Assist .-- A man by the name of Casper . obs was arrested on Monday, for throwing an old man, by the name of McGinnis, out upon the cent letting of the Pitt street, in front of Stevenson's Hotel, on the corner of the Diamond. A cart loaded with clay, from a cellar excavating in the neighborhood, was just passing the door of the house at the time the old can was tumbled upon the street, and before the boy who was driving, could stop his horse, one of the wheels of the cart passed over the breast of McGinuis. We have not heard whether his bruises are considered dar gerous by Physicians. The Mayor committed Jacobs for a further hearing on Tuesday.

Jacobs says he had no intention of injuring the man by pushing him out of Stevenson's door. The ce before the Mayor was somewhat conflicting.
