

The boys are doing a flourishing business in Allegheny, under the proclamation of the Mayor, prohibiting the running at large of hogs in the streets. The boys are at liberty to seize all hogs found upon the streets, and drive them off to the pound; and any person interfering with them, are liable to a fine. The boys get twenty-five cents a head for every porker captured, and a large number have already been impounded. It is amusing to witness the scenes transpiring at the pound, where the owners have to pay a redemption fund of seventy-five cents for each hog. If not redeemed, the animals are confiscated, and sent to the city Poor Farm.

Prof. Kidd.

This gentleman, as usual, is winning golden opinions as a teacher of the elocutionary arts. His class in the Excelsior Institute now numbers near a hundred members, and is still increasing. The Professor has, at the solicitation of his numerous friends, consented to give another of his amusing and instructive entertainments, which we understand will come off on next Friday evening, at Masonic Hall.

FARMS AND COUNTRY SEATS AT HARLEWOOD STATION.—A very important sale of valuable property on the Monongahela river and Connellsville railroad, in the immediate vicinity of our city, will be made on the premises by Davis & McIlwaine, auctioneers, next Saturday afternoon. The sale embraces about 90 acres of the best land in the county, subdivided into various sized country sites and small farms, unsurpassed in all advantages. Also, a manufacturing site of 10 acres, which will be sold entire, or in less quantities. This sale is particularly worthy of attention from those thinking to purchase property. A special train will take, free of charge, all wishing to attend the sale. See auction advertisement.

ARRESTS.—There were four arrests yesterday, for disorderly conduct. Two were for unions.

Prayers for Thanksgiving.

Bishop Potter, of the Episcopal Church, has directed the following prayers to be observed on the day appointed by the President as a day of joyful thanksgiving and praise for bountiful harvests, and for the victories vouchsafed to our armies:

Almighty and Everlasting God, who art the Author and Giver of all good things, who visitest the earth and blessest it, crowning the year with Thy goodness, and giving to all their meat in due season, we praise and bless Thee for Thy unbounded kindness to the people of this land. Our fathers hoped in Thee. They trusted in Thee, and Thou didst deliver them. We thank Thee, O Lord our God, for the goodly heritage which we enjoy, and for the blessings unbounded, both temporal and spiritual, which, through Thy patience and long suffering, are still continued to us. We bless Thee for civil and religious liberty, for the administration of justice, and for all the privileges which pertain to us as individuals and families, as Christians and as citizens. Grant that a sense of this Thy great goodness may engage our hearts and lives in Thy service. Give wisdom and strength and union to our public councils. Bless the Governor and magistrates of this Commonwealth, and all who exercise civil or military authority among us. Bless our churches and all our religious institutions. Bring back once more peace and concord to our borders. Increase and multiply upon us Thy mercy, that, Thou being our Ruler and Guide, we may so pass through things temporal that we finally lose not the things eternal. All which we ask through Jesus Christ, our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

O Almighty God, the Sovereign Commander of all the world, in whose hand is power and might which none is able to withstand, we bless and magnify Thy great and glorious Name for these happy victories, the whole glory whereof we would ascribe to Thee, who are the only giver of victory. And, we beseech Thee, give us grace to improve this great mercy to Thy glory, the advancement of Thy Gospel, the honor of our country, and, as much as in us lieth, to the good of all mankind. Imprint deeply on our hearts such a lively and lasting sense of these great deliverances as may incite us to a true thankfulness, such as may appear in our lives by an humble, holy and obedient walking before Thee all our days, through Jesus Christ, our Lord, to whom with Thee and the Holy Spirit, as for all Thy mercies so in particular for these victories, be all glory and honor, world without end. Amen.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY AND ROBBERY.—Last night an aggravated assault and battery was committed by three men, on William McFetridge, while at John Savage's drinking saloon, corner of Eighth and Liberty streets, near the Pennsylvania Railroad station. McFetridge was, at the same time, robbed of a pocket book containing twenty dollars.

LATE TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

[FROM OUR EVENING EDITION.]

THE POSITION OF LEE'S ARMY.

Our Wounded at Gettysburg.

RECONNOISSANCE TO LITTLE WASHINGTON.

Desperate Condition of the Rebels

MAJ. GEN. M'CLERNAND.

Jeff. Davis' Prospective Negro Army.

THE REBEL GENERAL EVANS.

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—A Times dispatch from Washington, Aug. 3, says:—It is again asserted on the most undoubted authority, that the main body of Lee's army is encamped between Rapidan station and Orange Court House. It is positively known that this was the position of the rebel army on Wednesday last. Lee's real depot of supplies is at Gordonsville, but the latter point is now the place of distribution.

Two divisions of Longstreet's corps now occupy Culpepper.

It is officially stated that the total number of the Union wounded in the three day's battles at Gettysburg, is about 14,000. A fraction over two thousand wounded still remain in the hospitals.

The Herald's correspondence, dated Sperryville, August 1st, says: The Fourth Pennsylvania regiment of cavalry was dispatched by Gen. Gregg, yesterday morning, upon a reconnoissance.

At Little Washington, twelve miles from here, they encountered a company of rebel cavalry, about one hundred strong, and drove them through the town, capturing a private of the Second Virginia, who had been directed, by an order from Gen. Fitz-hugh Lee, to purchase bacon and flour for the brigade in the vicinity of Waterford, Loudon county.

It was ascertained that a brigade of rebel cavalry was posted between Little Washington and Springville.

The private captured had in his possession some correspondence indicating that the rebels are in a very desperate condition, and bitterly bewailing the error of their recent raid into Maryland, and Pennsylvania, and predicting that if the war should much longer be waged, Lee's army will be starved to death in the mountains.

The Herald dispatch says: Gen. McClernand having been relieved from the command of the 13th army corps, and ordered to remain inactive in the State of Illinois, has tendered his immediate and unconditional resignation of the office of Major General of United States Volunteers. The General is unwilling to hold a commission and receive pay from the Government without an opportunity of serving his country in a position appropriate to his rank.

The secessionists here are making themselves happy over the report that Jefferson Davis is about to raise a great army of negroes on the promise of freedom and lands to them. Large slaveholders in this region, express the opinion that he will venture on so much policy in fact, he dares not trust the slaves.

It will be remembered that the remark was attributed to Mr. Lincoln at the date of his first essay of his emancipation scheme. He had reason to believe that the rebel government was looking to the same thing, and might be before him in the movement.

A rebel prisoner of rank was brought to this city some time ago, and as the story went, he was thought to be Gen. Evans, of Bull's Bluff fame. Later revelations from the South have it that he assembled all sorts of scrapers in the neighborhood of Leesburg. Among other things he destroyed the property in and about several of the finest mansions and grounds in that vicinity. He is the only General on either side who has indulged in wholesale vandalism.

Terrible Earthquake at Manilla.

ONE-HALF OF THE CITY RUINED.

Two Thousand Lives Lost.

Indemnity for the Murder of Richardson, in Japan.

REFUSAL TO GIVE UP THE MURDERERS.

WAR INEVITABLE WITH JAPAN.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—A late arrival from Hong Kong says that a terrible earthquake occurred at Manilla, June 3d, ruining half the city and damaging every building. Two thousand lives were lost.

The bark Ford, from Kagakowga, Japan, June 24th, has arrived. The Japanese Government had paid four hundred thousand dollars indemnity for the murder of Richardson, but refused to surrender the murderers, alleging them to be subjects of Prince Satsuma, who refused to give them up. The Government proceeded its inability to take them forcibly.

The British Admiral proposed to proceed to Satsuma's principality and take them. The government declined, and contended that it would be essentially war upon Japan. Negotiations concerning the murderers are still pending. Foreign residents are very apprehensive that war is inevitable.

Rioting in Iowa--Collision between the Copperheads and Unionists

MUSCATINE, IOWA, Aug. 4.—The Journal, of to-day, has the following: A collision occurred between the Copperheads and Unionists in South English, Keokuk county, on Saturday. About fifty shots were fired. A man named Folly, leader of the Copperheads, and two others were killed. The Copperheads were driven out of the town.

LATER.—The Sheriff reached here to-day from Davenport for military assistance. He reports that the insurgents number fifteen hundred, and are continually increasing. They claim to be four thousand strong in the county and are all armed and full of fight.

The people of Washington are reported to be much alarmed for the safety of their town.

Wm. L. Yancey Dead--Jno. B. Floyd Ill.

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—The Richmond Whig has the following:

Montgomery, July 29.—The funeral of the late Wm. L. Yancey took place this afternoon.

The Whig, of August 1st, says that John B. Floyd is very ill, and not expected to recover.
