Conscription and Mercenaries. There is a great error encouraged by the press, in regard to drafts...

There is a great error encouraged by the press, in regard to drafts, which is at the present the popular dissatisfaction, so cunningly fomented by the Copperheads...

The fact stated was historically false, and the inference equally so. The war of the Revolution was carried on by forced levies...

But in point of fact, it admits of no reasonable doubt that the southern states, from forced and often excessive labor, from arbitrary and often oppressive punishments...

Every aggression, every act of injustice committed by a Northern man against an African American, is an act of aggression against the Union...

THE FREEDMEN OF THE SOUTH.

Preliminary Report of the American Freedmen's Inquiry Commission

The Commissioners appointed by the Government to inquire into and report upon the condition of the Freedmen, the War and the President's Proclamation have so far completed their labors...

The problem, in the resolution of which the Commission has been called to aid, is of a mixed character. Together with obvious and inevitable considerations of humanity, it involves great questions of Christian civility and citizenship...

The observations of the Commission in the previous report, which were based upon the testimony of the Freedmen themselves, have been supplemented by the testimony of the white people...

But in point of fact, it admits of no reasonable doubt that the southern states, from forced and often excessive labor, from arbitrary and often oppressive punishments...
