OFFICE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, {
Monday Morning, August 5. }

THE WEATHER.—During the forenoon of Saturday, it rained without intermission, in consequence of which very little was done in trade. The river last evening at dusk stood at 3½ 2 inches in channel, and falling slowly. It is quite probable however, from the recent rains, that there will be a slightrise in the river.

FLOUR.—The feeling in the market on Saturday was without change. The article continues firm at former quotations. The supply in market continues light. Considerable quantities have arrived by river from the western markets, intended principally for shipment to the East. Sales of 250 bbls were made on Saturday, at $4,62, and 100 at $4,50. We note in addition, regular sales at 4,75 @4,80.

GRAIN.—The receipts are light, and the demand limited. We hear of sales only for a regular way as per last quotations. Wheat is held nominally at 85 @90. Rye 60@65. Corn, 60@65c; Oats 33@35.

PROVISIONS.—The market continues quiet, with a slight upward tendency in the prices. We hear of sales of 60 sacks hams at 15@16c. Shoulders 10@11c. Sides 12½@13c. Lard is in fair demand at 8@9c. Butter—receipts more full, than at last report, Ready sales at 25@26c. Cheese—considerable quantities arrived on Saturday, without however, effecting any in the prices; as yet, the article continues firm at 15@16 for good W. R, and 8c @9c for Cream—Crackers continue in demand as last quoted. Sales of water 4,00; butter 4,75 per bbl—sugar and soda, 7c ₱ lb.

FISH.—Very little doing in the article; we note regular sales as follows—Mackerel No 3, $7@7,50; Shad, $16@16,50—Herring $3,50@3,50 ₱ bbl.—The demand is limited at the above quoted figures

TOBACCO.—We note regular sales as per former quotations.

WHISKEY.—Receipts full, and prices unchanged.—Sales of good old at 30c—Rye 31@33½—common rectified 34@35c ₱ gal. We note occasional sales of 7 years old at $1,75@1,80 ₱ gal.
