The Postmaster General, this morning, received a letter from the Postmaster at Baton Rouge, Louisian, July 5 151s, as follows:

In the quarterly return from this office for the quarter ending the 30th June. 1515, there are two bundles of refused letters. The majority of them are for Gen. Z. Taylor. The General's postage has a mounted to so much of late that he has been constrained to refuse many of the less important communications that come to him. The letters in question were hastily examined, as he did not exist pet them to be sent off under three months. He now finds that some of them are of importance to him, and desires them to be returned, which please do, as early as possible, and oblige yours.

The packages were examined accordingly, and
