The money market has continued to improve since our last. The Bank of England, on the 23d ultimo, reduced the rate of interest down to 5 per cent, and the facilities of discount of good paper have become greater. This step of the Bank of England has been much commented upon astending to revive undue speculation by making money cheap; but as we have repeatedly asid, the Bank, in the present case, exercised no voluntary action in the matter, as their discount business, which during the excessive high price of money, absorbed nearly the whole requirements of the country bits. A LETTER FROM HON. J. R. POINSETT.
SLATISHERA, [S. C.] Dec. 12, 1817.

Ny dear Sir—In compliance with your request and in conformity with my promise, I have deter the conformity with the promise of the conformity with the conformity with the conformity with the conformity with the conformity of the conformity with the confor The bill brokers have also reduced the rate of money, at the call of their depositors, to 4 per cent—
From the 18th of December, to the 1st of Janceven houses had failed.

We find the fallowing in Wilmer and Smith's Times.

It is with extreme regret that we have to add to our list of insercantile failures during the present crisis, that of Messrs Thos, and Joseph Sands of this town. The embarrasaments of Thos. Sands who is also first partner in the East India house of Sands, Turner & Co., and the New York House of Sands, Turner & Co., and the New York House of Sands, Turner & Co., have been more or less
