No. 59, Irwins Levee, Liberty Street, between 3d and 4th streets. The Second Session will commence on Monday the 30th of August, and it is important that they who may desire entering should be present as far as practicable by that time.

They have secured the services of Professor RICOBOCK as teacher of Music on the Piano and Guitar, who is too well known to need recommendation. A competent French teacher will be employed.

Prof. BINGHAM will have charge of the Department of Vocal Music.

Prof. SIBINSKI will have direction of the Artistic Department, and will give lessons, in drawing, sketching, and painting, both in oil and water colors. Prof. S. is a competent teacher, and has recommendations from the first men in Europe and the United States. He has also been a teacher in the first institutions of the country.

For terms apply to the Principal. 1y12

MRS. LEWIS'S BOARDING SCHOOL—Ms. 100 Arch Street, above Thirteenth, South side, Philadelphia.

THIS pleasantly situated Institution, embraces all the higher branches of an English Education, with instruction in the French, Italian and Latin Languages. Pupils received at any time, and charges made proportionally secured, and every facility given pupils for acquiring the different Languages, together with other accomplishments.

The year is divided into two terms of five months each, commencing on the first of September, and ending on the 30th of June.

The charge for the Scholastic Year of ten months is $100, half of which payment is always required extra, except Music and Dancing, which are at Professor's prices. No deduction for absence any time while the term will be charged accordingly.

If it is thought desirable by parents or guardians of pupils, Mrs. Lewis's daughter will be received into the house vacation, when all due attention will be paid.
