THE POST OFFICE LAW.

NEWSPAPER POSTAGE.

The Postmaster General has been compelled from respect to Public Opinion and the Press, to enter into an explanation and apology of his erroneous construction of the law of Congress prohibiting the transmission of newspapers to non-subscribers. Hereafter all newspapers from the office of publication will be sent without pre-payment of postage. The design of the law, and its correct construction, authorizes no other interpretation, and we are, therefore, glad to read the following in the Union of June 12, prefixed to the law and published by authority of the Postmaster General:

"Though it was evidently the intent of Congress to continue the policy of favoring publishers as well as subscribers, yet, as it would be impossible for the postmasters to decide who were or were not subscribers, the Postmaster General has felt it his duty to instruct postmasters to forward in the mails, without prepayment, all newspapers coming from the office of publication.

Handbills and circulars require pre-payment, as do all newspapers not sent from the offices where they are printed.

Indiana State Debt.

The GOVERNOR of Indiana has appointed Mr. B. Palmer Trustee for the State. This gentleman with Mr. Butler of N. Y. and Thomas H. Blake, of Terre Haute will meet at Fort Wayne this week and give orders for the immediate completion of the Wabash and Erie Canal.

The law of Indiana converting her entire Bonded Debt into new transferable stocks, and providing for the interest thereon, having now been carried out by the required subscription of the loan,—payment of the first installation thereon and the surrender of Bonds,—it will be interesting at this time to give a summary of the arrangement and showing the different descriptions of stocks into which the old Bonds are to be converted, and which will hereafter represent the public debt of the State. Under this arrangement for each Bond and its accrued interest the holder will receive:—

1. For one-half the principal a certificate for $500 bearing interest at five per cent. payable half yearly, commencing in July, 1847; four per cent. in cash, and one per cent. funded to 1853; after 1853 the whole payment in cash.

2. For one half of the back interest a certificate for $150 bearing interest at the rate of 2½ per cent. after 1853. The stocks are payable by the State.

3. For the other half of the principal a certificate for $500, bearing five per cent. interest after the 1st of Jan., 1847.

4. For the other half of the back interest a certificate of $150, bearing five per cent. interest after 1st January, 1853. These stocks are payable out of the revenues of the Canal. There will then exist, after the creation of these stocks in the market, the following debt and stocks pertaining to the State of Indiana:—

1. Indiana Bonds, as now existing, so long as they not converted. 2. The Indiana Canal Loan, bearing six per cent. interest, issued for the eight hundred thousand dollar loan. 3. The Indiana State five per cent. stock, issued for half the principal. 4. The Indiana State two-and-a-half per cent. stock, issued for half the interest. 5. The Indiana Canal five per cent. preferred stock, issued for half the principal to subscribers. 6. The Indiana Special five per cent. preferred stock, issued for half the interest to subscribers. 7. The Indiana Canal five per cent. deferred stock, issued for half the principal to non-subscribers. 8. The Indiana special five per cent. deferred stock, issued for half the interest to non-subscribers.

The Canal Stock issued to subscribers to the loan will be called "Preferred Canal Stock," and be first paid, both principal and interest, out of the Canal revenues, before any payment of either will be made upon the Canal Stock issued to non-subscribers. The right of all bondholders to subscribe to the loan of eight hundred thousand dollars, and receive preferred Canal Stock, continues until the first of November next; but there is no limit to the time within which bondholders may surrender bonds for the other stocks; it is, however, provided, that bonds surrendered after any such payment will not be entitled to cash payments for any part of the accrued interest up to the date of such surrender will be funded into the stock designated above as Indiana State 2½ per cent. and Indiana 5 per cent. Special Stock. Thus, in order to receive the cash payment of interest 1st July next, the bonds must be funded prior to that time, and in January next, and so on progressively, the difference being in the value of ten dollars in a 2½ per cent. stock drawing interest after 1853, and in that amount of cash.—The first semi-annual cash payment of interest, being two per cent. on the stock designated as Indiana State Fives will be made in New York by the State agent, on the 1st day of July next, and as each bond yields five hundred dollars of this description of stock, it amounts to ten dollars on each.

A PUBLIC PARK.—It is not practicable for the authorities of Pittsburgh to secure some place within the city limits for a public Park or Mall? Whatever the expense, it is desirable, and in the end will prove economical. The People of Pittsburgh are all hardworking, industrious citizens, with but little time to go abroad. It is due to those thus confined that some public place should be selected for recreation, some spot where as much of the blue sky and green earth may be seen as is practicable with our smoky atmosphere,—where green trees may relieve the dull monotony of bricks and mortar, and where, perchance, some sweet songster may build his nest and sing some other notes than those issuing from the restless machinery of our workshops. The cities of the East all have their Parks and public grounds, but here there is not a foot hold, that we know of, not devoted to business. Surely even in our working days some other divinity than Mammon is worthy of worship. Abroad, Paris has its Tuilleries and Mont Matre, London its Regents, St. James and Hyde Parks, Edinburgh its Abbey and Arthur's Seat, Dublin its Phœnix and other Parks, and every city we know of from the Bay of Biscay to the Baltic Sea some pleasant public Park. Pittsburgh is the only exception we know of, for a city of its wealth and size, and we hope it will not always be so. The advantages are not for the eye alone. Manchester has become a pest house for want of places to breathe in, and no manufacturing city should be without the freest ventilation.

[illegible] becoming more and more in love with the tariff of 1846. The British House of Lords were charmed with Mr. Walker's report in favor of free trade, and Mr. Pakenham, the British Minister, we see, congratulates his Government, in a letter dated the 29th of March, upon the adjournment of Congress without any addition having been made to the rates of duties. He expresses the conviction, too, that, owing to the increased importations of British goods,—"a matter of great interest to England,"—and the consequent increase of revenue, with comparative statements of which he had been kindly furnished by Secretary Walker, that there is very little danger to be apprehended, by its British beneficiaries, of any material change hereafter. All of which is no doubt a very proper subject of congratulation for Sir Richard Pakenham and Her Majesty's Government, but with us there is no such cause of congratulation. The act is eminently Anti-American, and is also a very proper subject of boasting for a British Parliament, as well the British Minister, and particularly so for the Administration at Washington.

The Providence Journal says the effect of the Tariff in that city has been to bring into the market cotton goods of English manufacture. They are very cheap and very poor, about one third of the fabric being starch or some similar substance. More miserable goods for texture and durability have not lately been seen.

TRUTH.—Mr. Benton, in a recent speech at St Louis, gave utterance to the following sentiment, which is worthy the attention of all men. We regret, however, not to concur with the Senator from Missouri in the estimate he gives of his own political patriotism. No man was more bitterly opposed by words to the annexation of Texas than himself, and yet when his party vote was necessary to carry the measure, he gave it, and with it a power to the President of the United States, to consummate all the evil which has grown out of that ill judged and dangerous act. But Mr. Benton's sentiment is a good one, though it shows the world wide difference between profession and practice:

"On proper subjects, when party principles are applicable, I am found close enough to the party line. When principles do not apply,—when the subject is either too large or too small for party—when a foreign war or domestic disunion is the question, or a poor clerk or laborer is to be turned out of employment—on such great and such little subjects as these, I choose rather to act in the character of a patriot who feels for his country, and a man who feels for his fellow man."

BOSTON TOASTS.—At the 209th anniversary of the Boston, Ancient and Honorable Artillery, Judge Woodbury made a speech in favor of christian soldiers as illustrated in the lives of such men as Whitfield who consecrated the victorious banner at Louisburg, and Miles Standish at the head of a band of armed soldiers, among the pilgrims.—The following are among the toasts of the occasion:

The Three Schools founded by our Forefathers—The school of the people, the school of the prophets, and the school of the soldier—they form a three-fold band that cannot be broken.

Mr. Buckingham, of the Courier, gave—The Old Cradle of Liberty—May it never be perverted from its original use—not to soothe babies to sleep, but to waken men with its rocking.

Infantry tactics—The new edition of this work issued by Gen. Scott in Mexico, illustrated with cuts and hasty plates (of soup,) too hot to be eaten with a relish, and with light guns for X-pounders to the text.

Santa Anna's Foot and Horse—A cork leg and a mule.

GOOD MOVE FOR MECHANICS.—A Building Association has been formed Washington City, by the Mechanics, not for the purpose of "voting themselves a house" according to the slang of the N. Y. Reformers, but with the view of becoming possessed of a home of their own, through the credit of their own industry and good character. By means of this Association a man may become the owner of a house, by simply paying the Association the amount (monthly) which he would have to pay to a landlord as rent. Thus if he pays the Association six dollars a month he can reside in a house, that in from [illegible] years will be his own, which he [illegible] after his own plan, and which of course he and his family will feel an interest in preserving. Six dollars a month will entitle a member to the loan of six hundred dollars, with which it is obvious a very snug and comfortable building can be constructed.

RIVER IMPROVEMENTS.—A new lock, 6 feet longer and 6 wider than the present, is in course of construction at Dam No. 1, on the Monongahela, we hope the improvement of this important river may be extended beyond Brownsville and in the direction of the Cheat river, which no doubt will soon be improved for Slack water navigation. The citizens of Morgantown we understand are pledged to this last improvement, and the report of Mr. McLane, which, like his course throughout, has been a complete cheat to Pittsburgh, gives additional importance to the improvement of the Virginia river. The further improvement of the Monongahela and of the Cheat river have peculiar claims of their own. There are charters for both, and no one can doubt that both would prove valuable Stock.

FOUR THOUSAND men embarked for Vera Cruz from New Orleans, the last week in May. The force under Gen. Scott is believed to be much too small for keeping possession of the country over which he has passed, and of which he is in pursuit. Had the Administration at once called out the fifty thousand volunteers authorized by the act of May 13, 1846, ere this the war would have been at an end. The troops now in Mexico, or those to be mustered into service, are not adequate to the vigorous prosecution of the war, and they are not sufficient either to keep possession of the country or to overcome the Mexican people. Thousands of additional troops and millions of additional expenditure, we fear will be necessary to bring us to the end of the war in which we are engaged.

AN ELECTIVE JUDICIARY.—The Post hints that the Gazette did not oppose the Elective Judiciary until after it heard of the N. Y. Election. This is a mistake, as our columns will show. We have opposed it here and everywhere as a system without merit of any kind, and as one which has well been called a lottery. A good man may perchance draw the prize from the goddess of Fortune, but the chances are that he may not. Besides, who would like to see our Judges gambled for like a stake upon a card table. The Caucus room is often the political gaming house, and demagogues more frequently the card players.

WESTERN SCHOOLS.—We are glad to learn that vigorous efforts are making, to establish a thorough system of school education in the Western States. Sixty five young ladies recently left Albany with Miss Beecher of Ohio, daughter of Dr. Beecher, all upon the holy mission of teaching the young. Governor Slade, late of Vermont, is about to take up his residence at Cleveland, as the head of a Western Institution established for the diffusion of knowledge, by means of schools, through the whole Western country.

The General Synod of the REFORMED DUTCH CHURCH have taken up the subject of the war with Mexico. A preamble and resolution was offered by Rev. W. H. Van Doran, in relation to the war, to the purport that it is incumbent on the ministers of the Church to offer up incessant prayer to God to restore peace to the country. The design of the Rev gentleman in offering the resolution was that the body might offer a solemn protest against an unrighteous war. The subject after debate was postponed.

VOLUNTEERS FROM MEXICO.—Eight hundred discharged volunteers arrived in the last steamer from Vera Cruz, all it was said, before their departure, weary of the war and glad to get home. The previous volunteers from the Army complain loudly of the Administration and particularly on account of poor provisions and a delay in receiving the payments due. The Government with its abundant means, so lavishly bestowed by Congress, is without excuse for neglects like these.

[illegible] opening of navigation to the evening of the 8th, is given as follows:

Flour,	627,299 barrels.
Wheat,	204,648 bushels.
Corn,	795,555 bushels.

Notwithstanding these large arrivals, flour is taken from New York nearly as fast as it arrives. The export is full ten thousand barrels a day, and the demand for neighboring States, particularly for the East, is very large.

The New York Express puts a pointed question to the friends of the Administration, in connection with the price of Flour and the Tariff of 1846:

"If the Tariff of '46 has raised, as they have urged, the price of Flour to 10 dollars, to the consumer, then, we eaters of the bread made from it, must certainly be against such a Tariff. Mechanics, laborers, consumers in general, will all turn protectionists, if such extraordinary results follow Mr. Walker's wisdom as contained in the act of '46. How is this! Will the "Union" explain, or, nearer home, "the Globe," or "Evening Post!"

But for Famine abroad, the Loco Focos would have politically starved at home. Through our shipments of Bread stuffs, too, we have obtained millions in foreign specie, which has kept the Sub Treasury for a time mainly a piece of expensive folly. When the tide turns, the burdens of both this act, and the tariff of 1846, will be seen, and by all sane men acknowledged.

SALARIES OF THE MEXICAN CLERGY.—The following are some of the salaries of the church bishops, &c., as estimated in 1802; and they have rather increased than diminished since that time, notwithstanding the exhausting civil wars that have wasted the resources of the nation and the people at large, and debarred the development of the resources of the country, even to the destruction of the progress that had commenced under the slow motions of the Viceroys of Old Spain:

ANNUAL SALARIES.

Archbishop of Mexico,	$130,000
The Bishop of Puebla,	110,000
" Valadolid,	105,000
" Guadalajara,	90,000
" Durango,	35,000
" Monterey,	30,000
" Yucatan,	20,000
" Oaxaco,	18,000
" Sonora,	6,000

The clergy, regular and secular, number about ten thousand, or at least twelve thousand, including lay brothers of convents, and other subordinates. In 1827, the regular clergy was divided into fourteen provinces, possessing one hundred and fifty convents, and some two thousand friars.

There are six colleges in the quasi republic of Mexico, for the propagation of the faith, to which are attached some sixty-two missions, twenty of which are in Upper California.

New Works.

The OLDEN TIME, for May, edited by N. B. Craig, and printed by Wright & Charlton.—Washington's Journal is continued in this number, and will be concluded in the next. The Olden Time, we are glad to learn, is increasing in public favor. Designed as a record of early events in our history, it is deserving of great favor.

The HERALD OF TRUTH, a monthly periodical published in Cincinnati, by L. A. Hine, devoted to political and social reform. We have received No. 6 of the first volume, in which are several excellent articles.

J. L. Read advertises a pamphlet volume addressed to the non-medical reader, by W. Bodenhamer, of Louisville, Ky., upon the Anal and Rectal affections. The subjects are skillfully treated and Dr. B. is reported to have eminent success in the treatment of this class of diseases.

A MORAL PICTURE OF LONDON.—There are 30,000 common thieves in London; 10,000 children learning crime; 3,000 houses of stolen goods; and about 10,000 common gamblers.

The Weekly Dispatch," an infidel paper has a circulation of 150,000 copies a week in the city!

The population of London, now is about 2,250,000 souls!

There are 100,000 people in the [illegible] unprovided with means of religious worship.

There are about 105,000 female servants in London. Of this number, from 11,000 to 16,000 are daily changing places.

Upwards of 50,000 persons are now inmates of the London workhouses, 60,000 are receiving out-door relief, and from 1,000 to 2,000 nightly shelter themselves in the refuge [illegible].

In addition to [illegible] who live by begging and thousands more who live by criminal practices.

THE FATHER OF MARY FOX, the young girl, who was on the 20th of May, on her way from school, was abducted by some villain, now offers a reward of five hundred dollars for her restoration to her disconsolate parents. She is described as being only 15 years of age, 4 feet 6 inches high, with black hair, small features and [illegible] pretty, and quite girlish in appearance. She wore a small plaid calico dress, pink, purple and blue; black silk cape and apron, black gaiter boots, pink shirred hat, and green veil; [illegible] finger rings, a gold pencil attached to a black cord, and her nails quite short from biting them. The name of the party suspected is Hart, against whom some circumstances plainly point. He is said to be a married man, and to have left his wife entirely destitute. Mr. Matsell, of the City Police, is authorized to pay the reward, and will spare no effort for the discovery of the scoundrel, and the restoration of the child may be successful.—N. Y. Express.

THE POTATO DISEASE.—Baron Liebig imagines the essence of the potato disease to consist in the conversion of the albumen, a usual constituent of healthy potatoes, into caseine, a principle which, by its great instability of composition is supposed to cause the potato to putrefy rapidly. The Rev F. Dauvenoy states, in the Taunton Courier that he has discovered, by the microscope, a minute insect, crystal like, and transparent, resembling a spider, in the midst of potato mildew, evidently feeding on it, and making a nest among the thread-beds of fungi. From his examinations made, there must be more than 100 in a single tuber.

News Items

MAGNETIC TELEGRAPH.—F. O. J. Smith Esq. has made arrangements to have the telegraph opened in the course of a week between Boston and Portland.

A LATE London paper states that the East India merchants are busily engaged in collecting all the George the Third's sovereigns (the once much despised dragon ones, when light sovereigns were at such a discount) they can lay hands upon, to remit to the East Indies, where they sell at the rate of 25s. each; and after deducting freight, insurance, & the profit will be from 2s 5d to 2s 4d each.

IMMIGRANT PASSENGERS AT BOSTON.—From the Custom House books, it appears that from the 1st of April to the 10th June, a little over two months, seven thousand four hundred and [illegible] eight passengers have arrived at that port, [illegible] all of whom are immigrants. Two thousand a day is not large for New York.

FARMING BY STEAM.—The leading article in the London Agricultural Gazette, May [illegible], is the employment of steam in Farming, [illegible] the Editors are favorable, considering it a more docile and less costly power than [illegible] horses. Every hundred acres of plowing [illegible] the passing over 1000 linear miles, [illegible] sumers of food. They calculate the saving by steam on every plowing at $1 per acre, or $1[illegible] 000,000 on as many acres.

The JACKSON Monument Committee held a meeting at Washington on Thursday, when it was decided that the foundation of the monument shall consist of one solid block of [illegible] estimated to weigh at least one thousand tons. The design of the statute, which is to be [illegible] is after the model of that of Peter the Great.

NEW VIEW OF THE LICENSE LAW.—It is stated on unquestionable authority, that the captain of one of the Vermont boats declines to bring people that are obviously drunk from the New York side into Vermont, on the ground that bringing liquor into the State in hogshead would be an evasion of the License Law.

The Rev. WILLIAM G. ELIOT, of St. Louis, formerly of Washington, was, on [illegible] day the 3d instant, elected General Secretary of the American Unitarian Association at Boston.

POST OFFICE REFORM.—Jas. W. Hale, the independent Postmaster General, announces that he will take letters to Boston for three cents. As Cave Johnson pays no attention to the acts of Congress, Mr. Hale follows the example.

AN IMMENSE TELESCOPE for the National Observatory has arrived from Bremen, and is to be put up immediately at Washington. We may expect some farther interesting astronomical reports from that quarter, as soon as this new instrument gets into operation.

RAIL ROADS.—The N. Y. Railroad Company are about to issue proposals for a loan of $750,000 at 7 per cent, under the act of the Legislature allowing them to make a loan of three millions.

INSTALLATION.—Rev. John B. Pitney, for many years the agent of the American Colonization Society has been installed as Pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Washington, Pa.

"About a year ago, said he, M. Beligue was married to one of my cousins, and enjoying with her that complete happiness which does not excite envy, because we believe it to be within the reach of us all, when a cruel malady came to interrupt this happiness, which would be more common, perhaps, if it were not supposed to be so easily acquired. The physicians called this malady —hepato enteritis. My young cousin being on the point of confinement, was kept in her bed, carefully guarded by her mother, who endeavoured to deceive her with regard to the health of her husband. At length, when she had been thus watched over three days, her anxious tenderness became excited, she threw herself from her bed and rushed into his chamber. It was deserted— Four days before, her husband had died, and she did not know it. Her grief kept her strength.— Grief has two stages—apathy, and despair. Which is the least painful to endure? Half naked, her clothes in disorder, [illegible] situation, Madame Beligue rushed [illegible] through her [illegible] the walked with a steady step—they [illegible] she sought the cause of these strange proceedings.— She reached the spot, the hammers of two workmen were falling upon the grave-stone which they were carving near a tomb, the fresh turned up earth of which still rose above the graves. The name of Clemence, which she bore, was already engraved upon the stone; below the good qualities of the Baron of Beligue—marechal des camps et armees, de l'ordre de Saint Louis, &c. With precipitate gestures she motioned them away.— They stared at her without understanding her.— She made a last effort to speak, but her tears choked her. She no longer retained her senses, but her bare throat, which was violently agitated, the writhings of her delicate arms, attested the extremity of her torture. This exhaustion was followed by a frightful delirium. She overthrew the cradle of her new born babe, whose birth she had so much desired. Sleep had closed her eyes for a single moment—all at once, she aroused herself, crying out, "No, he cannot have died without my being near him? he is not dead, I shall see him again." This thought became fixed to her brain—she pressed her hand upon her forehead, her look became animated, to arise. Her mother, on her knees, sought in vain to appease her.

They were compelled to follow her. She announces her purpose; they charge her with insanity; what matters it to her? She rejects their pretexts, she is [illegible] her resolution cannot be shaken. "My poor daughter is mad!" exclaimed the mother, who wept in despair. Clemence threw a mantle over her shoulders, and set out. Her mother, unable to retain her, accompanied her. Two domestics followed them. It was not four, by the clock of the Masse. They had already opened the shutters of all the dwellings. The day laborers were setting out their wallets and tools—for in summer in haying time, the laborers of the field commence early, and these things transpired in the month of July. The gravelled earth which covered the coffin of M. de Beligue was lightly and easily removed. Clemence assisted with all her strength, and the coffin is soon uncovered. Dreadful spectacle! She threw herself upon the corpse, which she covered with her tears and kisses.

She raised him and pressed him to her bosom, and her terrified mother could not drag her away. They ran to call the [illegible] of Mandeclat. Perhaps Clemence would listen to his voice and his pious exhortations. [illegible] the rumour spread that Madame de Beligue was mad, and sought to be buried alive with her husband—a crowd of men and children began to collect.— The cry of "Oh, my God!" is heard. At approach. Madame de Beligue had taken back fainting. They tried to disengage her from the corpse—it was not dead!—he breathed! and at four days had it been interred. They were terrified—some of them pressing [illegible] ing, crying, "A miracle!" The dying Clemence is forgotten. The Cure comes. It is necessary to remove the crowd, whose [illegible] were proof against their [illegible] taken to the mansion. [illegible] M. Beligue [illegible] wrap him up. [illegible]

RIVER NEWS.—The Mississippi river is falling, with 5½ feet water to the head of [illegible] down.

The officers of the Dubuque report the Upper Mississippi [illegible] well, 4 feet water in the Upper, and 3 feet [illegible] the Lower Rapids.

We learn from the [illegible] Marengo, that the Champion, [illegible] on the morning of the 7th, at a point 6 miles above Cape Girardeau, in a heavy fog, struck a snag, [illegible] boiler deck in the space of fifteen or twenty minutes. The Marengo brought up her chimney and a portion of her cargo, consisting of Flour, &c. The boat, together with the remainder of her cargo, is a total loss. She had been recently purchased for $10,500, and was owned in Cincinnati. She was insured in Cincinnati to only part of her value.

The steamer Champion was partly insured, and a few days ago was bought by a company at Cincinnati for ten thousand five hundred dollars.

"Only a small portion of her cargo has been saved—the balance, as well as the boat, will be lost. She struck a stump in entering the shute, and sunk to her boiler deck.—St. Louis Union of the 9th inst.

MONEY MARKET.—New York Exchange on England is on the decline again. A lot of 20,000 pounds Sterling, city drawn, sold at 105½. The more current rate, however, is 106a106¼. Francs dull at 5,31¼a5,50. It there is any continued fall importation of specie must again commence. Money is getting more abundant.— Treasury Notes have gone up to 106a106½, and loans can easily be made on them at 4½ per cent. Good notes are selling in the street at 5 and 6 per cent.

Freights are very brisk. The bulk of the shipments are for Liverpool and London, 5s. in American, and 3s. 3d. for foreign vessels is paid freely.—N. Y. Express.

SUSPENSION BRIDGE.—It is in contemplation, we understand, by some of our influential citizens, to make another bold, and, as we fondly trust, successful effort to build a new wire Suspension Bridge over the Allegheny, opposite Sandusky and Irwin streets, which shall be free, with the exception of a small toll adequate to keep the bridge in order.—Alleghenian.

Governor EDWARDS has tendered to the Secretary of War the services of two companies of volunteers, now being raised in this city—one by Capt. Wm. SKETCHES OF PUBLIC MEN.—The editor of the Post is in error in supposing the sketches now in course of publication in the Gazette to be the same that appeared in the Literary Examiner and Monthly Review eight years since, though it is true both were written by the present editor of the Gazette.

THE NEW YORK VOTE FOR JUDGES.—Mr Clay's vote in New York city in 1844 was 26,385. At the recent election for Judge the Whigs gave but 10,000,—sixteen thousand Whigs refusing to take part in the attempt of placing party Judges upon the Bench.

MISSING.—A man named MICHAEL FRITOCK left home early on Saturday morning with nothing on but his pantaloons and shirt. He has left a wife and two small children who are most anxious to hear of the fate of the husband and father.

The property on board the Rough and Ready, sunk on Lake Erie by the Constellation, belonged to R. H. Heywood, Esq. The steamboat Buena Vista, with 3000 bushels Wheat was sunk near Tonawanda Creek, on the 10th, but most of the Wheat was got off.

SOME OF THE NEW YORKERS are apprehensive they may be compelled to abandon the Hudson River Rail Road altogether, in consequence of the enormous charges for obtaining the right of way.

The INCREASE OF FLOUR carried over the Michigan Central Rail Road for the present year, will be from 60 to 70,000 barrels more than in 1846.

The WEATHER was so cold last night that cloaks and fires were necessary for comfort. We almost feared a frost.

The FIFTH REGIMENT Illinois Volunteers is now fully organized, and will soon be on its way to Santa Fe.

The body of young Barker was drowned on Saturday, was yesterday recovered. He will be buried to day.

The YELLOW FEVER is at New Orleans, where there were 13 deaths in two days.

PHILADELPHIA MARKET.

June 15 8, P. M.

Flour—The buoyancy is still felt, and the active inquiry continues, but Pacto's discourage buyers by the prices they ask. In consequence of this the sales are rather limited, comprising 2000 bbls inspected brands, at $8,50, and 400 snaps at $8,37½ per bbl. A little concession on the part of holders would create a considerable business.

Wheat—The market has become quite dull and the article is unsaleable at previous prices. Holders are not much disposed to yield at present.

Corn—A good demand exists for Corn at less than the previous currency. Sale 8000 bu prime Yellow at 120c. Buyers generally offer 118c. which is declined.

Rye Flour has declined. Holders are asking $6,75, but buyers refuse to give it.

Oats are lower—selling at 58c per bu.

Corn meal—Sales to day at $5,37½ per bbl, and at a moderate extent only.

Rye has declined—a few sales at 125c per bu.

Provisions—The market is dull and inactive. Sales made at $17 and at $15 for new Mess and Prime. Sales city pkd Mess Beef at $15.

In Bacon [illegible] 9a9½c for Hams, 9a9½c for Sides and 7½ for Shoulders.

No. 1 Lard dull at 10a10½c.

BALTIMORE MARKET.

June 15 6½ P. M.

Flour—There is only a moderate amount of business doing in the market. Sales of Howard St. to day at $8,50 per bbl, and some City Mills at $8,75. Not much will be done until the steamer arrives.

Wheat—The market is on the decline. Sales prime white Wheat at 200c, and less offered.

Corn—[illegible] White of prime quality at 115c and Yellow at the same.

Cornmeal, both White and Yellow, is selling at $5,37½ per bbl.

Oats are bought at 62c per bu.

Whiskey in bbls sells at 36½c per gall.

There is no alteration, and the market quiet.

In Sugar, Molasses, & [illegible] no change whatever.

Provisions—A fair inquiry is maintained for Provisions, but the sales are not large. Sales Mess Pork at $16,50a17, but little at the outside figure. Sales Mess Beef at $15. Of Bacon the sales at 7½a8c for Shoulders, 9½a10c for Sides, and 9a10½ for Hams, as to quality and order.

A few sales No. 1 Lard at 9½ and 10c for bbls and Kegs.

IMPORTANT TO THE LADIES—Chinese Hair Cream, a matchless article for the Growth, Beauty and Restoration of the Hair. This Cream, when once known, will supersede all other articles of the kind now used. Where the hair is dead, harsh, thin, unhealthy or turning grey, a few applications will make the hair soft and dark, and give it a beautiful lively appearance; and will also make it retain its liveliness and healthy color twice as long as all the preparations which are generally used. Every lady and gentleman who are in the habit of using oils on their hair, should at once purchase a bottle of the Chinese Hair Cream, as it is so composed that it will not injure the hair like the other preparations, but will beautify it, and give perfect satisfaction in every instance.

For testimony to its very superior qualities, see the following letter from Rev. Mr. Caldwell, to Messrs Hendershott & Stretch, Nashville, General Agents for the Western States:

Letter from the Rev. R. Caldwell, pastor of the Presbyterian Church Pulaski.

Messrs. Hendershott & Stretch—Gentlemen: I take pleasure in adding my testimony in favor of the excellent preparation called Dr. Parrish's Chinese Hair Cream—for 4 or two years ago my hair was very dry, brittle, and disposed to come out; but having procured a bottle of the Cream, and used it according to the prescription, my hair is now soft, elastic and firm to the head. Many balsams and oils were applied each leaving my hair in a worse state than before. This Cream, however, has met my expectations.

As an article for the Toilet, my wife gives it preference over all others, being delicately perfumed, and not disposed to rancidity. The ladies especially will find the Chinese Cream to be a desideratum in their preparations for the toilet. Respectfully, &c.

NASHVILLE STEAM DISTILLERY, AND CITY MILLS—CHANCERY SALE. By virtue of a decree of the Chancery Court at Nashville, made at the May term 1847, in the case of John Reid, administrator, &c. of R. F. L'Hommedieu, vs Thayer, Tatum and others, I shall proceed to sell at Public Auction, on the 21st of August, 1847, at the upper end of the Market House in Nashville, belonging to the late firm of R. F. L'Hommedieu & Co. the Flour Mill and Distillery with hog pens and corn crib attached. Said property is situated on the bank of Cumberland River, about one mile below Nashville, including between six and seven acres of land, upon which the buildings are erected, known and designated as lots Nos 101, 102, 103 and 104 as represented in McGavock's plan of addition to Nashville.

The above Mill and Distillery has been erected not more than 9 months, and are built of the best material. The Distillery is capable of manufacturing 20 brls whiskey per day. The Flour Mill has only manufactured [illegible] of Flour since it was finished, so that the machinery is perfectly new and of the most modern and improved kind. The Mill is capable of manufacturing 25 brls of Flour per day. The hog pens are capable of containing and feeding 5000 hogs, and all arranged so as to save labor and expense in feeding. The corn crib is commodious—there are also three patent portable cottages attached to the concern. I will also receive private bids for said property until the day of sale.

The terms of said sale are $1000 payable in 4 months in Bank, the balance on a credit of one, two, and three years without interest. The purchaser is required to give notes with approved security payable in Bank, and a lien will also be retained upon the property further to secure the purchase money. J. B. WHITE, C & M m22w

HEALTH, HEALTH!
DR. WOOD'S Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry Bitters—This new and valuable Extract of Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry has been used with great success for the permanent removal of all such diseases as arise from an impure state of the blood; it promotes a healthy action of the Liver— strengthens the Nerves and at once secures health and vigor to the whole system.

In all cases of Jaundice, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, loss of Appetite, Nausea, Costiveness, Scrofula, Headache, [illegible] Depression of Spirits, which so many [illegible] the Spring and Summer seasons of the year, this medicine has not its equal, and a single trial will convince the most incredulous of its peculiar virtues.

For further particulars the reader is referred to the pamphlets which will be furnished by the Agents, showing the estimation in which this valuable medicine is held by those who have used it.

☞ Caution to the Public. ☜

Be particular and ask for Dr. Wood's Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry Bitters, and receive no other. This is the first preparation of the kind ever offered to the public, and the great success attending its use has induced the unprincipled to counterfeit and imitate it. As a protection against this fraud, see that the words "Dr. Wood's Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry Bitters" pressed on the glass, and that each label on the bottle is signed by the proprietor, E. Thornton, Jr.

HARRIS'S COLUMBIAN INKS—BLACK, SCARLET, and COPYING—The Black Ink will flow more freely from the pen, gives a stronger and more durable color, and corrodes steel pens less than any other known. It is of best quality for all purposes.

The Copying Ink, for the purpose of writing letters or documents, of which a transfer copy is to be taken.

It writes freely, gives a copy as perfect as the original, and has none of that sticky substance common to other copying inks.

The Scarlet Ink gives a rich mellow scarlet, and improves in brightness on the paper.

For permanence of color these inks fully equal if not surpass all others, for when the color is once set on the paper, it will remain UNCHANGED for ages.
