free yourselves from participating in their guilt.

Irishmen, I call on you to join in orashing Slavery, and in giving Liberty to every man of every easte, creed or color. Signed by order, DARIEL O CORRELLY

IRISH HARVESTS .- This is said to be the first MARVESTS.—This is said to be tas-first year since 1846 that the potato blight-hae not appeared in Ireland. The harvest generally is reported better than it has been for several years past. This fact, however, is not retarding emigration, and the peasantry are crowding the ships that sail for America.
