Court.

A family of orphans, from Cherry Alley, were taken in charge by the Overseers of the Poor, yesterday. Three little children, whose mother had died last spring, were left to the care of a brutal, drunken father. He sold everything about the house for rum, and left the children to suffer hunger, brast, and all the evils of neglect and destitution, and even where kind neighbors gave them food, would take it away from his children, and beat them for receiving it. At length humanity rebelled against his outrageous conduct, the Overseers were called in, and the victims released from his worse than brutal control. How many similar cases might be found, we cannot guess.

The meeting in behalf of Ireland, last night, was a glorious affair. Capt. Robert Porter presided. A ddresses were delivered by Mesars Porter, Shannon, M'Geehan, Farrei, Howard, and others, which is allowed the country, organize meetings, and collect tunds,—upwards of two hundred and forty dollars were raused on the spot—and a degree of enthusiasm prevailed which beggars description.—The meeting adjourned with three desfening cheers for reliand—to meet at the Oregon House on Saturday evening.
