Correspondence of the New York TribunDublin:

Ou Saturday week, when O'Brien, Meagher, and O'Gorman heard of the new tyrannic bill which Parliament were passing, they wisely went to the country. O'Gorman is in Limerick with 10,000 men. Meagher is in Weaford with 1 don't know how many thousand. O'Brien is encamped with 30,000 at the mountain of Suevenanon, in Tipperary, and he asked the people if they were disposed to let him be taken. They shouted no.—
The greatest anxiety exists in Dublin to hear new every hour. In the mean time the bloody Government are surrounding the people with military.—
Every day for the last week regiments of soldiers are arriving from England and going at once to the South' As in '93, we are once more at real issue with the clid despot. Now when our friends in your happy land see we are truly determined, astist us. A little help now bors ir. Does not glory, duty, humanity call on you? In the mean time, Government are arresting numbers who are suspected. Even this morning, ninetten young sum were arrested in their beds at Pin's in George's at before the establishment opened! This is the policy of the Government to provoke bottliftes at once, while the people's policy is to wait until the har vest is riper. It is reported that there are American and French officers with O'Brien, and that they have breast works thrown up to as to defy all the cannon/hat can be brongly against them.
