

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE

BY ERASIAS BROWN & CO.

PITTSBURGH: SATURDAY MORNING, JUNE 3, 1845.

PHILADELPHIA NORTH AMERICAN.

American, Foreign, and United States Gazette, Philadelphia, received and forwarded from that city.

NEW YORK EXPRESS.

We will publish the experiments and subscriptions for this paper.

THE Pittsburg Daily Gazette is published daily, 70c weekly, and weekly. The daily is seven cents, and the weekly is two dollars per annum.

For a larger Commercial Interests Economic, Market News, Import and Export, etc., see our Advertisers are earnestly requested to have their advertisements and subscriptions for this paper.

Whig and Anti-Slavery Nomination,

FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER,

MERRILL SWARTH,

or others.

At a meeting of the Democratic and Whig Com-mities of Correspondence, held at McAllister's

Ball, on Wednesday, May 29, the following

call was agreed upon:

Electors of each ward, borough and township in Allegheny County, shall meet in their respective places of holding primary meetings in said districts, on the 1st of June, in the evening, and shall elect delegates of each ward, borough and township on Wednesday, the 1st of June, A. D. 1845, to nominate canal commissioners for national state and local purposes.

The committee would earnestly urge upon the said delegates the following organization, preparatory to the coming election:

JAMES MCGRATH, Chairman.

J. LEWIS, Secretary.

General Case.

Some four White colonists are quoting Mr.

Yancey's speech and resolutions before the Bal-more Convention—which estimate that Mr. Case is not sufficiently sound on the Slavery Question to entitle him to the nomination.

This we think is an error. Mr. Case will doubtless receive the cordial support of the Democrats of all the Slave States, except it may be, South Carolina. He is, emphatically, a "Northern Man with Southern Principles." Whether Deobert is right or wrong, he has been tried for the support of the Slave. And no one deserves to be viewed with suspicion by any party of the free State, because his conversion is recent and evidently caused by a determination to secure a sacrifice.

Short of the discussion of the North American

Convention, and expressed himself in favor of instituting it into any bill that might be passed in future, for the admission of territory.

In less than a year thereafter he repudiated this sentiment.

Whatever may have produced this remarkable change in the character of Mr. Case, we will not go into.

He is, however, a man who has been tried for the support of the Slave, and who has done a great deal to help the Slave.

A letter in the New York Tribune warns the people of the North against being guided by Mr.

Yancey's resolution, which was introduced for the purpose of helping Mr. Case at the North. The letter says:

"Some people may be green as to suppose that the South is ready to yield the Baltimore Convention by Mr. Yancey, or Allard, or any other who is to be found in the South.

It was not so. The intention was very well formed, and was carried out.

Delegates from the Free and Slave States, It re-markedly pliable to the affair—to remove a portion of the resolution to be addressed to the North that the fanatic of the South refers to as the Constitutional compact.

It is the mode of the movement, I have the confidence of the Northern men, that the very first vote at the Convention, on the question of the South, will be given by Mr. Case, and that he will give it for the South.

The vote in his favor from the South, was his own, and his own.

Our friends in the Free States, and those entreated by this fresh invention of the case, will be greatly disappointed in every location which bears with Christian benevolence.

Whoever shall announce the treaty of Gould, disappears on the frontier of the territory ceded to the United States, against the first nations in the world, and can never be solved.

"How can an unfortunate war be prosecuted, without inflicting pain and danger in their villages?

A wide variety of feelings, which are as different from each other, as are the contraries of the heart.

It is a pity in this, that will doubtless prove another Texas.

If Mexican territory,

out of which to carry slaves, cannot be procured,

then the whole cause will be tried.

The five thousand Americans will originate the whole scheme and cover the new organization.

It is said, it is already reduced down to fifteen members, and even then it appears to be a desire to have a more numerous organization.

"We fears that the greatest joy is expressed in the hearts of the Free and Slave States, we may scatter upon us all the calamities we have desired, and which we shall certainly obtain in our direst opposition to each other."

A Minister of Foreign Affairs—The amanu-

ensis of the various Religious Societies at their several anniversaries, it appears that the past year have been considerably in advance of any former one.

The amount received

by the American Bible, Tract, Home Mission-

ary, Board of Missions, Foreign Evangelical

Church, Friends, Protestant, Colored, and Slave

Levi, Lewis, for the past year, is $1,391,600.

To which three great Baptist Societies are

added—American and Foreign Union Foreign

Methodist, and African Methodist—the aggregate

will be $1,795,201.

A Minister of Foreign Affairs—The amanu-

ensis of the various Religious Societies at

their several anniversaries, it appears that

the past year have been considerably in advance of any former one.

The amount received

by the American Bible, Tract, Home Mission-

ary, Board of Missions, Foreign Evangelical

Church, Friends, Protestant, Colored, and Slave

Levi, Lewis, for the past year, is $1,391,600.

To which three great Baptist Societies are

added—American and Foreign Union Foreign

Methodist, and African Methodist—the aggregate

will be $1,795,201.

The Court of Inquiry, at Frederick, Md., admitted multi yesterday morning, in consequence of the continued absence of Gen. Polk.

Mr. Justice Story, of the Supreme Court of the United States, presided over the trial.

Gen. Polk, the President, was present, and the trial was

begun.

Gen. Polk, the President, was present, and the trial was

begun.

Gen. Polk, the President, was present, and the trial was

begun.

Gen. Polk, the President, was present, and the trial was

begun.

Gen. Polk, the President, was present, and the trial was

begun.

Gen. Polk, the President, was present, and the trial was

begun.

Gen. Polk, the President, was present, and the trial was

begun.

Gen. Polk, the President, was present, and the trial was

begun.

Gen. Polk, the President, was present, and the trial was

begun.

Gen. Polk, the President, was present, and the trial was

begun.

Gen. Polk, the President, was present, and the trial was

begun.

Gen. Polk, the President, was present, and the trial was