☞ Office in the Warehouse of W. R. Holmes & Bro., No. 57 Water, near Market street, Pittsburgh.

N. B.—The success of this Company since the establishment of the Agency in this city, with the promptness and liberality with which every claim upon them for loss has been adjusted, fully warrans the agent in inviting the confidence and patronage of his friends and the community at large to the Delaware M. S. Insurance Company, while it has the additional advantages as an institution among the most flourishing in Philadelphia—as having an ample paid-in capital, which by the operation of its charter is constantly increasing, as yielding to each person insured his due share of the profits of the company, without involving him in any responsibility whatever, and therefore as possessing the Mutual principle divested of every obnoxious feature, and in its most attractive form. nov4

MEDICAL.

Jaynes' Expectorant.
SAMPLE Columbiana co., O., Apr. 24, 1841.
DR. D. JAYNES: DEAR SIR:—I feel bound to you as an unsolicited public, to avail myself of this opportunity of giving publicity to the astonishing effects of your Expectorant on myself. Having been afflicted for years with a severe cough, bleeding of the lungs, and its concomitant diseases, and could get nothing to linger out a short but miserable existence, until the fall of 1838, when I was induced to make a trial of it, having resorted to all my former remedies, and the prescriptions of two of the most respectable physicians in the neighborhood, all surviving any benefit, or the consolation of surviving but a few days, and that the fairest—when the last gleam of hope was about to vanish, I had recommended to me your Expectorant—and blessed by that Being who does all things in the use of the means—and contrary to the expectations of myself and friends, in the course of a few days raised from my bed, and was enabled by the use of a horse, to attend to my business, enjoying since better health than I have for years previous.
Respectfully yours, &c. JAS. W. ERWIN.

HOTELS.

FOUNTAIN HOTEL,
LIGHT STREET, BALTIMORE.
WOOD AND TROTTER, PROPRIETORS.

THIS establishment long and widely known as being one of the most commodious in the city of Baltimore, has recently undergone very extensive alterations and improvements. An entire new wing has been added, containing numerous and airy sleeping apartments, and extensive bathing rooms.

The Ladies' department has also been completely reorganized and fitted up in a most unique and beautiful style. In fact the whole arrangement of the House has been remodeled, with a single eye on the part of the proprietors, towards the comfort and pleasure of their Guests, and which they confidently assert will challenge comparison with any Hotel in the Union.

Their table will always be supplied with every substantial and luxury which the market affords, served up in a superior style; while in the way of Wines, &c., they will not be surpassed.

In conclusion the proprietors beg to say, that nothing will be left undone on their part, and on the part of their assistants, to render this Hotel worthy the continued patronage of their friends and the public generally.

The prices for board have also been reduced to the following rates:

Ladies' Ordinary, $1,75 per day.
Gentlemen's " 1,50
N. B.—The Baggage Wagon of the House will always be found at the Car and Steamboat Landings, which will convey baggage to and from the Hotel, free of charge. may2tf

PEARL STREET HOUSE,
CINCINNATI, OHIO.

THE subscribers having purchased the entire interest of Col. G. F. Williamson, late of this well known establishment, beg leave to state to their friends and the public generally, that they have taken this commodious Hotel for a term of years, and will exert their best energies to make it a desirable home for Travellers and City Boarders.

The Hotel is spacious and tastefully planned for convenience, light and air, having a number of parlors adjoining chambers, presenting unusual attractions to families.

The present proprietors having had the experience of many years in this and other establishments, are enabled to give general satisfaction, and are determined to give undivided attention to the house alone.

The location of the Pearl Street House is uncommonly eligible, having fronts on Pearl, Walnut and Main streets, so that it is equally desirable in view of the business or convenience of those who may favor it with their patronage. It is near by the Banks, the Post Office, the Masonic Hall, Odd Fellow's Hall, and but one square from the City Hall, and two squares from the City Wharf, thus offering the greatest inducements to the public to country merchants and generally to all persons visiting Cincinnati.
