HOTELS.

FOUNTAIN HOTEL,
LIGHT STREET BALTIMORE.
FOOT AND THURSTON, PROPRIETORS.
THIS establishment long and widely known as being one of the most commodious in the city of Baltimore, has recently undergone very extensive alterations and improvements. An entire new wing has been added, containing numerous and airy sleeping apartments, and extensive bathing rooms.
The Ladies' department has also been completely reorganized and fitted up in a most unique and beautiful style. In fact the whole arrangement of the House has been remodeled, with a single eye on the part of the proprietors, towards the comfort and pleasure of their Guests, and which they confidently assert will challenge comparison with any Hotel in the Union.
Their table will always be supplied with every substantial and luxury which the market affords, served up in a superior style, while in the way of Wines, &c., they will not be surpassed.
In conclusion the proprietors beg to say, that nothing will be left undone on their part, and on the part of their assistants, to render this Hotel worthy the continued patronage of their friends and the public generally.
The prices for board have also been reduced to the following rates:

| | |

PEARL STREET HOUSE.

THE subscribers having purchased the entire interest of Col. G. F. Williamson, late of this city, will have pleasure in calling the attention of their friends and the public generally, that they have taken this commodious Hotel for a term of years, and will keep it in that style and manner as to make it a desirable home for Travellers and City Boarders.
The Hotel is spacious and admirably planned for convenience, light and airy, having a number of rooms adjoining chambers, presenting unusual attractions to families.
The present proprietors having had the experience of years in this city and elsewhere, hope they will be able to give general satisfaction, being determined to give strict personal attention to the House.
The location of the Pearl Street House is uncommonly eligible, having fronts on Pearl, Walnut and Third streets. It is equally convenient to the business and residence portions of the city, and is within a few minutes walk of the Monongahela House, and two squares from the City Hall, and in close proximity to the Banks, the Post Office, the Masonic Hall, the Fellows' Hall, and not more than a square distant from Main street and two squares from the City Wharves, thus offering the greatest inducements, especially to country merchants and gentlemen visiting Cincinnati
