THE SITUATION IN EUROPE.

BOMBARDMENT OF CHARLESTON CONTINUED.

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

Philadelphia, Nov. 3, 1863.

Two escaped prisoners from Liberty prison, Richmond, Va., were reported to have arrived in Philadelphia today. The prisoners were identified as James H. Brown and John H. Smith. They were reported to have been starved and neglected during their captivity in Richmond. The prisoners were taken into custody by the authorities here and are being held in the city prison.

Recruiting in the 23d District.

Recruiting has been actively commencing in this district, and very little has been done. Messrs. C. W. Lewis and James Brown have been appointed as recruiting agents, by the Provost Marshal General, and have their offices at No. 28 Fourth street. They are authorized to enlist either veterans or recruits, and under the regulations they are entitled to a fee of twenty-five dollars for each veteran, and fifteen dollars for every new recruit sent into the service. The applicants must all go before the Board of Examination, and pass a surgical examination, the same as drafted men. They will then be sent out to some depot, and from thence transferred to the army. From this district five dollars, and in two months thereafter they get another instalment. The agents are authorized to recruit from any other district, but they must credit the man to the district from which he was recruited.

Distressing Accident—Girl Drowned.

On Monday several members of the family of Mr. Alexander Cargel residing in the City of Erie, started on a visit to their father, who is employed as mate and watchman on the steam tug Dick Taylor, lying alongside of a fleet of boats in the river.
