That brave defence let all remember, And vote for Zack in next November. That he the ration's belin may guide, And from misrule and fraud defend her. And now, as in all coming time.

With pride will memory foodly cherish, The deeds which gaued, in southern clime, For him a name that neer will perish. Hurrah, hurrah, &c.

Like Washington, o'er all he towers, In smiling peace, cr when war lowers. And first in all brave hearts in he. Throughout this broad free land of ours; From youth to age, his star of fame, Hath shone with brighting lustre ever, Nor can detraction e'er his name. From glorious truth and honor sever. Hurah, hurrah, for Rough and Ready, Hurah, hursh, tor Rough and Ready Although to hemen he is rough. To mercy's call he's ever rouly.

And e'es in age, when men require From toil and hardships to retire. Our hero still his country serves. With zeal, which nought but death can tire

With zeal, which nought but deain can use you victory, on to victory, still the marched, bright laneris clustring round him.
