Who Elected Polk!

That the election of Polk has been productive of supendous evils to the country-of war, a public debt, a lust of conquest, a deterioration of public morals and that it has involved the country in a series of difficulties of frightful magnitude, every candid man must admit. The election of Polk secured the annexation of Texas, the extension of slavery, the Mexican War, the public debt, the destruction of the Tariff and numerous other evils. Who are accountable? The men who elected Who elected him! Let the Chronicle, Mr Van Buren's organ in this city, answer. That paper, of Wednesday last, makes the following asset

"BENJAMIN F. BUTLEE, MARTIN VAN BUREN AN Silas Wright, were the men who INSURED this man Polt's election to the Presidency—even after Mr. Vas Buren had been sussainiated by Polk's friends. Without these New York gentlements ARDENT SUPPORT, he would have been defeated.

So, Mr. Van Buren, the chosen candidate of the Free Soilers, those whose one principle is that of opposition to the extension of Slavery, knowingly, fully, premeditatedly "insures" the election of Mr. Polk, in view of the absolute certainty, the his election would secure the extension of Slav And this was only four years ago!-and strange a it may seem, there are some Whigs who pre-for to trust such a man, all recking with his late ce to Slavery, to that noble Whig par ty which has always opposed Slavery exten

A correspondent says the present campaign reminds him of a celebrated race which came off on the Northampton race course in England, some twenty years ago, between an old war horse, own ed by a gallant Colonel, who distinguished him Waterico, and a full choose a Jackass, belonging a gentleman from Scotland. All things were ranged-the animals started-each one was con ent of success, but alas, the animals had scarces started, till a pet fox, belonging to one of the rico, and a full blooded Jackass, belonging to a gen fident of success, but alas, the animals had scarceiy started, till a pet fox, belonging to one of the inters, rushed upon the Jackass, and so annoyad him, that the war horse left him far behind.

For life has here no charms so dear As Home and Friends around us

We off destroy the present joy For future hopes-and praise them; Whilst flowers as sweet bloom at our feet, If we'd but stoop to raise them '

For things afar still sweetest are, When youth's bright spell bath boun But soon we're taught that earth hath Like Home and Friends around as

The Friends that speed in time of need, When Hope's last reed is shaken, To show us still, that, come what will, We are not quite forsaken !

Though all were night—if but the light From Friendship's altar crowned us; Twould prove the bliss of darth was this-Our Home and Priends around us !
