FRANCE.—THE TERRIBLE AND BLOODY CONFLICT IN PARIS.—We again give up the largest portion of our space to Foreign News—confined on the occasion to the awful conflict in Paris. The details of the sanguinary strife are truly horrible—sufficient to cause humanity to shudder, and to weep over the depravity of man. And what is still worse? France never to know peace, quietness, and security, until her fair fields are drenched in human gore, and her people impoverished and wracked, sink to savage barbarism!

France must have a strong government, if she will have quiet. There are many wretches in her midst, who degrade themselves into licentiousness and robbery, to permit her to rest in quietness, unless kept down by the hand of power.

The Report of Government obtained a great victory over the popular side, at a terrible sacrifice of life, and we hope efficacious measures will be taken to prevent, hereafter, the possibility of such terrible scenes.

WISCONSIN.—The War.

A second convention of Volunteers—consisting of seven companies of the First Pennsylvania Regiment, commanded by Col. Wm. Wynnrop, arrived on Saturday afternoon, and were received by an immense crowd of citizens, with ringing of bells, firing of cannon, and every demonstration of enthusiastic patriotism and joy.

The arrival was later than expected, so that the arrangements for a procession, &c., were somewhat broken through with the want of time, and the volunteers had to wait until the evening to march, which however from every circumstance of the thousands of citizens who covered the wharf.

The companies which have arrived, are as follows:—On board the steamer Brooklyn—a company C—Monroe Guards, from Philadelphia, Lieutenant A. Haines, company G, Philadelphia, Capt. Moore, head; company I, from Wyoming, Capt. Danl. Head. On the Schuykill—Company A, Capt. Fisher, from Philadelphia; Company D, Capt. Hill, Philadelphia; Capt. H. Gray, of Philadelphia, Lieut. Breece.

Three companies are yet to arrive, on the Jewess—consisting of the Dragoon, Gray, Capt. Heron, of this city; the Light Guards, Capt. Hall, Capt. Bennett, and company B, Capt. Smith, of Potsville.

These volunteers look remarkably well—handsomely and well stirred. Col. Black was heartily greeted, and looks very well—more robust than he left.

The procession formed as arranged, and marched through the streets.

Complaints, loud and deep, reach us from various parts of the State, in reference to the conduct of the party friends and advisers of Gov. Shunk, in his recent resolutions. An impression is made that it was wrong, from the fact that it was communicated to the public, that the Republique Democratic et Sociale was bound.

On the 21st inst. the meeting of the National Assembly, the President stated that the Government had completely succeeded in suppressing the insurrection in the capital.

The great and exciting struggle of the Whig Convention at Philadelphia however, the result points to the policy and proclaiming the duty that devolved upon the Whig party, and upon each member of the party.
