THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE
BY TEMPLE, BIGGS & CO.
PITTSBURGH:
FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 26, 1847.

LETTER FROM THE ARMY AT TEHUACAN.

Gen. Scott was not to march with the main body of the army from Puebla on the 10th inst., but on the 11th, and by different routes. Major Lally, with his battalion of marines, was to march with the 2d brigade, under Gen. Worth, on the 11th, and join the main body at Tehuacan.

On the 20th of March, Gen. Scott had the satisfaction of Congress presenting the thanks of Congress, for the victory of Cerro Gordo, and the following general orders from the War Department announced the fact:

WAR DEPARTMENT, March 22d, 1847.

The following joint resolution of Congress is published to the army:

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the thanks of Congress are due, and are hereby tendered to Major General Winfield Scott, and through him to the officers and soldiers of the army under his command, for the fortitude, skill, and gallantry displayed by them in the battles of Cerro Gordo, on the 17th and 18th days of April, 1847, resulting in the capture of the strong fortified position of Cerro Gordo, the dispersion of the enemy's forces, and the capture of their artillery, arms, and munitions of war.

Resolved, That the President of the United States be requested to cause a gold medal to be struck, with suitable devices, and presented to Major General Winfield Scott, in testimony of the high sense entertained by Congress of his gallantry and good conduct in the battles aforesaid.

Resolved, That the President of the United States be requested to cause to be presented to each of the officers of the army under the command of Major General Scott, a sword, with such emblematic devices as may be appropriate to the rank of the officer, and the grade of the corps to which he belongs, in testimony of the high sense entertained by Congress of the gallantry and good conduct of the officers of the army in the battles aforesaid.

Resolved, That the President of the United States be requested to cause to be presented to each of the officers of the army under the command of Major General Scott, a medal, with such devices as may be appropriate to the rank of the officer, and the grade of the corps to which he belongs, in testimony of the high sense entertained by Congress of the gallantry and good conduct of the officers of the army in the battles aforesaid.

Resolved, That the President of the United States be requested to cause to be presented to each of the officers of the army under the command of Major General Scott, a copy of these resolutions, in such manner as he may deem most proper