PATENT PRESS BRICK MACHINE

THE subscribers having obtained a patent, May 10 1847, for their Brick Machine, which has been put to thorough practical test as to ability, are now prepared to sell rights and contract to deliver machines to any part of the United States. The machine is designed to make Brick from crude clay, and will make 30,000 good smooth firm brick per day; sufficiently hard to stand up for burning, without passing through the process of preparing the clay, drying, and handling the brick after being moulded. It is simple, strong, not liable to get out of order, and can be worked by two men. It makes the brick in a perfect and even facility, thus rendering it invaluable. We are now building machines, and can furnish them on short notice. For full description of the machine now in successful operation, and which we will refer to, examine the West end of Eighth street, Pittsburgh. Steps will be taken to have an agent connected with it in all who may call. We have at present no authorized Agent. All letters to our address will be promptly attended to.

PATENT PRESS BRICK MACHINE

THE subscribers having obtained a patent, May 10 1847, for their Brick Machine, which has been put to thorough practical test as to ability, are now prepared to sell rights and contract to deliver machines to any part of the United States. The machine is designed to make Brick from crude clay, and will make 30,000 good smooth firm brick per day; sufficiently hard to stand up for burning, without passing through the process of preparing the clay, drying, and handling the brick after being moulded. It is simple, strong, not liable to get out of order, and can be worked by two men. It makes the brick in a perfect and even facility, thus rendering it invaluable. We are now building machines, and can furnish them on short notice. For full description of the machine now in successful operation, and which we will refer to, examine the West end of Eighth street, Pittsburgh. Steps will be taken to have an agent connected with it in all who may call. We have at present no authorized Agent. All letters to our address will be promptly attended to.
