CITY AFFAIRS.

OUR OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

Another Visit from Mr. Murdoch.

Our readers will be gratified to learn that Mr. James E. Murdoch, the eminent elocutionist, will visit this city on Saturday next, and will deliver a free lecture at Masonic Hall, on the evening of that day. The subject of his address will be "Principles, not Party." In the course of the evening he will read "The Appeal of the Army of the West to the People of the West." At the close, donations will be received for the benefit of the Sanitary Commission, in such sums as the audience may choose to give. Mr. Murdoch's object is to help the cause of his country by disseminating sound political principles, and contributing as largely as possible to the wants of "our country's defenders"—the noble soldiers of the Union armies.

Mr. Murdoch, at last accounts, was in Boston, where he had taken part in the Thanksgiving Celebration at Tremont Temple—reciting "The Oath," "The Flag," and "The Defenders!" The effect was electrical, and the recitations were received with rapturous applause. In the evening he delivered his "Union Address," with great success.

The distinguished reader and lecturer has been greeted, both east and west, by large and highly intelligent audiences, and his addresses have been received with the highest marks of appreciation. His appeals are replete with true eloquence and soul-stirring patriotism, and never fail to fire the heart of the most listless or indifferent hearer. He is engaged in a grand and noble work, and we are rejoiced to learn that his labors are everywhere crowned with success. Masonic Hall will doubtless be crowded to its utmost capacity on Saturday evening next, by those capable of appreciating his patriotic inspirations, and at the same time desirous of an opportunity to contribute to the promotion of the best interests of those brave men who, in the language of Mr. Murdoch, "stand as a living wall between us and our enemies."

U. S. District Court.

AUGUST 12.—The Grand Jury presented the following true bills this morning:

United States vs. Robert Ferrine, James Robertson and Mrs. Eliza Klein, for obstructing the draft.

United States vs. C. Hanson Love, for making and issuing tokens.

United States vs. D. H. Fralich, for making and issuing tokens.

United States vs. Joseph Lang, for making and issuing tokens.

United States vs. Richard Straw, for making and issuing tokens.

United States against L. J. Blanchard, for making and issuing tokens.

Same against the Monongahela Bridge Company, for making and issuing checks.

Same against Northern Liberties Bridge Company, for making and issuing checks.

Same against Allegheny Bridge Company, for making and issuing checks.

Same against Barney Trainer, for perjury.

D. B. Hogue, of Hugus & Hacke, plead guilty to the charge of making and issuing tokens. Sentenced to pay a fine of one dollar and costs of prosecution.

F. Bellstein plead guilty of the same offense, and was similarly sentenced.

Mecrum & Glyde plead guilty of the same offense, and were similarly sentenced.

The Income Tax.

The subscriber sends us the following note:

"Does that part of the excise law relating to incomes, mean that three per cent. shall be assessed for ten thousand dollars, and five per cent. for all over that amount—or does it mean that, if a man's income should be ten thousand and five dollars, he would have to pay five per cent. on the whole amount; but if nine thousand nine hundred and ninety-five dollars, then only three per cent. on the whole amount?"

Section ninety of the revenue law provides that, in case the annual gains, profits or income exceed six hundred dollars, and do not exceed ten thousand dollars, a duty of three per cent., on the amount over six hundred dollars shall be paid. If the income exceeds ten thousand, a duty of five per cent. upon the amount exceeding six hundred dollars. In other words, if a man's income is ten thousand and five dollars, he is liable to a tax of five per cent. upon the whole amount, less the deduction of six hundred dollars. If the income be nine thousand nine hundred and ninety five, the tax is but three per cent. It strikes us, however, that the law is so clear that it cannot be mistaken, however much the matter of five dollars may increase or diminish the amount of the tax.

Thompson Again Arrested.

The notorious deserter and swindler, Geo. W. Thompson, with whose history our readers are already familiar, and whose last escape was noticed in our columns a few days ago, has turned up again at Wheeling. He was arrested there on Tuesday, by Sergeant Herald, who encountered him at the depot and recognized him at once. Thompson drew a knife and threatened to kill the Sergeant, but was induced to abandon that idea by suddenly coming in contact with a well charged revolver. When he found he could do nothing by his hostile demonstrations he offered the Sergeant twenty dollars to release him. This expedient also failed and Thompson is now lying in the Athenæum with a ball and chain attached to his leg. At the time of his arrest he was ornamented with a pair of 1st Lieutenant's shoulder straps.

City Mortality.

The number of deaths in this city, from Aug. 1st to Aug. 25th, as reported by Dr. A. G. McCandless, physician to the Board of Health, is as follows:

WARD AND HAMILL.—Ward declines to row Hamill anywhere else than on the Hudson. He says he is not particular who is champion, but so far as he is concerned he will not row all over the country for the title. He thinks he has no advantage on the Hudson, and only names it as the best place in the United States for an aquatic contest. It is no doubt the best place for him, as he is evidently afraid to meet his challengers anywhere else. He ought to be styled "the champion of the Hudson."

FINE FURNITURE, CHICKERING PIANO, &c.—At the dwelling, No. 147 Fourth street, will be sold, this morning at 10 o'clock, by Davis & McIlwaine, auctioneers, the entire household furnishment of fashionable and very superior furniture, carpets, silver plate, &c. Also a superior Chickering piano, book case, &c. This sale embraces an unusually large and valuable assortment of fine furniture.

DISCHARGED.—Cyrenius Sweesy, of Co. D, 139th Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers, was, yesterday, discharged from service on application, by his mother, for a writ of habeas corpus. He was seventeen years of age, and was in the custody of Capt. R. S. Wright, for desertion.

SIXTH WARD COUNCIL UNION LEAGUE.—Col. J. B. Clark will address an open meeting of the Union League this (Thursday) evening, at 8 o'clock, in the M. E. Church, Pennsylvania Avenue. The patriotic and loyal citizens are cordially invited to attend.

INQUEST.—The Coroner yesterday held an inquest on the body of Jacob Beader, residing on Virgin alley between Smithfield and Wood streets. The deceased died suddenly on Tuesday, most probably from the bursting of a large blood-vessel near the heart. The verdict was, died from disease of the heart.

OMNIBUS AND CARRIAGE CALLS will be taken at the Omnibus office, No. 405 Liberty street, day or night. All orders left at the above place will be promptly attended to. All calls must be paid in advance. 6m.

Grand Union Pic-Nic.

Our readers will please bear in mind that the ladies of St. James Catholic Church, Temperanceville, will hold this day a grand pic-nic in the beautiful grounds known as Lorenz's Grove, near Temperanceville, the proceeds of which are to be applied to the external improvement of the church in that borough. We bespeak for those who may attend a day of unusual pleasure and enjoyment, as the ladies having the matter in hand are determined that the pic-nic shall equal if not surpass any that has been held this season. We trust that the many friends and admirers of the pastor of the congregation, Rev. Mr. Carroll, will turn out en masse, and second by their presence the very laudable exertions of the ladies having the matter in charge. Jones' steam ferry leaves for the ground every ten minutes, by which arrangement all desirous of attending will be afforded ample opportunity so to do. If you wish to enjoy a pleasant day, we say attend the pic-nic to be given at Lorenz's Grove this day.

OUR SPECIAL DISPATCHES.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12, 1863.

GEN. FRANK BLAIR.

Gen. Frank Blair arrived here to-day, accompanied by a portion of his staff. He had an interview with the President this afternoon. Gen. Blair's recent speech in St. Louis excites much commeat in government circles. It is of course regarded with favor by Seward and his wing. It is an earnest support of the Administration, however, and especially all who have regarded the President's Emancipation Proclamation as something more than a joke believe that any attempt now to ignore it would be as base as it would be illegal. In regard to Blair's course of completely identifying him with the copperheads, already becomes apparent, and that mode of reconstruction of the Union is to form the main question in the next Congress, and to constitute the dividing line between the Union men and the Opposition.

THE SURRENDER OF WINCHESTER.

A Court of Inquiry, Major Gen. Hitchcock president, is investigating the surrender of Winchester, and Gen. Milroy's conduct there.

NECESSITY OF CAVALRY IN THE SOUTHWEST.

Gen. Halleck opposes Rosecran's effort to secure orders for the organization of a cavalry and mounted infantry force to operate against guerrillas in the Southwest. Rosecrans has sent official letters to Halleck and Stanton, and an official one to the President, representing the urgent necessity of raising such force. Senators Cowan and Harris and Gen. Moorhead, now here, warmly favor it, and are expected to make an appeal to the President on the subject to-morrow.

ALL A FARCE.

Gov. Tod has arrived here, but the great convocation of distinguished men, we were to have, has not accompanied him. In short, the whole story about his portentious business, and the speculation based on it, in the tory New York papers, are a farce. He is here to see about paying the militia, called out during Morgan's raid.

FROM PHILADELPHIA.

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 12, 1863.

There is nothing special from the Army of the Potomac or Charleston to-night.

The first negro regiment, Col. Thigman, commanding, will leave Philadelphia to-morrow morning. They will embark on the steamer Cambria and Star of the South. The complement of officers is not full. The companies are full and well drilled. Its destination is Charleston, S. C.

Charles Ridley, colored, a sentinel of the camp, who shot William Fox, a few nights since, whom he supposed was about to make an attack upon him, was surrendered to the sheriff of Montgomery county this afternoon, under advices received from Washington. He had warned Fox several times before he fired the musket.

Rumored Uprising of the Secessionists in California—Trouble in the Southern Counties.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 11.—The state is full of rumors of the contemplated rising of the secessionists, consequently there is an uneasy feeling in public business circles. On the 6th an affray occurred at Visalia, a small town in Tulare county, between secessionists and the soldiers stationed there. One of the latter was killed and several of the former wounded. Thirty-six shots were exchanged. Tulare and the adjoining counties in the southern part of the State contain numerous secessionists.

At Vesalia great excitement prevails. Some Union citizens organized a Home Guard, and others pursued parties who had fired at a soldier. A soldier's house was burned down on the night of the 7th, which exasperated both the Unionists and Secessionists, each accusing the other of the deed. Gen. Wright, military commander at San Francisco, ordered that all the spare arms among the soldiers at Visalia be distributed among the loyal citizens, and dispatched troops and cavalry from Owen's river to Vesalia to-day.

Rumors are current of a secession outbreak in Santa Clara and Salina counties, north and south of the bay, respectively. Both counties have large secess elements. Both reports are disbelieved, but their ready circulation creates alarm.

Gen. Wright telegraphed some days since to Washington for permission to begin immediately the new defenses of San Francisco, costing one hundred thousand dollars, but received no reply. Last night the City Supervisor voted to give the city guarantee of repayment to any person who would advance twenty thousand dollars, to commence the proper fortifications, re-payable by the general government.

Gen. Grant's Vicksburg Campaign.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—The report of the operations of the Army of the Tennessee from the day General Grant assumed the immediate command of the expedition against Vicksburg, until the surrender of that place, published in the Official Gazette. He says that it is a striking feature, so far as his observation goes, of the present volunteer army of the United States, that there is nothing that men are called upon to do, mechanical or professional, that accomplished adepts cannot be found for the duty required.

He cannot close this report without an expression of thankfulness for his good fortune in being placed in co-operation with an officer of the navy, who accorded to every move that seemed for the interest or success of our arms his hearty and energetic support. Admiral Porter, he adds, and every officer of his command, have ever shown the greatest readiness in their co-operation, no matter what was to be done, or what risk to be taken, either by their men or their vessels. Without their prompt and cordial support, my movements would have been much embarrassed, if not wholly defeated.

Return of the Fourth Massachusetts.

CAIRO, Aug. 12.—The Fourth Massachusetts, Lieut. Col. Colby in command, arrived to-day from Fort Hudson, en route for Boston. About sixty of them are sick, but nearly all are able to proceed on their journey. Eight deaths occurred on the passage, as follows: [illegible] H. White, Benj. Eldard, Augustus Sharpner, Joseph Thomas, L. W. Mitchell, A. C. Tinkham, M. C. Algar, W. F. Gill, G. E. Harrub, Ch[illegible] F. Shaw, T. W. Keith, Albert T. Smith, C. [illegible] French, W. H. Peterson, N. A. Washburn, T. H. Glass, H. L. Wart, Wm. Eddy. Part of these were buried at the mouth of White river, part at Helena, and the remainder at Memphis.

The North river steamer North American arrived to-day from New Orleans.

Death of Col. Cornyn.

MEMPHIS, Aug. 10.—During the session of the court martial at Corinth, to-day, an altercation occurred between Col. Cornyn, of the 10th Missouri cavalry, and Lieut. Col. Bowen, of the same regiment. Cornyn is reported to have struck Bowen, when the latter drew a pistol, and shot the former in three places, killing him instantly. There is great excitement among the troops, but no trouble is apprehended.

Gen. Dodge is quite sick.

Attempt to Blow up the Croton Aqueduct.

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—Some miscreants are reported to have been detected in an attempt to blow up the Croton Aqueduct, at Tarrytown, on Monday night. They broke into the powder magazine and stole a keg of powder, which was found with them near the Aqueduct. The evidence being insufficient, the men were released.

Capture of Sutler's Wagons.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—Last night Mosby's guerrillas captured twelve sutler's wagons, a short distance beyond Accotink creek, south of Mt. Vernon. A detachment of Federal troops is pursuing.

Fight Between Two Steamers and the Indians.

CHICAGO, Aug. 12.—A special from St. Paul, says that Dr. Hoyt, who has just returned from the Idaho Gold Mines, says there has been a battle between the passenger steamers Shreveport and Robert Campbell, and the Indians, one hundred miles below Fort Union, on the Missouri river. Twenty-eight of the latter were killed, and a number wounded. Three whites were killed and two wounded.

The boats were on a sand bar, and had two howitzers, and were barricaded by bundles of Buffalo robes.

Hoyt reports that all the Indians this side of the Rocky Mountains hostile, and thinks the expedition of Capt. Fiske will fail.

A letter from Sibley's expedition, dated James River, July 21st, says that a battle is expected with the Indians within two days. It seemed to be the design of the Indians to leave the Prairie, and draw our forces into the hilly country of Missouri, where they would give battle.

Fight Between Two Steamers and the Indians.

CHICAGO, Aug. 12.—A special from St. Paul, says that Dr. Hoyt, who has just returned from the Idaho Gold Mines, says there has been a battle between the passenger steamers Shreveport and Robert Campbell, and the Indians, one hundred miles below Fort Union, on the Missouri river. Twenty-eight of the latter were killed, and a number wounded. Three whites were killed and two wounded.

The boats were on a sand bar, and had two howitzers, and were barricaded by bundles of Buffalo robes.

Hoyt reports that all the Indians this side of the Rocky Mountains hostile, and thinks the expedition of Capt. Fiske will fail.

A letter from Sibley's expedition, dated James River, July 21st, says that a battle is expected with the Indians within two days. It seemed to be the design of the Indians to leave the Prairie, and draw our forces into the hilly country of Missouri, where they would give battle.
