ing closely upon the heels of our aspiring predecessors—and if we escape their fate, our deliverance must be preceded ANDREW J. FellTER. ANDREW J. FELTER. Mongromery, Hamilton County, Oik. N B.—Those who may not be sequentized with me 1 r to the undersigned, citizens of Mongromery, Hamiltor or 17, Q. they will at any time substration the above statemet by repentance and reformation. Is it not a shame that we, by profes-sion the most enlightened and liberal Republicans on earth, and the most arnepuolicana on earth, and the most ar-dent admirers of the Prince of Peace, sighteen hundred years after the promul-tion of the prince of peace, Wood and Liberty as. eighteen hundred years after the promul-gation of his message of good will, should advocate the decision of national differences by a savage appeal to the sword? If victory nocessarily perched upon the banners of those who have right on their side, there might be found in this consideration some apology. But generally it is not on the side of right, Bederative it is not on the state of right, but on that of might. The ablest men and the best enginery of death, usually prevail. It is might that provails; and how very seldom physical might is iden-tified with moral right, the history of the world abundantly proves. If right al. world abundantly proves. If right al ways triumphed, there would be no such
