CONGRESS.

Washington, June 27, 1848.

SENATE.—A resolution was adopted for sending to the laying of the corner stone of the Washington monument.

A memorial from Miss Dix, praying for an appropriation in aid of the indigent slaves, was ordered to be printed, and referred to the Committee of Whalers' railroad in the Pacific. The bill was referred to a Select Committee.

The Senator then laid aside his morning meetings and proceeded to the consideration of the order of the day, which was the Oregon bill. Agreed to.

Mr. Bright gave notice that he would move the Oregon bill on the next day.

Mr. Cobourne then addressed the Senate, contending that Congress had no power to legislate upon the subject of slavery within the territories.

Mr. Birkenhead moved to take up the Post Office bill—Agreed to, which was amended.

House.—Mr. Newell submitted a resolution, authorizing the committee on militia, to inquire into the expediency of arming the militia. Agreed to.

Mr. Lincoln introduced a bill appropriating funds for the construction of a railroad from Albany to the West. Readiness and referred.

The bill from the committee of the Whole, authorizing Texas to extend her boundaries, was agreed to.

The consideration of the report from Messrs. Smith and Lewis was adjourned.

On motion of Mr. Vinton, the House went into committee on the general appropriation bill. Several speeches were made, when the committee voted to send the House adjourned.

WASHINGTON, June 26, 1848.

Mr. Julian was not present, and Mr. Atchison took the Chair.

Mr. C. W. of Wisconsin appeared, was sworn and took his seat.

Meigs Dodge and Walker then drew lots to see whose turn it should expire. Mr. Dodge's term will expire in (1851), and Mr. Walker in (1850).

Mr. Davis reported all appropriating funds for the Post Office bill.

Mr. Berland, from the Committee on Public Lands, reported a joint resolution in favor of connecting Whitney's Oregon Rail Road.

Mr. Dix addressed the Senate in support of the Barnburner's views, and in vindication of Mr. Van Buren's letter.

Mr. Fessenden got the floor on this question. No vote.

Hough.—Mr. Fessenden moved to suspend the rules to fix the express office of the Post Office bill, not agreed to two-thirds and voting in the affirmative.

On motion of Mr. Vinton, the House went into committee on the General Appropriation bill.

Mr. Fessenden being entitled to the floor, spoke against the Whig's bill. He was interrupted and interrogated by Mr. Linn.

Mr. Stewart of Pa. followed in a political speech against the editorials of the Union, and Gen. Cass' extra editorials while territorial Governor.

Mr. Clark of Ky., followed in defense of the veto power, and in favor of Gen. Cass.

Mr. Thompson of Ia. then addressed the House when the committee arose and the House adjourned.

The Hicksites have revolted again the British.

Five Commissioners and all the English troops at Lahore have been massacred.
