GAZZAM'S PATENT BEDSTEAD.

NOTWITHSTANDING an invented opposition to this invention of a Portable Bedstead, it has overcome the vulgar prejudice against home inventions, and they give Gazzam's Bedstead the preference, and increase every day. Satisfaction, indeed, is the most convincing testimonial we can offer to the public. The following testimonial speaks for itself:—

We, the undersigned, practical cabinet makers of the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, Pa., do hereby certify that we have bought the right to manufacture bedsteads with Gazzam's Patent Fastenings, and consider them superior to any fastenings with which we are acquainted. Below are our names:

PATENT PRESS BRICK MACHINE

The subscribers having obtained a patent, May 10 1846, for a Press Brick Machine, are now prepared to sell rights and contract to deliver machines to any part of the United States. They have a machine designed to make the finest grade clay, and will make 30,000 good brick per hour; sufficiently large to turn up to 50,000 per hour. Hyland's machine is designed to make the clay, drying and handling the brick after being moulded. Rivers' machine is designed to mould and press, and is constructed that it can be used to press and put together with great facility, their respective merits are incontestible. Machines and rights can be furnished on short notice. For a full description of the machine now in operation at Lawrenceville, we will refer to a machine now in the West end of Eighth street, where we shall be happy to explain everything connected therewith. Also to all who may call at Forbes's Paints, and 10 by 14 frames at New York Paint Works, corner Penn and Irwin sts.
