INSURANCE.

DELAWARE MUTUAL INSURANCE CO.
JOHN FINNEY, Jr., Agent at Pittsburgh for the Delaware Mutual Safety Insurance Company of Philadelphia. Fire Risks upon buildings and merchandize of every description, and Marine Risks upon hulls or cargoes of vessels, taken upon the most favorable terms.
☞ Office in the Warehouse of W. B. Holmes & Bro., No. 3 Water, near Market street, Pittsburgh.
N. B.—The success of this Company since the establishment of the Agency in this city, with the promptness and liberality with which every claim upon them for loss has been adjusted, fully warrants the agent in inviting the confidence and patronage of his friends and the community at large to the Delaware Mutual Insurance Company, while it has the additional advantage as an institution being the first flourishing in Philadelphia—as having an ample paid-in capital, which by the operation of its charter is constantly increasing, as yielding to each party insured his due share of the profits of the company, without involving sum in any responsibility whatever, and therefore as possessing the Mutual principle divested of every objectionable feature, and in the most attractive form. no1

DR. D JAYNES' DEAR SIR—I am rejoiced to find you and the afflicted public in actual receipt of the important and grateful remedy for Consumption, and your Expectorant in particular. Having been afflicted for several years with a severe cough, hectic fever and its concomitant diseases, and secretly only doomed to linger out a miserable existence, I commenced the fall of 1846, when, being more severely attacked, and having resorted to all my former remedies, and the prescriptions of some of the most eminent physicians in the neighborhood without deriving any benefit, or the consolation of surviving but a few days or weeks at farthest, which I then thought I could not, and must vanish, I had recommended to me your Expectorant, and pleased by that Being worn down as those in the use of the means—and contrary to the expectations of my physicians—and friends, I am now following the round from my bed, and was enabled by the use of a bottle to attend to my business, enjoying once better health than I had for many years previous Respectfully yours &c Jas W Estill
