ALLEGHENY COUNTY.

The Whigs of Allegheny have done but half of what they were capable of accomplishing, and for their delinquency, have only the poor apology of a rainy day.

They have elected MR. DARRIS for their Senator by a handsome majority, and give a very decided vote for all their Assemblymen and county candidates. All these are elected beyond all peradventure, and the County therefore is in good hands, and will continue to be well represented in the State Legislature, and at home.—We have neither room nor time to say more at the late hour at which we go to Press.

THE ELECTION.

Rain, rain, rain! The rainiest day of the year was yesterday, the storm commencing as soon as the polls were opened, and continuing through the day and night. Thousands of the people were kept from the Polls, and it remains to be proved who were the 'fair weather politicians.'—Some there were who made noble sacrifices to their votes, and while, many young men stood at home, many of the old were at the Polls. We have all preliminaries, however, for
